HOUSE COMMITTEE VOTES AGAINST DRAFT

ARMY BILL OF PRESIDENT IS PUT IN PERIL

Senate Committee Votes for Selective Conscription, But House Body Wants Volunteers.

WILSON, AT CAPITOL, MAKES BIG PUSH

Washington, April 18.—Opponents of selective conscription plan got the upper hand in the house military committee today, voted 12 to 8 to have the new army bill carry a provision to first try to raise the new force by volunteers.

The bill including the conscription provision, was approved by the senate military committee, ten to seven.

While the two committees were acting, President Wilson was at the capitol conferring with senate leaders on the administration war measures, particularly the army bill.

The senate committee rejected an amendment by Senator McKellar authorizing the president to call for 500,000 volunteers, and made only a few changes in the bill as drawn by the army general staff.

One amendment would bar liquor from all camps where the new army is to be trained and another would include persons engaged in agriculture and industries exempt from services on account of military reasons. The president told senators he would con-

Washington, D. C., April 18.—Creation of a travelling corps of farm labor to work on irrigated lands of the country is the novel proposal of Secretary Lane to further the nation-wide campaign to increase food production during the war. The plan was outlined today in a communication to Chairman Taylor of the house irrigation committee in which the secretary urges prompt action on the pending bill designed to stimulate food production on private and public lands without irrigation projects. This legislation, he says, is a necessary prerequisite to his plan.

SPAIN DRAWN MUCH NEARER TO CONFLICT

Madrid, April 18.—The Spanish steamship Ton has been torpedoed and sunk without warning. Eighteen lives were lost.

It is expected that news of this occurrence will further influence public feeling in Spain.

The Ton, 1,249 tons gross, was owned in Balboa. Recent dispatches from Spain said much excitement was produced by the torpedoing of the Spanish steamer Fulgencio. The Spanish government sent an emphatic protest to Germany, and is reported to have demanded an indemnity.

DESTROYER SMITH SIGHTED U-BOAT FIRING TORPEDO

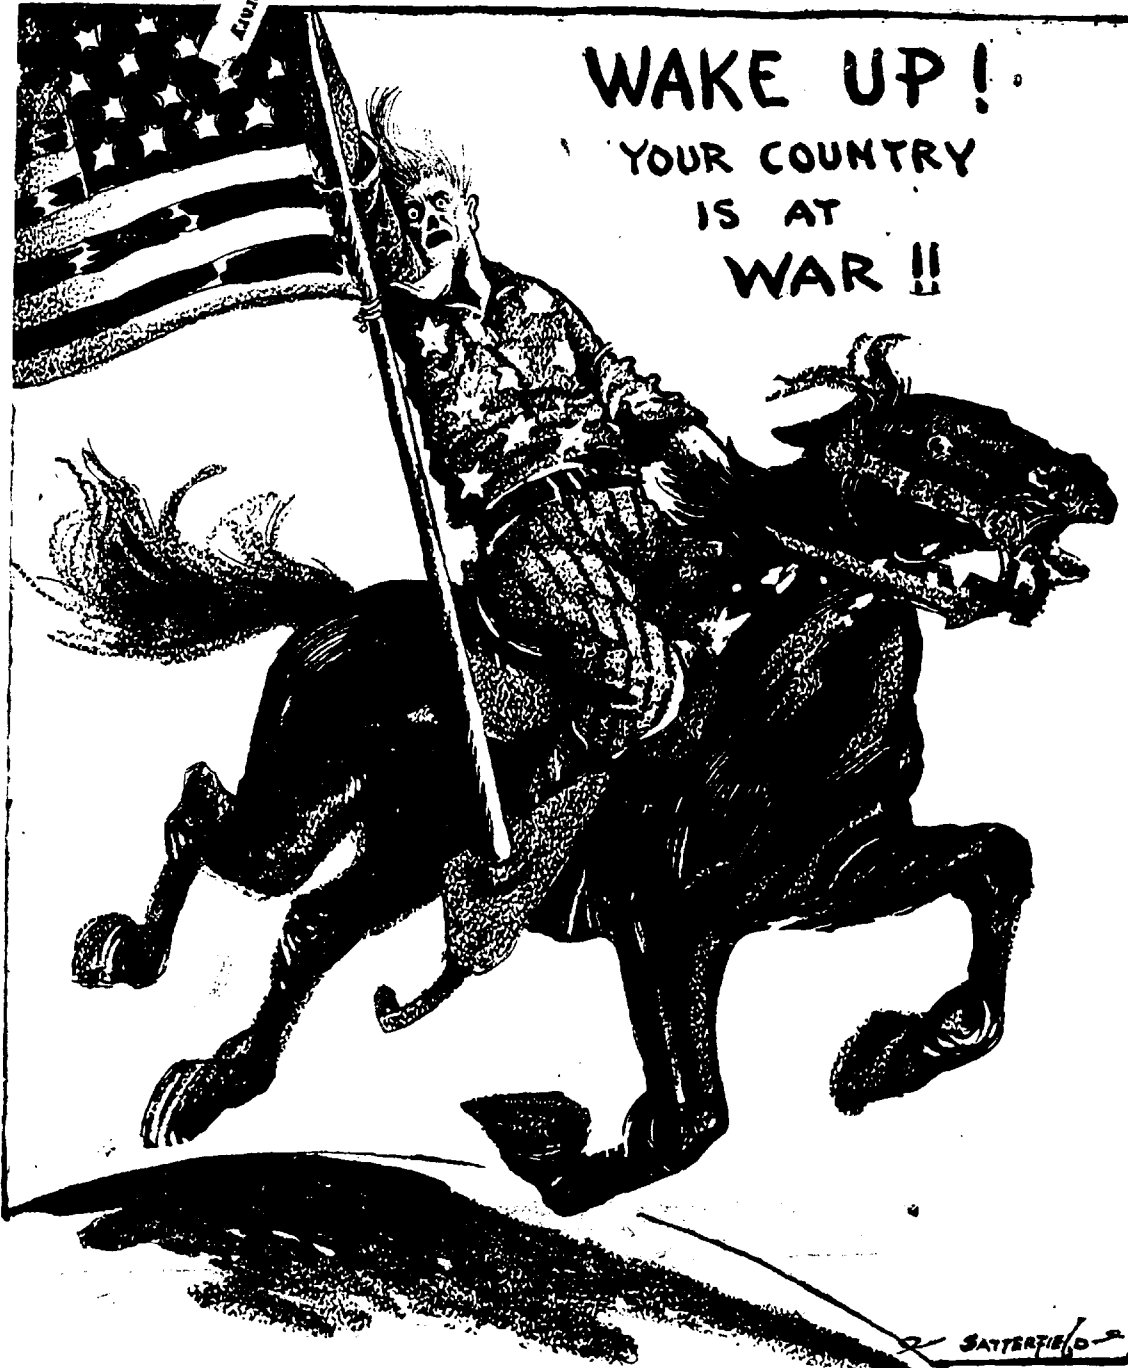

Washington, April 18.—The periscope of a submarine running submerged was sighted by the deck officer, quartermaster and deck watch of the destroyer Smith early yesterday morning just before the wake of a torpedo was seen crossing the destroyer's bows.

This information was contained in a radio report from the commander of the Smith received today at the navy department. Navy officials said this confirms the report of the presence of a German submarine in American waters.

The officer on watch on the Smith reported that the periscope was distinctly visible at a distance of 300 yards from the ship. The quartermaster and the members of the gun crew agreed in this respect.

The report from the officer said the periscope was moving on a course parallel to that of the destroyer. The torpedo crossed the bows of the Smith at a distance of thirty yards as reported yesterday, and today's statement added that all of the men on the ship who saw it were experienced torpedo men.

This may be today. The measure passed the senate last night by unanimous vote.

Treasury officials, anticipating the action of the house on the bill, began today to work out the policy to be employed in issuing the bonds.

Summary of the Day's War News

Continuing their great offensive along the Aisne and in the Champagne, the French have made further important gains. More than 14,000 prisoners have been taken in the two days of the attack. Twelve cannon, including three of large calibre, were among the large quantities of war material captured.

The battle, described as the greatest since the battle of the Marne and considered a logical continuation of that struggle, an interval of more than two years, developed during last night's heavy fighting in the region

FRENCH CLAIM 14,000 GERMAN ARE CAPTURED

Paris, April 18.—2:15 p. m.—Important progress was made last night for the French in their attack east of Soissons. The war office announces the capture of Chavonne and Chivy. The French pushed on north of these points, reaching the vicinity of Braye-en-Laonnois.

The Germans made three desperate counter attacks in the Champagne last night. They were checked by the French, who inflicted heavy losses on the attacking troops. Since Monday the French have captured upward of 14,000 unwounded Germans. In the Champagne large numbers of machine guns and trench mortars have been captured and also 12 cannon, including three of large calibre.

BRITISH MAKE PROGRESS.

London, April 18.—12:35 p. m.—The British forces have made further progress north of St. Quentin and have captured the village of Villers-Guisan, according to an official statement given out by the war office today. The statement follows:

"During the night we made further progress southeast and east of Ephey and this morning captured the village of Villers-Cislan with some prisoners. We also improved our position in the neighborhood of Lagincourt.

Elsewhere there is nothing to report of special interest. Heavy rain is again falling."

GREAT FRENCH OFFENSIVE.

Paris, April 18.—(5:45 a. m.)—The latest French victory, while on a smaller scale than that of Monday, is an equally important success. Both of the sections attacked had been left alone hitherto on account of the exceptional natural strength of the German positions. The French command held that an assault could only be successfully undertaken when overwhelming resources had been accumulated and the general situation was favorable.

The general who commands the armies of the right center had been planning the attack for several weeks and had left nothing to chance. Everything was provided for and the chiefs under him had nothing to do but follow instructions to the letter. As soon as the result of the battle between Soissons and Rheims was known the order was given to attack. Punctually at 4:44 the French infantry "went over" well supported by a powerful mass of artillery. They swept forward in magnificent style and in two hours

the first line system had been captured. Later news came that the French soldiers were carrying all before them and taking prisoners by the score. They seized Montcaumon, Monthaut and all the crests commanding the region.

Hills Thought Impregnable.

From their new positions the French now look down upon Morenvilliers and Nauroy. This Morenvilliers chain of hills was regarded by all French soldiers who had ever been in the section as virtually impregnable and its capture caused the liveliest satisfaction to everybody. The 75s followed up the infantry rapidly and were soon in action. They caught large bodies of the enemy massing with the object of making a diversion and decimated them. According to onlookers such carnage has not been seen since the action of Charny Gap at the beginning of the war.

On the right wing the struggle was equally to the advantage of the French. Auberville, on which the left wing of the Champagne offensive of 1915 broke, fell speedily as well as all

HEAVY FIRING STARTS STORY OF SEA FIGHT

THEORY OF SALUTES IS DISCOUNTED

Boston, April 18.—Reports of heavy gun fire at the entrance of Massachusetts bay sent a thrill along the coast today. Three coast guard stations on Cape Cod successively reported to the navy yard here that they had counted distinct and repeated guns from the north and northeast of the tip of the cape.

It was believed at the navy yard that American vessels were engaged with the enemy. Inside the cape a heavy fog hung over the waters, but outside the weather was calm and a gentle breeze was blowing. No war ship was sighted by the three stations and after 30 minutes the firing ceased.

It was suggested that ships of the allies which are constantly on patrol duty might have come up with friendly warships and salutes exchanged. However, naval men could not understand warships on active duty betraying their location through naval etiquette. They believed there was no saluting unless pre-arranged and of which there was no knowledge at the navy yard.

Subsequent attempts to learn something more definite failed and an explanation of the firing awaited reports from war vessels in the vicinity. Meantime steps were taken to meet any emergency. The navy yard had no information except that received from the coast guard stations.

Newspaper correspondents on the cape said reports of gunfire were current, but all of these were traced to the messages received at the navy yard. No citizens at Highland light or other points nearby could be found who heard gunfire. However, the reports were taken very seriously at the navy yard where the feeling was that there had been a battle off the coast.

Stations 32 and 67 reported that at 9:15 a. m. they heard north from the stations about fifteen guns, and after a fifteen-minute interval fifteen more

WARSAW POLES ON MUNITIONS START STRIKE

Copenhagen, April 18.—A strike has broken out among the Polish munition workers in Warsaw, where Germany has been using Polish laborers to help supply the eastern army. Ordinances of the German military government, which are re-published in a Posen Polish paper, threaten those refusing to work with a year's imprisonment or transfer to a prison camp. The governor declares that no releases or favors for Polish prisoners of war will be granted until the strike movement is checked.

Girls of Edison Lamp Works Making Flag of Their Own

Because of the apparent scarcity of American flags and the tremendous cost of a flag as large as they want, the girls employees of the Edison Lamp works on Holman street, are going to make a flag of their own—just as Betsy Ross did. They have taken up a collection and have purchased the necessary material. Work has already been started. They claim it will be the largest flag in the state.

When the work is finished a big flag raising will be held at the plant. The day of the ceremonies has not been decided, but will be announced as soon as the flag is completed.

Copenhagen, April 17.—Via London, April 18.—The number of strikers in Berlin is placed even in the semi-official report at 125,000, and distributed, according to the Tageblatt, through machine works, some electrical establishments and part of the munition plants. The latter statement is interesting in view of a dispatch from the official news denying that the munition factories were affected. The Tagblatt says, however, that the great munition industry at Spandau has not been involved.

Reports in all the Berlin newspapers which have arrived here agree that the demonstrators were usually orderly although rougher resorts to occasional window smashing in the Unter den Linden, the Friedrich and Leipzig strasses and other central thoroughfares. Soldiers as well as police were used in cordons thrown about the Unter den Linden and the imperial castle. Great crowds gathered in the neighborhood of the castle during the day, and the temper of the crowd, particularly the women, is described as very bitter. The strikers denounced the farmers, the wholesalers and the government in equal measure for responsibility for the food situation. Even socialist leaders who opposed the strike made it evident to the authorities that a further curtailment of rations from any cause could not be borne.

Labor representatives interviewed Lord Mayor Wermuth and the Prussian

MINERS READY TO LABOR FOR THE COUNTRY

New York, April 18.—Having settled their wage differences the bituminous coal miners and operators of Ohio, western Pennsylvania, Illinois and Indiana will now unite to co-operate with the council of national defense in maintaining the production of coal to meet government requirements. A joint commission for this purpose was appointed by the wage conference before it adjourned last night.

The conference, according to a statement by John P. White, international president of the United Mine Workers of America, "set a new mark for the prompt adjustment of relations between employers and employees in a spirit of patriotism and mutual accommodation worthy of good citizens in this time of emergency." The increase in wages agreed upon averages 20 per cent. to 225,000 miners. It is effective from April 15 and will continue in force until March 31, 1918.

ONLY VICTORY CAN PRESERVE THE MONARCHY

Amsterdam, April 18.—Count von Reventlow writing in the Tages Zeitung asserts that victory is necessary if the German monarchy is to endure. He says: "We have long expressed the view that German victory and the German monarchy are mutually dependent. Without a German victory the German monarchy will soon cease to exist."

HEAVY FIRING STARTS STORY OF SEA FIGHT

There were heard fired in quick succession. Stations 35 and 63 at 9:30 reported five or six heavy guns and at 10:20 several more in rapid succession. General direction north. Stations 34 and 70 report three guns in quick succession and firing at intervals since. General direction northeast to north of station. Heard quite plainly at times. The firing apparently came from a point just outside of Massachusetts bay, at the end of Cape Cod.

WASHINGTON GETS REPORT.

Washington, April 18.—A report from a Cape Cod coast guard station forwarded to the navy by the Boston naval district command says there was heavy firing this morning at sea north of the station. Heavy guns were heard in rapid succession.

Three coast guard stations in the Cape Cod region joined in the report saying that the firing was heard at 9:41 o'clock this morning. All agreed that the sound indicated the use of heavy guns in rapid succession.

northeast of Solsons, where Gen. Nivelle's troops made their most notable progress. Pushing far north of the Aisne the French completed their occupation of Chivry, east of the canal, and pressed on to Braye-en-Laonnois, which was entered by French patrols. On the Aisne, further west, they occupied the village of Chavonne.

To the east of this region several fortified positions were wrested from the Germans in the neighborhood of Villers-Bois, three miles southeast of Craonne and on the main highway leading northwest of Rheims. Momentarily halting in the Champagne district to organize their positions the French were attacked in the process by the Germans. Three counter attacks were delivered at Mont Carillet, ten miles southeast of Rheims. The process of envelopment is being continued about Lenz and the similar operation at St. Quentin is registering progress.

In their operations northwest of St. Quentin, Gen. Haig's forces last night straightened out their line by an advance of more than a mile, capturing the village of Villers-Guislain and made further progress east of Ephy, toward the St. Quentin-Cambrai railway, opposite Le Catelet. They also improved their position in the vicinity of Lagnicourt in the Bapaume-Cambrai road, where the Germans made a desperate, but vain attempt to hold after entering it in their attack on a six-mile front last Saturday.

What the Secretary Says.

Secretary Lane wrote, "a little more than seven hundred thousand acres of land within our reclamation projects upon which water may be placed this season. The proposed bill is one by which all of the private and public lands upon the reclamation projects can be utilized. This, I hope can be done in a wholesale way, by the creation of an equipped and mobile organization of farm labor. In every one of our projects—as in every county in the United States—there are considerable bodies of idle tracts. Some of the tracts are lying idle because of lack of farm implements and capital. Our hope is that all of these acres may be impressed immediately into federal service, that to each one project there be organized, at once, a war maintenance corps, the business of which it will be to secure the necessary implements and that all farm labor acts so far as practical as a unit. Each company in this maintenance corps should have as many gangprows and harrows and seeders as can be bought or borrowed.

Would Organize Farmers.

"Around these implements the farmers should be organized just as they are organized around a field gun and each of these companies should move from field to field until the land allotted to it in the project has been plowed and planted. In this way, with adequate machinery and competent farm men, we can do the work of twenty or more in a day. The farmers who have been doing their own plowing and planting upon their own farms can, by acting with such a corps, not only have their own lands cultivated but can bring under cultivation the lands of their neighbors. If the farmers are organized in this way, with proper machinery at their disposal, I can see no need of a shortage in farm labor.

Have Community Tractors.

"The well-to-do farmer who has a tractor should see that that tractor is turned into a community machine. By proper organization, farm work can be done just as systematically as the work of road building or trench fighting. We should have at our disposal enough money to pay wages and buy seed. The mass of the farmers in the corps could be repaid for their work by having their own farms cultivated. The men could be moved with their machines from farm to farm in camps, after the western fashion in harvesting time, or they could be brought to and taken from their work when at long distances by automobile. Instead of having the farmers compete with each other for their farm labor and for seed, by this means each project can be organized into a co-operative commonwealth for the purpose of procuring the greatest possible amount of food with which to support our own people and help those who are our allies. Such an organization should be maintained throughout the season. Harvesting should be done in the same way.

Right to Use Private Land.

"The first step after organization should be the securing the right to use all such private land as is unusual. Compensation for this should be paid on the basis of a percentage of the yield, whatever the standard for such return in the neighborhood may be. Each man might be given upon his arm some evidence of the public work he is engaged in, perhaps, a ribbon on which was printed United States maintenance corps.

"Your bill represents the beginning of a campaign against the holding of lands out of use. With a little money and enterprise this campaign can be made effective, not only against idle lands of our reclamation projects, but as against the idle lands in the country."

After seven hours of discussion the administration measure, which was passed by the house last Saturday and which provides for a loan to the allies of $3,000,000,000, was approved by the senate with a few changes in record time.

In either event the executive branch of the government conducting the war with Germany will, within a few hours, have authorization for the great war chest at its disposal. To expedite action, the senate last night appointed conferees to act if the house should not, contrary to expectations, accept the separate changes.

War Opponents Vote "Aye."

Of the eighty-four senators present every one, including all those who voted against the French last March, voted "aye" to the French loan. Senator Lane of Oregon, who was absent because of illness, recorded themselves in favor of providing the funds to prosecute hostilities. Nearly all of the twelve absentees were ill.

That in the inability of the nation to supply men at once for the fighting lines, money should be America's immediate contribution to the allies was the dominant thought expressed during the debate. Few senators participated in the discussion, which was totally devoid of partisan expression. Every senator speaking announced a staunch intention to aid the government in prosecuting the war to speedy conclusion. Only two, Borah and Cummins, declared opposition to the proposed allies loan. A few favored raising a larger proportion by taxation of the present generation and less upon bonds.

Amendments by Senate.

Amendments adopted by the senate include provisions:

Limiting deposits of proceeds from the bonds in banks to the amount subscribed by the banks and their depositors; permitting deposit of proceeds in state banks and trust companies as well as federal reserve banks; providing for exchange by subscribers of the issues authorized for bonds subsequently issued, during the war at higher interest rates; requiring the secretary of the treasury to report expenditures of the bond proceeds, December 31, and annually thereafter; and exempting the $2,000,000,000 of treasury indebtedness certificates authorized from all taxation, except estate and inheritance taxes.

By mistake it was first announced that eighty-three senators had voted for the bill. A corrected tally showed the vote eighty-four, with the vice president announced, the nays being nays.

the surrounding works. The French made especially good progress north of Auberville.

In the section east of Vaudein-court, hill 112 was stormed, as well as a small wood east of the hill which was a regular nest of German machine guns. At certain points the advance was close up to four miles in depth.

Break Up Hindenburg Plans.

The latest news reaching Paris says the battle continued well into the night, the Germans counter-attacking without success and the French reconstructing the trench systems under the cover of their artillery.

According to information from a reliable source the double offensive of the British north of Arras and of the French on the Aisne disarranged the German plans. Field Marshal von Hindenburg, it is declared, was preparing an offensive against Riga and another against Italy, while on the western front he was considering an attempt at Calais on the one hand and on Paris on the other. The allied western offensive spoiled all this by obliging him to bring back a large part of the effectives intended for the Russian and Italian fronts.

GERMAN OFFICIAL REPORT.

Berlin, April 18.—Via London.—The number of prisoners taken by the Germans on the French battle front yesterday, according to the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters staff was increased to more than 3,000 officers and men.

French attacks in the Champagne yesterday over a twelve mile front, the German statement adds, were prevented from piercing the Tenth lines by the German barring positions. Part of the wood between Moronvillers and Auberville was wrested from French colored divisions which had reached there. During the fighting on April 16 twenty-six of the numerous French armored motor cars were destroyed.

German forces in Macedonia, the German official statement says, drove the French front positions one kilometre wide on the Cervenka Steina, which were captured by the French last March. In the Aisne region, the statement says, yesterday was comparatively quiet except on Bantine ridge, on the Craonne heights, and northwest of Ville-au-Bois, where French attacks made by infantry in waves were repulsed. In the Arras sector the artillery fighting again increased at some points.

food commissioner, Michaelis, yesterday. They were given an assurance in regard to food which it is hoped will induce the workmen to abandon the strike.

The Vorwaerts, alone of the big Berlin papers, ventured this morning to comment editorially on the strike. It said that the demonstration was based not only on the food situation and the demand that internal reforms be no longer delayed, but also on the deep longing of the people for peace.

While claiming that the peace sentiment has had a decisive role in the move, the Vorwaerts argued that the strike cannot be regarded as anti-governmental since the Austrian and German declarations justify the hope that the policy of the central powers is now on a path which will soon lead to peace.

The paper laments the fact that the demonstration will not be exactly the opposite effect, probably from that desired by encouraging Germany's opponents to continue the war and diminishing the output of munitions. It also regrets that among other excesses a crowd gathered in front of the vacant British embassy, yelling and cat-calling.

SAY WORK IS RESUMED.

London, April 18.—(1:35 p. m.)—A Berlin dispatch to the Politiken at Copenhagen as forwarded to the Exchange Telegraph company, says that work has been resumed in most of the Berlin factories.

The Vossische Zeitung of Berlin says that as conditions of returning to work, the strikers demanded a sufficient supply of bread and potatoes, proper distribution of food and a guarantee of the promised Prussian electoral reform.

A Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam says it is reported there from Berlin that the last of the strikers have resumed work.

sent to no compromise because the war department experts after careful examination and discussion, had decided that selective conscription was the only effective way of raising a strong army.

Will Push Measure.

The administration expects the army bill to be made the unfinished business of the senate so that it can be pushed to passage promptly. Then with the prestige of having passed the senate, the measure is expected to receive more prompt and favorable consideration in the house. The president was assured that the majority of the republicans in the house were supporting his plans.

The vote in the house committee threw the situation into confusion. The opponents of a straight conscription plan immediately began to draft amendments in the hope of getting the conscription element to join in a united vote.

Chairman Dent and Representatives Field, Shallenberger, Anthony, Caldwell and Hull, of Iowa, conferred over a plan to use conscription after a call for volunteers apportioned among the states to be offered in the same way as proposed in the administration bill. Senators who voted for the McKellar amendment were Reed, Kirby, Thomas, Hitchcock and McKellar, democrats, and New and Sutherland, republicans. Senators on the committee said the war department estimates that if the measure passes the first 500,000 men will be in training camps by August 1.

For Volunteers.

The house committee's system was a straight out decision for the principle of a volunteer system first of all, applying both as to filling up the ranks of the regular army, the national guard and the raising of the new army.

But when the volunteer system fails to provide sufficient numbers of men the president would have authority to resort at once to selective conscription. Chairman Dent made this statement: "The committee agreed to put in the bill provisions for a call for 500,000 volunteers in the first instance for 500,000 more than the president wants, the number in each case contemplated in the administration bill for conscription."

"The committee has not yet fixed the military age, but it probably will be between 21 and 40, instead of 19 to 25, contemplated in the administration measure. The president is authorized to proceed with the enrollment of registration of men between the military ages immediately and on the completion of that enrollment and registration the president is authorized to decide which he will proceed with, the volunteer or draft system. But meanwhile the volunteer system will have been in operation and the volunteers will be coming into the service in large numbers. Of course on the final analysis, after the volunteer plan has been in operation and the military registration and enrollment completed, the president would decide as to the respective two plans."

The provision as drawn was later formally adopted by the committee by a vote of 13 to 8.

Detail of Volunteer Plan.

The volunteer provision agreed to in principle by the vote of 12 to 8 is as follows: "That the president be and he is hereby authorized to call for 500,000 volunteers under and in accordance with the act of congress, approved April 25th, 1914. (The army reorganization act) x x x x x. "That in the event it becomes necessary to raise an additional force of 500,000 men x x x x x the president be and he is hereby authorized to call such additional force by volunteers in the same manner. Such volunteer army shall be apportioned among the various states and territories and the District of Columbia, according to population, raised in reg-ing the enemy and were confident of the outcome.

London, April 18.—A Petrograd dispatch says that Premier Lvoff and some of the other ministers who have been visiting army headquarters reported on their return that conditions at the front had considerably improved, especially in regard to the supply of the principal food products. They say that food and transportation conditions are satisfactory. Premier Lvoff declared in an interview that the unrest which the army had showed during the first stage of the revolution had completely disappeared. He said that the fighting spirit was increasing daily, that the troops were encounter-

I Blame the Woman Who Lets a Man Drink Says Druggist Brown

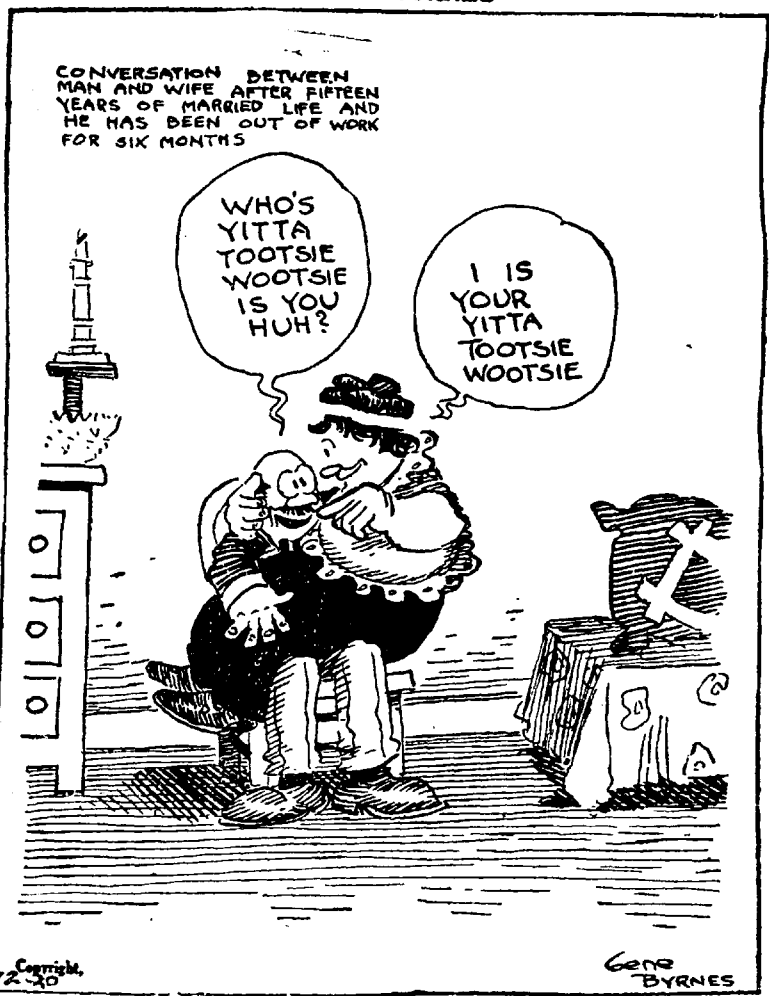

Of Cleveland. He Guarantees a Simple Home Treatment Given Without the Knowledge of the Drinker.

Cleveland, O.—No wife has a right to let her husband drink; for alcoholism is a disease and a drunkard is a sick man, says Druggist Brown of Cleveland. A woman can cure this disease—stop a drinking husband in a few weeks for half what he would spend on liquor in the same time. The habit can be broken and the disease cured. Thousands of cases prove it and every community has its reformed drunkard. Druggist Brown says the right time to stop the drink habit is at its beginning. Left to run its course it will deaden the fine sensibilities of the man you love. Begin with the first whiff of liquor on his breath but do not despair if he has already gone from bad to worse until he has become a run-soaked sot. Druggist Brown knows the cause of strong drink for he himself has been a victim. A loving sister, without his knowledge or consent, rescued him from the brink of a drunkard's grave and for ten years kept her secret. She saved him from drink—rescued him from his own depraved, besotted self by giving him a secret remedy, the formula of an old German chemist. To pay his debt to her and to help other victims out of the muck and mire he has made the formula public. Druggists everywhere dispense it daily as Prepared Tescum Powders, put up in doses. Get it of your own druggist and drop a powder twice a day in tea, coffee, milk or other drink. Soon liquor does not taste the same, the craving for it disappears, and lo, one more drunkard has been saved and knows not when or why he lost his taste for drink.

Warning Note: Tescum should be given only where it is desirable to destroy all taste for alcohol and all pleasure in its use. Those who encourage moderate drinking should not give it until the so-called moderate drinker reaches the danger line, as most of them do in time. Druggist Brown has such confidence in prepared Tescum Powders that he personally guarantees results or he will refund out of his own pocket the price charged by the dispensing druggist. It is dispensed in Ft. Wayne by Dreier Drug Co., Meyer Bros. and other druggists.

Uric Acid Poisoning! OLD-TIME REMEDY MAKES BLOOD PURE.

The most eminent physicians recognize that uric acid stored up in the system is the cause of rheumatism, that this uric acid poison is present in the joints, muscles or nerves. By experimenting and analysis at the Invalid Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce discovered a combination of native remedies that he called Anuric—which drives out the uric acid from the system, and in this way the pain, swelling and inflammation subside. If you are a sufferer from rheumatism, backache, pains here or there, you can obtain Anuric at any drug store and get relief from the pain and ills brought about by uric acid; or send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial package Anuric, which you will find many times more potent than lithia and eliminates uric acid almost as hot water melts sugar. A short trial will convince you.

Elkhart, Ind.—"When I was a girl just coming into womanhood I suffered greatly. I became weak and nervous, in fact, all run-down in health. In addition to this I had a breaking-out all over my body. At times it would look like eczema and then again it seemed that it was scrofula. I could not get anything that did me any good until my mother began giving me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his Golden Medical Discovery. They proved to be just what I needed as I have never had any more womanly trouble, and they also cured me of the breaking-out on my body. I cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Pierce's medicines."—Mrs. Geo. Flenner, 403 East Jackson St.—Advertisement.

LARGEST AMERICAN FLAG SWUNG TO THE BREEZES IN SAN FRANCISCO.

MARKET STREET, San Francisco's famous thoroughfare, was crowded for blocks with thousands of wildly cheering patriots during a formal ceremony in which the largest American flag ever made was swung to the breezes. The enthusiastic demonstration of loyalty to Old Glory followed the president's war message.

Regular soldiers, sailors from the naval training station at Goat Island, United States marines and national guardsmen formed a hollow square. At the last note of the national anthem, played by a military band, the emblem was unfurled. The troops presented arms and the crowd cheered for five minutes.

The flag is 130 feet long and 75 feet wide. Each stripe is 5 1/4 feet wide and the diameter of each star is 30 inches. The flag weighs 300 pounds. Flags and the national colors are now waving in all Pacific coast cities.

Council Joins in General Misunderstanding on Tax Levy.

President of the Council William Bayer and Councilman Gene Smith won the admiration of their fellows in the glowing tributes they paid to the Stars and Stripes, at the opening of the council gathering, which met as a committee of the whole, Tuesday evening. Later on these two men engaged to the consternation of their brothers by waging a heated word skirmish, which brought half a dozen councilmen to their feet to interpose objections.

President Bayer opened the committee session by a brief address on "The Meaning of the Flag." He said that the stars for liberty and against oppression and for democracy as opposed to autocracy.

Councilman Smith was called upon to deliver a talk on "Old Glory." Smith was a civil war veteran. His voice broke and tears sprang to his eyes at the point where he spoke of the effort the union soldiers made in '61 to keep the flag stainless.

"We were young boys then," said Smith and his voice died away in pathetic silence. "We never let the old flag touch the dust. May the young lads who hear that beloved standard into this world conflict bring it back to us with added glory to its holy name."

Council members were asked to rise and salute the large flag, which had been placed over the president's platform and to join in singing "America." The brief ceremony was an impressive one. The council chamber had been literally garbed in flags. Small ensigns hung from the chandeliers and two large banners were across the desks of the secretary and the police captain.

Refer Tax Levy Action.

Action on the resolution to make special assessment on $16,000,000 worth of property for raising money for paving street intersections was deferred for two weeks when the council will meet again as a committee of the whole.

When President Bayer said that members of the Real Estate Exchange were present and would probably like to speak Councilman Smith arose and addressed the chair. He said that while he could not combat the oratory of the city attorney and members of the real estate organization he wanted to voice a protest against the project to pave fifty more streets in Fort Wayne. He pointed out the fact that the board of works has a coliseum to build this summer besides trying to oversee street paving.

Bayer announced that it had always been the policy of the council to give all visitors a chance to speak when they desired. Smith thought the remark was addressed to him. The veteran councilman arose and shook his fist at the presiding official.

"You can't belittle me," Smith shouted. "I will not stand for it. I will not allow you to read me a lecture."

Bayer retorted, and while both men were trying to speak several councilmen arose and called for order.

Councilman Mills and John Wessel, Jr., manager and secretary of the city light department, engaged in a lively tilt when Mills moved that $15,000 be taken from the light department and placed in the street paving fund. Wessel showed by gesturing the need of new equipment, that the light department needed all its money.

Robert Kelly, chairman of the board of works, read a list of the streets for which paving petitions had been filed. City Attorney Colerick explained at length the system by which money might be raised. He said the tax would be placed upon land value and would benefit those who would have to pay the tax. It would not burden the poor man with added tax, he said.

Councilman Korte asked that the proposition of an extra levy be explained to the people in a series of ward meetings. It was decided to defer action for two weeks.

About Rheumatism.

Do you know that more than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply muscular rheumatism due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism which attacks the larger joints, knees, hips and shoulders. Neither of these varieties require any internal treatment. All you need is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment with vigorous massage to effect a cure. Try it.—Advertisement.

HOAGLAND NEWS.

Hoagland, Ind., April 18.—Miss Luella Ruhl, district superintendent, Saturday evening the following young people: Frances Emmerich, Vera Emrick, Madeline Havice, Lydia Gressley, Lewis Corville, George Corville, Foster Stout, Allen Emrick, Orville Carrier and Joe Carrier, the occasion of the Hoagland school building, the eighth grade pupils of Madison township, will take the county examination. WOMEN SHOULD GET THIS HABIT AS WELL AS MEN

Don't eat bite of breakfast until you drink glass of hot water.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous, and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with pale or muddy complexions, instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities, so constipation, the blood, while the pores are shut, the blood is forced to the surface, and the skin is forced to the surface, and the skin is forced to the surface.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDERINE"

Spend 25 cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy and thick in few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Advertisement.

All want to try new drug that dries up corns so they lift out.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezone, the recent discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

A quarter of an ounce costs very little at any pharmacy, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.—Advertisement.

Matt. 14:1-11.
 1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,
 2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.
 3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philip's wife.
 4 For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.
 5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.
 6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herod-ias danced before them, and pleased Herod.
 7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever
 she would ask.
 8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.
 9 And the king was sorry; nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.
 10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.
 11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

A Bed-Rock Fact for Everybody.

Underlying the great national movement for greater food production is one bed-rock fact that everybody should understand and appreciate.

The production of more food will be no hardship. It will not add to, but on the contrary will lighten, the burden that weighs against every pocketbook. It will cost nobody anything. It will be money in the pockets of all who lend their efforts to this great movement to strengthen the military position of the government and the economic situation of the country.

It likewise will be money in the pockets of the whole people, for the more food there is the lower will be the cost of living to all. Those who do not work to produce food will share in this benefit almost equally with those who do—the difference being merely that those who do work will have what they produce at the bare cost of production in initial expenditure and the labor applied.

Those who do not work will be benefited greatly by the toil of those who devote themselves to the national cause. There are many,
 of course, who for one reason or another will be denied any opportunity to engage in food production even upon the narrowest scale.
 Workers in many lines can render greater service to their country in ways that will keep them from the soil. But there are millions upon millions of people who can add something to the nation's store of food —men and women who never have done anything of the sort because never before have they been brought face to face with any necessities of the kind.

There ought to be no slackers in this national service any more than there should be slackers in military service. All who can add something to the measures of relief against a shortage of food owe it to themselves just as they owe it to their country to do what they can.
 And these should keep in mind the bed-rock fact that here is a great opportunity for service—essentially patriotic service—that lays no tribute upon them. It will cost them nothing but a little time devoted each day to a labor that all will be much the better in every way for having done.

Fort Wayne offers many advantages to the people here who are willing to assist the movement for more food. In the city's environs are many acres of unused land that can be made highly productive.
 There are thousands of homes owned by the persons who occupy them where profitable kitchen gardens can be cultivated. The employment of all this ground for the growing of food can have only a good re-
 list in this branch of the nation's service. Thousands more ought to enlist.

Now Give Us an Army.

With little delay attended by a minimum of talk and no disposition anywhere manifest to withhold support, congress has voted to the government war credits of seven billions. No other nation in history has ever poured into the capacious maw of war at one time a sum equal to this. It is notice to America's foes and to all the world beside that this nation is able and ready to employ without stint its vast resources of wealth for the country's defense and the advancement of democracy. Congress has acquitted itself admirably.

Now if congress will perform with equal credit to itself in making it possible for the nation to employ its vast man power for the national defense, America's part in this war will be borne with credit and honor.
 The United States cannot fight without fighting-men. We must have an army. That army must be large, it must be trained, it must be equipped, it must be amenable to service anywhere on the earth that it can best advance the military interests of the government.

In every war in which this nation has been engaged the volunteer system has broken down. It is breaking down in this war. Volunteer enlistments are far below the requirements to bring the regulars and the national guards up to war strength. The law must make an adequate army a surety. The law must impose the duty that too many are
 to the great majority in congress. Theoretical views and academic

Today is the one hundred and forty-second anniversary of the ride of Paul Revere and here is Henry W. Longfellow's poem describing that famous event of our early history:

Listen, my children, and you shall hear
 Of the midnight ride of Paul Revere,
 On the eighteenth of April, in Seventy-five:
 Hardly a man is now alive
 Who remembers that famous day and year.

He said to his friend,—"If the British march
 By land or sea from the town tonight,
 Hang a lantern aloft in the belfry
 Of the North church tower, as a signal light—
 One if by land, and two if by sea;
 And I on the opposite shore will be,
 Ready to ride and spread the alarm
 Through every Middlesex village and farm,
 For the country-folk to be up and to arm."

Then he said good-night, and with muffled oar
 Silently row'd to the Charlestown shore,
 Just as the moon rose over the bay,
 Where swinging wide at her moorings lay
 The Somerset, British man-of-war:
 A phantom ship, with each mast and spar
 Across the moon, like a prison-bar,
 And a huge, black hulk, that was magnified
 By its own reflection in the tide.

Meanwhile his friend, through alley and street
 Wanders and watches with eager ears,
 Till in the silence around him he hears
 The muster of men at the barrack-
 door,
 The sound of arms, and the tramp of feet,
 And the measured tread of the gren-adiers
 Marching down to their boats on the shore.

Then he climb'd to the tower of the church,
 Up the wooden stairs, with stealthy tread,
 To the belfry-chamber overhead,
 And startled the pigeons from their perch
 On the sombre rafters, that round him made Masses and moving shapes of shade;
 Up the light ladder, slender and tall,
 To the highest window in the wall,
 Where he paused to listen and look down
 A moment on the roofs of the quiet town,
 And the moonlight flowing over all.

Meanwhile, impatient to mount and ride,
 Booted and spurred, with a heavy stride,
 On the opposite shore walk'd Paul Revere,
 Now he patted his horse's side,
 Now gaz'd on the landscape far and near,
 Then impetuous stamp'd the earth,

And turn'd and tight'n'd his saddle-
 girth:
 But mostly he watched with eager search
 The belfry-tower of the Old North church,
 As it rose above the graves on the hill,
 Lonely, and spectral, and sombre, and still.
 And lo! as he looks, on the belfry's height,
 A glimmer, and then a gleam of light!
 He springs to the saddle, the bridle he turns,
 But lingers and gazes, till full on his sight
 A second lamp in the belfry burn!

A hurry of hoofs in a village street,
 A shape in the moonlight, a bulk in the dark,
 And beneath the pebbles, in passing,
 A spark
 Struck out by the steed that flies fearless and fleet:
 That was all! And yet, through the gloom and the light
 The fate of a nation was riding that night,
 And the spark struck out by that steed, in his flight,
 Kindled the land into flame with its heat.

He heard the blasting of the flock,
 And the twitter of birds among the trees,
 And felt the breath of the morning breeze
 Blowing over the meadows brown.

And one was safe and asleep in his bed
 Who at the bridge would be first to fall,
 Who that day would be lying dead,
 Mowed by a British musket-bail.

You know the rest. In the books you have read,
 How the British regulars fired and fled;
 How the farmers gave them ball for ball,
 From behind each fence and farmyard wall,
 Chasing the red-coats down the lane,
 Then crossing the fields to emerge again
 Under the trees at the turn of the road,
 And only pausing to fire and load.
 So through the night rode Paul Revere,
 And so through the night went his cry of alarm:
 To every Middlesex village and farm—
 A cry of defiance, and not of fear,
 A voice in the darkness, a knock at the door,
 And a word that shall echo for evermore!

For borne on the night-wind of the Past,
 Through all our history, to the last,
 In the hour of darkness, and peril, and need,
 The people will waken and listen to hear
 The hurrying foot-beat of that steed,
 And the midnight message of Paul Revere.

policies do not count. It is a condition that confronts the nation and that condition is war—actual and terrible war.

Pacifism may be tolerable in the piping times of peace, but there is no peace. This nation is plunged into the greatest conflict of all time. We cannot serve alone with our money. We must serve also with our men.

The conduct of affairs in this country is determined by the majority of those of our people who have been given the right to vote. The majority rules, and if one candidate receives one more vote than another he is elected and the minority must abide by the decision. So strongly is the idea of majority rule fixed among our people that the result of an election is accepted peacefully unless there is evidence of gross fraud.

But how is the voting population determined? Who gives the privilege to vote to certain people and keeps the privilege from others? The privilege is conferred by the people themselves in their constitution and theoretically at least the people single out that part of the population which is best fitted to exercise the suffrage and confer the privilege upon them. Some are excluded expressly because they are not deemed fit.

If we could imagine all the people of the state assembled together we would probably find them reasoning on the question "who should vote?" about like this: They would agree that insane and otherwise demented people should not vote because they would not be responsible. They would not exclude criminals because they are not fit voters if they willingly break the laws. They would exclude children because they are immature in judgment. They would exclude paupers who are supported at public expense because they are wards of the state. They might exclude other classes who were deemed to be too ignorant because of their lack of education. They might go as far as to exclude women as they did in most states. There would be left then the men who are not of any of the classes excluded. They would expect these men to be citizens of the country because it would be no business of a man to take part in governing a state of which he was not a citizen.

The duty of the history of suffrage brings us to the same point but the result was not accomplished by general agreement of all the people of a state. We got our suffrage institutions from England. In the beginning the king controlled. He gave the people no part in government. Then suffrage was extended to selected classes of men. Gradually the vote was granted to more and more classes of men until universal manhood suffrage prevailed. When the colonies became independent they extended the suffrage, some adopting full manhood suffrage and others restricting it by religious tests, property tests and educational tests. Step by step these restrictions have been removed and the suffrage widened. Today the woman vote is nearly everywhere for some of the reasons upon some questions. In eleven states they vote on the same conditions as men and in two states, Indiana and Illinois, they vote for the larger part of the officers but not all.

Probably we have now reached the limit of suffrage grants. There are no more classes to be enfranchised and the century long struggle is about to be closed by the complete enfranchisement of women. In all probability we shall not lower the age limit. No one demands that we shall grant the right to vote to any of the defective classes now excluded. We have in Indiana permitted foreigners who have declared their intentions to become citizens to vote. That is, the extreme limit of liberality which we shall doubtless want to restrict rather than enlarge. So we have completed the enfranchisement of the race so far as it is possible to go and that chapter will be closed in Indiana when full suffrage is granted to women. Perhaps we should make some restrictions but that matter will be discussed later.

minor children of a man who has declared his intentions need not afterwards make such a declaration to become citizens. In Indiana this declaration gives the alien the right to vote if he has resided in the United States one year and has the requirements for voting required of citizens. To continue to vote the alien need not even become a citizen. After declaring his intentions he may vote forever in this state.

To become a citizen the alien must live in the United States five years and in the state one year and at least two years must have elapsed since his declaration of intentions was filed. Citizenship is obtained upon the presentation of a petition to a state or federal court where he resides, showing the facts about his past history, when he came to this country, etc. He must swear that he is not an anarchist or a polygamist and that he renounces any foreign allegiance. The petition must be verified by two credible witnesses who are citizens of the United States and who will vouch for the facts in the petition. Single women may be naturalized the same as men but the wife of an alien may not become a citizen except by the naturalization of her husband.

QUESTIONS FOR INVESTIGATION.
 1. Why should the suffrage be extended to all responsible citizens?
 2. Should a man be a citizen before being allowed to vote?
 3. What is the need of registration?
 4. Why not reduce the age limit for voters?
 5. Discuss the proposition that the citizenship of the wife follows that of the husband.

 It is not so easy to be cheerful when one is ill. We may, however, seek the cause of our despondency and perhaps remove it. TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

The American non furnished us Easter eggs at 14 cents a dozen.

George Gerard had his arm severely lacerated by broken glass Saturday.

The venerable Samuel Bowser is lying at the point of death at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Daniel Sloner, on Summit street.

Herman Berghoff has returned from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore, where the Berghoff Brewing company has agencies.

The aged mother of Trustee Barney Tibbet, of Adams township, had a fall which resulted in fracture of the bones of her hip. The lady is eighty years old.

Jacob Kampe, a hostler for Dr. W. W. Shryock, was injured Saturday by falling off a horse, which fell while going at a lively gallop. It was several hours before the man recovered consciousness.

Word has been received in this city of the death of Dr. A. M. Thorp, of Loganport, as a result of injuries received at the hands of ruffians who brutally assaulted him two weeks ago. The assault was made by highwaymen.

Prof. M. N. Plamadore, the well known teacher of violin music, has received from Rome a violin of rare excellence. It was made in Naples over one hundred and twenty years ago and the price paid by Prof. Plamadore for the instrument was $500.

Miss Emma Koegel, a young lady employed in the confectionary department of Fox's manufactory, was caught by an elevator in that establishment this afternoon. She was caught and carried twenty feet until her body actually stopped the elevator. She was released from her position, bruised and bleeding, and when conveyed to her home on Pritchard street was unconscious.

The services at Emanuel's Lutheran church yesterday were the last that will be held in that edifice for at least three months. The building will be almost dismantled and undergo repairs that will effect a most pleasing transformation. A new pipe organ will also be placed by the young men of the church. Services will be held in the school hall until the church is again ready for occupancy.

An Inside Bath Makes You Look and Feel Fresh

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast keeps illness away.

This excellent, common-sense health measure being adopted by millions.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

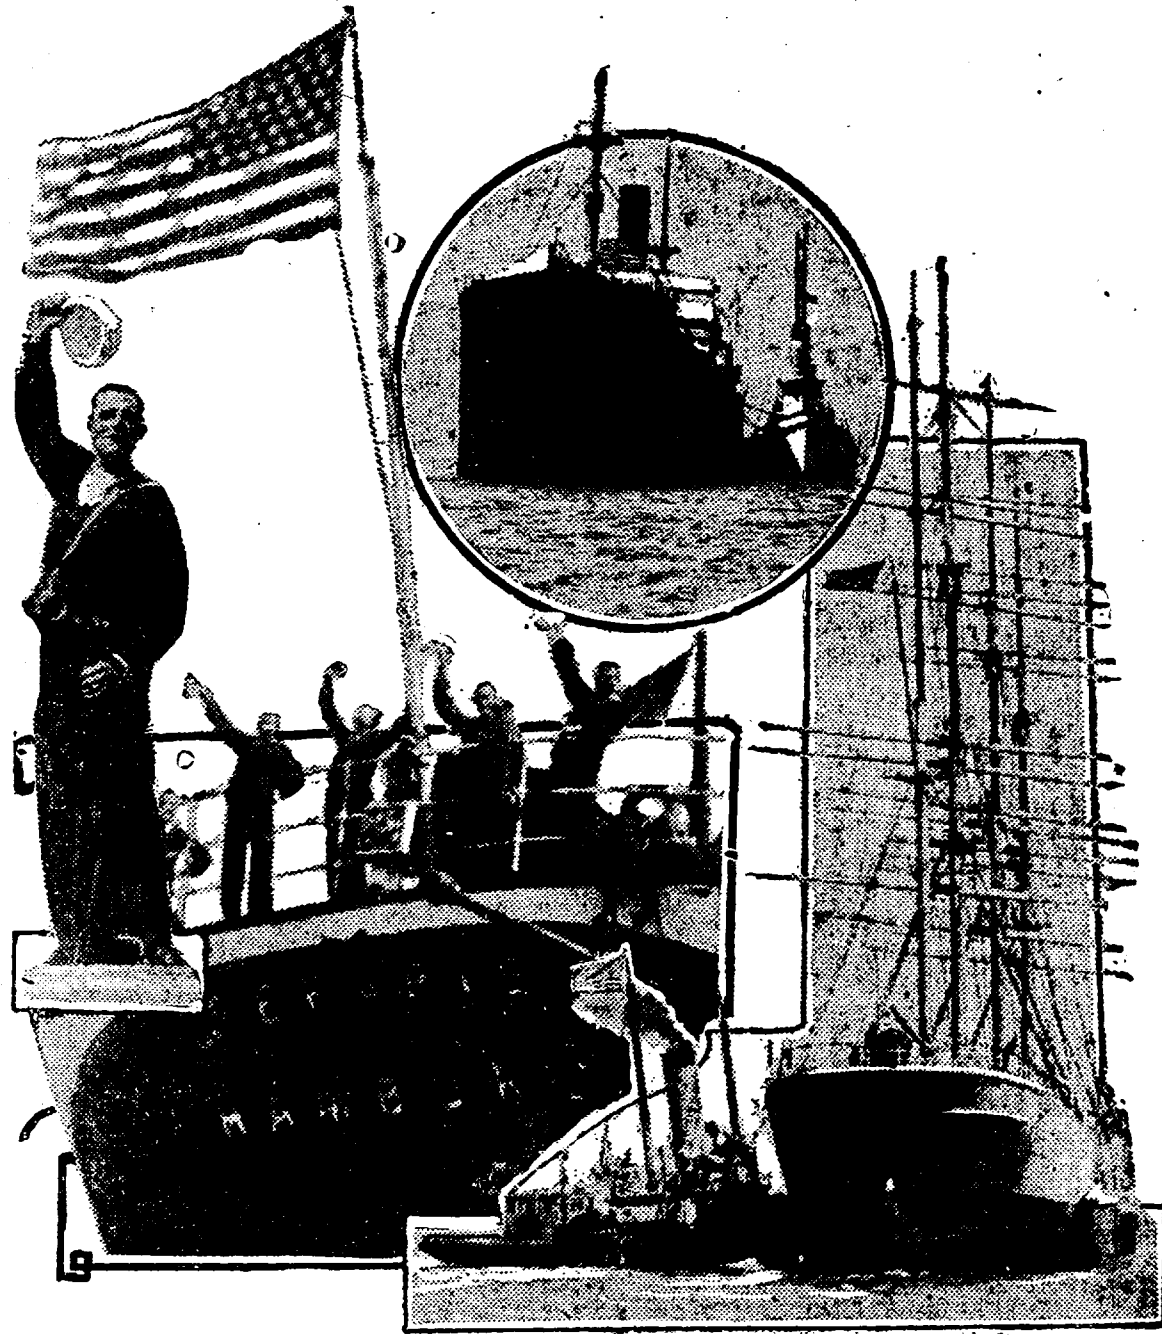

Men and women are urged to drink each morning before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxic, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.—Advertisement.

"BUNCH OF RUBES" TO HAVE 1920 CANDIDATE

Nonpartisan League of North Dakota Farmers Sweeping West.

(Editor's Note: Oliver S. Morris, the writer of this article, is editor of The Nonpartisan Leader, official magazine of the great farmers' movement of the middle states, identified with this important crusade for better government for all the people, he is in a position to speak with authority as to its meaning and aspirations.)

(By Oliver S. Morris.)
Fargo, N. D., April 18.—A political movement started by a bunch of rubes in North Dakota now bids fair to have a presidential candidate in the field in 1920 and capture the electoral vote of eight or ten states.

When the Nonpartisan league of farmers was organized in North Dakota in 1915 it was looked upon as a bomb movement.

Now the league is in control of the government of this state and is rapidly and successfully organizing South Dakota, Minnesota and Montana, from national headquarters which were moved to St. Paul several months ago.

The league is "going" in these three states even better than it went in North Dakota. It has nearly 100,000 members, over half of whom are outside of North Dakota.

It is the intention of these farmers to elect candidates endorsed by them in all these states in the 1918 state elections.

Other states are clamoring to have the league establish branches and take up the work of organization. Notable examples are Wisconsin, where a convention of farmers recently declared for the organization of a Nonpartisan league, and Idaho, where the State Federation of Agriculture invited the league's national headquarters to establish a branch.

If the league does carry the three other states as well as North Dakota in 1918, there is no question but that it will "take on" a few more states for the 1920 campaign. This will mean that it will put a presidential candidate in the field, with government ownership of railroads, telephones and telegraphs as a platform.

Elderly People Praise Cadomene

For Nervous Ill-Health.

Elderly People Praise Cadomene!
Sept. 23, 1916.
Dear Sir:—I just bought another tube of Cadomene Tablets. My wife and I have used one tube and we find them as you state. My wife had become very nervous, nervous and irritable, and she had I am glad I got the Cadomene as it has made my wife a whole lot better, and they have helped me to sleep, as I was so very nervous. We both are getting on in years, although my wife says she is not old, now since using Cadomene, and I believe it, too, because she is so lively and not cross as she was. Your Cadomene Tablets surely made us feel like New People all right. Find stamp enclosed for Health Book.
Respectfully,
Hugh Kelsoe,

and the chance of becoming the strongest "third party" the country has ever seen.

I am often asked: "What is this movement and what does it want?" I find people throughout the country watching it and wondering at its success.

The Nonpartisan league is a people's organization, the backbone of which is the producers—the farmers and the working people. It seeks a bigger and better life for the common people by using the ballot box first and reforming in economic abuses through control of legislatures and eventually of congress. Its slogan is, "Let the people rule."

The league has a specific program. Its principal plank relates to the marketing of food products. It believes that a horde of middlemen and "handlers" under the present commercial system and business practices exact unjust toll on the products of the soil between the producer and consumer. It seeks, by government ownership and control of the elevators, warehouses and cold storage plants, the specific program in other states will be adapted to the peculiar conditions existing in those states.

The league stands for the ownership and operation by the people of all public utilities—in the cities, water, light and gas plants and street railroads; in the states, terminal marketing facilities, insurance and other utilities of state-wide scope; in the nation, of railroads, telegraphs and telephones.

But the aspirations of the members of the league are not all set down in the written program. In the states now being organized all the progressive forces are rallying around the league's banner. The people see in the movement a chance to cleanse politics, to elect men of the people to office and wipe out the control by "invisible government," to relegate the professional politician to the scrap heap.

The league is financed by its members. It accepts no campaign funds or aid of any kind from anybody except its own members.

League members meet in precinct, county and state conventions and choose men they can trust for office, regardless of party considerations. The members then see that they are nominated under the laws of the state on the tickets of the parties to which they belong, whether republican, democrat or socialist, and all league members support them.

The league is meeting tremendous opposition everywhere and it has to fight every step of the way. But it thrives on opposition. When it puts on its presidential campaign in 1920 it will be some campaign.

SOCIETY

The members of the To-Kalon club and their invited friends, numbering in all about one hundred and twenty young people, enjoyed a dancing party at Elks' hall last evening. The hall was used in decorating it and the stage was decorated with potted plants, palms and flags. An orchestra furnished music and dancing lasted until 1 o'clock.

Mrs. John Eckrich, of Broadway, gave an unusually beautiful party on Tuesday evening as a compliment to Miss Mary Eckrich, a bride-elect of May. Mrs. Eckrich was assisted by her sisters, Misses Anita and Mayme Tholen, in giving this party, which included a shower of gifts for the bride. The supper table was laid in a handsome ebony lace luncheon set. Pink and green candles, bride roses as favors, dainty fan shaped place cards hand painted and flowers all combined in making the table exceedingly attractive. Miss Eckrich received several rings as gifts. The guests were special friends of Miss Eckrich and included Misses Esther and Helen Tholen, Loretta Bernadette and Helen Eckrich, Norah Klotz, Vera Nipper, Theresa Drury, Catherine Thicke, Mrs. John Poliv, Mrs. Glen Klotz, Mrs. Arthur Harris, Mrs. Didier, Mrs. Edward Wakelers. Bunco was the amusement.

A patriotic entertainment of the members of a card club to which she belongs was Mrs. James Van Camp's luncheon-bridge at the Randall hotel on Tuesday. Plugs decorated the table, tiny silk ones covered the nut baskets and small flags decorated the dessert course. Covers were laid for sixteen and after the luncheon auction was played in the hotel parlor.

Miss Frieda Kaede surprised the members of the C. G. club when she entertained them at her home in Swinney avenue, on Tuesday evening by announcing that her wedding to A. J. Rose, of Toledo, O., would take place on April 25. The company served for Miss Kaede and enjoyed her hospitality. Participating in this pleasant affair were Miss Ruth Hanson, Miss Edith Kaede, Miss Lois Koppenhoefer, Miss Edith Lindenberg, Miss Florence Lindenberg, Miss Marie Reber and Miss Zella Wagner.

Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Wyneken have returned from a visit in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Fisher are at French Lick Springs for a ten days' stay.

Hon. and Mrs. E. G. Hoffman are taking a few days' outing at French Lick Springs.

Mrs. Robert Millard has gone to Indianapolis to attend a party to be given in her honor.

Mrs. Frank I. Brown has gone to Bridgeton, N. J., for a visit with a sister of Mr. Brown.

Michigan university students of this city have returned to their work after a ten days' holiday at their homes here.

A pre-nuptial party to honor Miss Irene Woebeke will be given on Thursday evening by Mrs. Sydney Karm, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Harrod.

Mrs. W. W. Ruchkoff has returned from visits with her sisters, Mrs. Fred Nichols and family, of Chicago, and Mrs. Charles L. Barnaby, of Grand Rapids.

Emmett Royhans has returned to his studies at Notre Dame university. His guests, Archie Swift, of Shenandoah, Ia., has gone back to his studies in Michigan university.

Mrs. Margaret S. Olds has gone to Chicago to visit her son, James, who is at work there and will later go to Burlington, Ia., for a visit of indefinite length of time with Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Guild.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes, of Rockhill street, are going to Chicago on Thursday to meet Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hughes, of Detroit, and take a month's trip to California together.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hughes live in Detroit.

Mrs. Eugene Troendel, and her mother, Mrs. Johanna Schilling, entertained on Tuesday afternoon at a "kaffe" to honor Mrs. August Crull, of Milwaukee, who thus met a few old friends. Mrs. J. P. Meyer, Mrs. C. G. Streider and Mrs. Carl Siebel are to entertain for Mrs. Crull.

Mrs. Harold Wood and child, of New Albany, who came here to attend the wedding of her cousin, James M. Meriwether, left Tuesday evening for Toledo, O., in company with her mother, Mrs. C. M. Dawson, who also made a short visit at the Meriwether home in order to attend the wedding.

Miss Hilda Royhans presented the following pupils in a piano recital Saturday afternoon: Misses Mary Bell, Mildred Dornte, Vivian Cynce, Marian Spurling, Catherine Fletcher, Violet Hoppel, Helen Nachtergal, Katherine Lynch, Emma Bell, Marjorie King and Elizabeth Cole and Messrs. Edwin Brink, Harold Coovel, Harold Robbins and James King.

Miss Clara Strasser, of Washington boulevard east, was pleasantly surprised Sunday evening when the members of the A. F. F. club and their invited guests formed a merry party in honor of her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in various games and at a late hour a luncheon was enjoyed. Those present were: Misses Roselle Stoll, Claude Gallagher, Helen Heidenreich, Marie Hartung, Velma Neeb and Miss Clara Strasser, and Messrs. Elmer Strasser, Alfred Mettler, Ray Scone, Walter Kritzer, Edward Martin, Alois Massbaum, Sylvester Strasser and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Elbersson.

WHAT "BABY WEEK" MEANS.

Indiana Federation of Clubs Gives Directions to Mothers.

The Indiana Federation of Clubs, through its president, Mrs. C. R. Fairbank, has issued the following outline for "Baby Week."

Tuesday, May 1, Club Day. Every club woman should invite a non-club woman to a meeting. Have talks on mental side of the baby; how to entertain children before they reach school age; stories to tell children; proper songs for little children, etc.

Wednesday, May 2, Guild Day. The day that most of the women's societies meet in the various churches. Have such vital topics discussed as: How can the community better the condition for the babies? Emphasize birth registration; fresh air and sunshine; sanitation in the home, etc.

Thursday, May 3, Mothers' Day. Invite every mother possible to be present at a meeting. Emphasize the physical care of the child; infant feeding; infant clothing; babies' beds, bathing, etc. If possible, have a nurse give a demonstration on bathing baby.

Friday, May 4, School Day. Offer a prize for the best essay on "The Care of the Baby," written by one of the school children.

Saturday, May 5, Fathers' Day. Publish a letter in the local papers to the fathers, and let them feel that they have a part in this campaign. Have a movie house show slides on the care of the baby; have a dentist who is a father talk on the care of the children's teeth; have a doctor who is a father talk on physical welfare of the child; have a teacher who is a father talk on the father's responsibility.

Sunday, May 6, Church Day. Ask your minister to preach upon "Infant Mortality," "The Slaughter of the Innocent" or any other vital question concerning the child. Invite the mothers to be present at the service.

Patriotic dance, Thursday night. Trier's Minuet.

AT THE PALACE

AT FIRST HAND.

Jessie Millar Studied the Pacific Island Dances.

Jessie Millar, who, with her talented sister, Miss Mabel, is appearing at the New Palace on the bill that closes this evening, saw a lot of hula hula dancers in this country before she made a trip last fall to the far Pacific islands where she studied at close range the manner in which the real dancers of the islands themselves do this graceful number as well as the poi poi dance. The results of these studies she is exhibiting in her act, executing the hula hula dance in a manner that brings out its superior grace but none of the salacious suggestiveness of the mid-night party interpretation. Miss Millar dances it as the high type Hawaiian maidens do, instead of as the half world of the islands present the steps.

This bill which closes tonight is one of the refreshing diversions of the entire season. The Cycling McNutts, a novelty bicycle riding act; Fred Holmes and Lulu Wells in the wily little skit, "On the Doorstep"; Grace Emmett, the gifted Irish comedienne, and company in "Mrs. Murphy's Second Husband"; Olive Brisco, the singing comedienne, and Harrington Reynolds himself and company in the merry girl act, "The Lingerie Shop," are others on the program.

New Bill Tomorrow. An entirely new bill will be on tomorrow with George Lovett and company in the psychic study, "Concentration," as the headliner. Others include Weber and Elliott; Paul Pedini and the Monk, Billy Link and Blossom

Robinson, one of the standard singing and dancing acts of vaudeville; Sherman, Van and Hyman, a singing trio, and the Menlo Moore review, "Miss America," a musical military satire.

No Matinee Thursday. There will be no matinee at the New Palace Thursday. The management closes this house in honor of Lexington day.

At this evening's performance Fred Holmes, of the team of Holmes and Wells, will read a portion of the stirring poem, "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere," in honor of the anniversary of the patriot's alarm to the people of the coming of the Redcoats, preparing them for the battle of Lexington, America's first blow for liberty.

AT THE TEMPLE.

TO HELP THE SOLDIERS.

Benefit Will Be Given for Fort Wayne Guard Units.

Frank E. Gallagher, who is presenting his players at the Temple theater, has made a most generous offer to Fort Wayne's three companies that are being recruited, by tendering a benefit that will cover three evening performances, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Tickets will be sold by a committee of young ladies and many of the downtown stores and a liberal portion of the receipts from the sale of these, will be donated to the company fund. When it is understood that Battery D, Battery B and Company E are being recruited without financial aid from Uncle Sam, the funds being supplied by the Fort Wayne Commercial club, public spirited theatergoers will welcome this opportunity to swell a fund that will add to the comfort of the boys while in camp. There are a hundred and one uses for ready money over and above the government allowance, so Mr. Gallagher has opened up a new channel for your spending money to serve a double purpose by entertaining yourself and friends and eventually bringing good cheer to the boys in camp. If nobody happens to ask you to buy a ticket to the performance of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," next Thursday, Friday, or Saturday, look up a store that has them for sale, or else go to one of the recruiting desks in the court house.

FIFTY-SEVEN STUDENTS AT AUBURN TO DRILL

F. A. Pribbenow, Physical Director of Y. M. C. A., Will Have Charge.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Auburn, Ind., April 18.—In response to the suggestion that military drill be established in the Auburn school, fifty-seven students of the high schools have signed up for the same at the military drill meeting held at the school campus Monday evening. Physical Director F. A. Pribbenow, of the Y. M. C. A., will have charge of the young men and they will drill after school hours. Out of a total of ninety-two young men who are enrolled in the high school fifty-seven of them are taking the training.

Auburn Briefs. Charles Brewster, a foreman at the Eckhart Carriage company in this city, is a patient at St. Luke's hospital in Chicago, where he submitted to a very critical operation.

Miss Pauline Moffett is visiting relatives at Spencer this week.

Messrs. T. H. Leasure, F. A. Hall and H. H. Achmire were at Fort Wayne Tuesday attending a Methodist missionary meeting, as representative of the local church.

Richard Baxter, who has been very critically ill for several days, is reported a little better today.

Rev. Bourns and several members of his congregation are spending several days at Pierceton, Ind., attending the meeting of the presbytery.

Mrs. Frank Nelson is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. E. C. Culler, of Hicksville.

Mrs. F. W. Hoffman will entertain the Ladies' Reading club this afternoon. Court closed here Saturday and on Monday Judge Dan Link opened court in Steuben county.

A CREAMY LOTION MADE WITH LEMONS

Prepare a quarter pint at about the cost of a small jar of common cold cream.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice as a cosmetic? It is so common to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it naturally should help to whiten, clear, smoothen and beautify.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons. In this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion ladies can easily prepare and have an inexpensive toilet aid which perfectly cleanses the face and leaves the skin beautiful, soft and—Advertisement.

JUBILEE BANQUET IS A DECIDED SUCCESS

Over Two Hundred and Fifty People Attend Missionary Affair.

Two hundred and sixty-eight people were served at the jubilee banquet of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society Tuesday evening. The banquet followed the afternoon meeting of the jubilee and was attended by a crowd unprecedented at a missionary affair in the city.

At the banquet table Mrs. Walters presided as toastmistress and the following people responded: Mrs. N. P. Chandler, Mrs. T. W. Leasure, Mrs. A. H. Backus, Mrs. F. P. Morris, Mrs. Byron Gordon, Mrs. R. J. Wade, Mrs. F. C. Blind, Mrs. G. H. Priddy and Mrs. H. H. Calkins.

Following the banquet an address on foreign missionaries was given by Dr. Harvey Reeves Calkins, a former missionary to India.

Others on the evening program were Mrs. F. A. Hall, Mrs. F. M. Hill, Mrs. Florence Richards and Ora Richards. Rev. C. Claud Travis pronounced the benediction.

In the afternoon Mrs. Calkins was one of the principal speakers and those on the program were Mrs. D. L. Harding, Mrs. C. C. Travis, Mrs. J. M. Diehl and Mrs. W. L. Martin. Mrs. Walter Zahm, president of Mrs. C. N. O'Day directed the music.

BISHOP CONFIRMS CLASS. More Than One Hundred Receive the Sacrament.

A class of more than one hundred received the sacrament of confirmation at the St. Louis church, of Besancon, Tuesday. Solemn high mass was celebrated at 9:30 o'clock by Rev. Norbert Felden, of Monroeville, and following this Rev. Michael P. Louen, former pastor of the Besancon church and now situated at St. Peter's and Paul's church, Huntington.

The confirmation was then administered by Rt. Rev. Bishop Alving. He was assisted by Rev. Michael Aichinger, of Auburn; Rev. Louen, of Huntington; Rev. George Moorman, of Besancon; Rev. George Hassler, Rev. John Dapp and Rev. Robert Emmett Kelly, of Fort Wayne.

HOLD SERIES OF MEETINGS. Dr. Calkins and Wife to Speak at Wayne Street Church.

Dr. Harvey Reeves Calkins and his wife will hold a series of meetings at Wayne Street M. E. church, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon and evening and Sunday evening. At the latter time the Calkins will deliver a famous lecture on "The Heart of Heathenism." Mrs. Calkins will have charge of the afternoon services and Dr. Calkins will conduct the evening meetings.

Both Dr. Calkins and his wife were missionaries to India. They are writers and lecturers and their wide experiences assure most interesting services.

Coffee Urn Party. In the way of celebrating the paying off of the indebtedness on a new lot, the ladies of Trinity Episcopal church will hold a musical and social hour in the parish house Saturday afternoon. All who contributed to the purchase have been invited as special guests.

Organize Bible Class. A bible class of the kind organized at Redeemer Lutheran church Wednesday evening, to which all confirmed members are eligible. The meeting will be started at 8 o'clock and those who attend have been asked to take bibles.

Church Notes. St. Cecilia circle of King's Daughters will meet in the Library of the W. C. A. Friday afternoon. The section chairman is Mrs. Walter Kent.

The sewing planned for Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kelsey, 834 Savilla avenue, has been postponed one week, because of the Lexington day celebration.

The woman's society of the First Baptist church has postponed its regular all-day sewing session, to have been held Thursday. The date for the meeting will be announced later.

SEVEN GARRETT YOUNG MEN LEAVE FOR FRONT

Garrett, Ind., April 18.—A large delegation of Garrett people were at the interurban station last evening to witness the departure of seven local young men who were leaving for Columbus, Ohio, having enlisted in the United States field artillery. Nearly all of these boys were high school boys and their classmates and teachers were present. They were Paul Steward, John Hopper, Karl Slinger, Herbert Wilcox, Daniel Farner, Edgar Beeber and Glen Lawhead. The young men enlisted in the morning and left the same night to begin their training.

SHORT NOTES. The revival meetings at the Methodist church are progressing nicely and the attendance at each meeting has been excellent. The music is especially interesting and some very good sermons have been heard from Rev. Thomas. Sunday morning the Sunday school will hold a flag raising and patriotic meeting after Sunday school. They have purchased a beautiful flag and have had a large flag staff erected on the tower of the church.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Shaw was injured Tuesday when a brick fell from the slide at the school grounds and struck the little chap on the head. He is reported better this morning.

The members of the Culture club gave a farewell party Tuesday evening for Mrs. James Moyer, who will leave in a short time for Detroit, where Mr. Moyer will enter into the real estate business.

Mrs. Maggie Lattson, of Michigan, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Steve Sweeney, of East Quincy street.

WHEAT CROP THINNED OUT MUCH LAST WEEK

Outlook for Harvest This Fall is Darker Than a Few Weeks Ago.

Weather of last week played havoc with the stand of wheat in fields of the Allen county farmer. The heavy with the stand of wheat in the fields and as a result the stand has been thinned out nearly half.

One farmer stated that if another week of such kind of weather would be experienced that the wheat crop next fall would be almost a complete failure. The warmer weather of the past three days has come as a blessing they say. One man stated that if a good rain would come that much of the wheat which had been killed would probably sprout out again.

Farmers throughout the county are busily engaged in working up the soil and in planting oats. Much of the oats has been sowed and many have begun work in preparing the ground for corn. The utmost precaution is being taken by nearly all in the selection of good seed.

Do not spoil your delicate garments. Let the Peerless dry clean them at small expense. Phone 6095.

The money changers whom Jesus drove out of the temple were the dealers who supplied half-shakels for such a premium as they might be able to exact from Jews who came from all parts of the world to Jerusalem during the great festivals and were required to pay their tribute or ransom money in the Hebrew coin.

EIGHTH GRADE EXAM. Examinations for eighth grade pupils throughout the county will be held next Saturday. Superintendent D. O. McComb has mailed out the list of questions to the various places in the county where examinations are to be held.

DESERT BARRIER WOULD PREVENT RUMORED GERMAN PLAN FOR INVASION FROM MEXICO.

Texas Rangers and hardy cowboys of the southern border states, of the type pictured above, will give valuable assistance in the defense of the Mexican border against any raids that might be attempted.

El Paso, Texas, April 17.—Texas, Arizona, California and New Mexico have thus far refused to become alarmed over the bugaboo of border raids and invasions by inspired Mexican factions as a result of our break with Germany.

Those who know the character of most of the country through which such incursions would have to come, and the tremendous natural obstacles to be surmounted, scout the probability of serious danger.

A vast sweep of blistering desert, with few water holes, no dependable sustenance even for small groups of men and horse, no railroads or highways, sparsely settled districts and few rich spots—such is the territory for many miles on both sides of the border.

Probably nowhere else adjacent to the civilized world is there country so forbidding.

Water and provisions would have to be carried across wide stretches of country if a formidable force were attempted, and even then the difficulties of march are an almost insurmountable check, as the United States punitive force recently demonstrated.

Rumors have, however, persisted here and elsewhere that Germans in considerable number have recently crossed into Mexico, and that they have endeavored to incite Mexican guerrillas to border harassment. Many of them are reported to be Teuton reservists.

Definite proof is lacking as far as is here known, though both Carranza and Villa troops began edging nearer the border from the day President Wilson signed the war resolution.

Records of the army intelligence service and immigration authorities show that less than 100 Germans have crossed into Mexico from the United States since early in February, and that almost half of these have subsequently returned.

This small exodus is here accounted for on the ground that Mexico is the only adjacent country to which Germans, perhaps fearing internment, can go, since Canada is naturally barred to them.

It is, of course, possible that many Germans may have crossed into Mexico without the knowledge of American authorities, and precautions along the border are not being relaxed to prevent hostile incursions from the other side.

One of the chief points of concern is the protection of the Imperial valley irrigation canal which carries water from the Colorado river to one of the richest agricultural regions in southern California. At one point the canal crosses into Mexican territory for a number of miles and is completely at the disposition of an enemy.

Fifty thousand settlers and property valued at close to $37,000,000 depend upon an unbroken water supply from the Colorado river by this aqueduct.

Along the border are also the towns of San Diego, El Centro, Calexico, Yuma, Douglas, El Paso, Del Rio, Eagle Pass, Laredo, Rio Grande, Brownsville and a number of villages.

A sufficient patrol of United States soldiers, in the army's estimation, is being maintained along the border to afford protection. In addition the famous Texas Rangers, a state organization of the finest fighting men and horsemen in the country, are always held in readiness to protect the Texas border.

PREMIER TISZA OF HUNGARY IS OUT OF OFFICE

London, April 18.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Central News says the Budapest socialist paper Novezavik announces the resignation of Count Tisza, the Hungarian premier.

AUSTRIAN MINISTERS RESIGN.

Amsterdam, April 18.—The Vienna newspapers announce that Dr. Urban, minister of commerce, and Dr. Baernreither, minister without portfolio, have resigned. Dispatches from Germany connect these resignations with the convocation of the Austrian parliament next month, which they say is considered in German circles as inopportune in view of political events abroad.

There have been several recent resignations from the Austrian cabinet. Early in the present month the ministers of justice, war and finance surrendered their portfolios as the result of a graft scandal in connection with army food supplies. The emperor refused to accept the resignation of the minister of justice, von Schenk. Shortly afterward Gen. von Krobattin, Austro-Hungarian minister of war, resigned.

TWO MILK TICKETS ANALYSED BY JUDGE

Says He Finds They Are Not Good Nourishment for Baby.

The chemical analysis of two yellow milk tickets was given by Judge Kerr, Wednesday morning, in police court while Clarence Roebuck, proprietor of the Rudisill dairy, stood attention and nodded assent to the judge's statements.

Milk tickets are made of paper and arsenic is used in forming paper.

Want Pink Cheeks—Red Lips?

Some unfortunate men and women are prone to wonder why some of their friends are blessed with an abundance of color, pink cheeks and red lips—while theirs are always colorless. The reason for this last named condition is—there is not enough red blood corpuscles in the blood—under a microscope the blood is thin and watery. The flesh is flabby too. Well known physicians assert that the regular administration for several months of three-grain hypos-nuclease tablets will greatly improve the color, add to the weight, make the cheeks pink and the lips red and in general be very beneficial. For self-administration, obtain from any of the best apothecary shops.—Advertisement.

TRAINING CAMPS FOR OFFICERS OF FIRST BIG ARMY

Chicago, April 18.—The work of preparing camps in which to train men as reserve officers for the first half million troops raised for the new army was begun today, following the announcement last night of the plans by Major General Thomas H. Barry, commander of the central department of the army.

There are to be six camps in the central department, located as follows: At Fort Sheridan, two camps, one for Illinois and one for Michigan and Wisconsin.

At Fort Benjamin Harrison, two camps, under one command, one for Indiana and Kentucky and one for Ohio.

At Fort Snelling, one for Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota and Nebraska.

At Fort Riley, one camp for Missouri, Kansas and Colorado.

The object of each camp is the training and selection of officers for a division and one additional regiment of cavalry. Maximum attendance at each camp will be 2,500.

The six training camps which are to be open on May 8, are expected to furnish about one-third of the ten thousand officers—majors, captains, first and second lieutenants—required for an army of 500,000.

Members of St. Mary's congregation meet at school hall Thursday, 1:15 p. m., to participate in Lexington parade.

WILL RECRUIT FARMERS FOR SERVICE ARMY

Philadelphia, Pa., April 18.—A recruiting station for farmers' helpers was opened here today to enroll the names of men who want to enlist in President Wilson's service army. The recruits will be sent to the big grain section of the northwest to assist in planting the spring wheat and rye.

"Twenty-five million acres of spring wheat and rye must be planted in the great grain belt of the northwest within the next twenty-five days," says an appeal for volunteers signed by presidents of the Bourse and Commercial exchange. "This represents an increase of more than seven million acres over last year."

ATTENTION, B. U. V.
The Bruderlicher Unterstuetzung Verein unanimously voted to attend Lexington Day parade, Thursday afternoon. Meet at St. Paul school, Barr street, at 1:30 p. m. All members are urgently requested to attend. Bring flags. (Signed) F. A. KLINE, Pres.

300 GIRLS TO WEAR WAR TAGS

Will Ask Youths to Enlist—Each Pledge Two Recruits.

FT. WAYNE 'SLACKING' SAYS CAPTAIN RYAN

Smaller Towns Sending in More Soldiers Than Fort Wayne.

In the throng of the Lexington day celebration, Thursday, will be 300 young women who come to become "war brides." Their motto is "love me, love my country first." They will wear red tags which read, "Be a Patriot." They will single out the young men in civilian attire and speak to them about the state of their loyalty to the land of freedom.

The band of young women who have offered to assist in securing recruits represent several members of the younger society set of the city. One hundred of the maidens will meet at the South Wayne school Wednesday evening, where they will be addressed by Captain Ryan, in charge of the local recruiting office. He will instruct them on how to best approach young men who appear to be prospective recruits.

The voluntary organization of young women who will gather at the South Wayne school have pledged themselves to bring two recruits each to the altar of service for their country before the patriotic day is closed.

Captain Ryan expects all records for recruiting to be broken that day, by the aid of the enlisters, and the wave of loyalty which will sweep the community when the glorious history of the "Sweet Land of Liberty" is recalled in song and oration.

Come On, Fort Wayne. "Fort Wayne is the slacker of this recruiting district," said Captain Ryan Wednesday. "I find in totalling up the records for the month that she runs behind Marion, Gary, Hammond and South Bend in the number of soldiers sent to the army. According to the population Fort Wayne should send twice as many as part of these towns. I do not know the reason for the slack showing of Fort Wayne as a city, but the surface her people seem loyal enough. Some way or other her young men are not turning out for their country."

"Yes, that includes the colored men. Gary has furnished most of the negro recruits which have gone from this office. We should send at least 100 more from here."

Seventy recruits were sent from the Fort Wayne station on Tuesday. An order from the navy department states that no more women will be employed for yeomen to assist in recruiting work. All the women who have been engaged by the department, the order states. No women recruiting workers have been allotted to the Fort Wayne station.

There are still openings for men and women radio operators in the naval service, states a message from W. A. Moffett, in charge of interior recruiting. Time limits for promotion are also to be removed during the war action.

Gets Many Orders. Capt. John C. Scheffer, commanding officer of Battery D, stated that he had received information that many orders had been received at his house. He said that several were telegrams and one or two were special delivery letters. The nature of the orders was not disclosed.

Spring fever seemed to have effect on everyone Wednesday and consequently recruiting slumped to a great extent. Only a few applicants were received and the recruiting men spent most of their time sitting on the steps of the court house, alert only when a possible recruit made his appearance. Members of Battery D and B and Company E busied themselves Wednesday by selling tickets for the benefit performance to be given at the Temple theater the latter part of the week.

Batteries Will Meet. An important meeting of both batteries will be held at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the court house. Every member has been requested to be present. Some very important matters are to be announced, it is said.

Mrs. Roy Cressler, of Hammond, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Knoche, of West DeWald street.

OFFICIALS OF COURT HOUSE WILL MARCH

Courts Are Suffering from an Attack of Spring Fever.

Officials of the court house will march in the grand parade Thursday afternoon. The chief custodian visited each and every office Wednesday and secured the signatures of all the officials as well as many of the deputies and employees.

The courts in general apparently are suffering from an attack of spring fever as it was very quiet all day Wednesday.

However, there was one exception. The clerk in charge of the marriage licenses was busy a greater part of the day.

Ella Bogash Sues for Divorce From Frank Bogash.

After a marriage life of thirty years, Ella Bogash has begun action to have the bonds of matrimony severed which bind her to Frank Bogash. She complains that he was cruel and inhuman to her and that he threatened to do her physical violence. She also states that during the past ten years the defendant has been a habitual drunkard. She asks that she be given an absolute divorce and that the defendant be restrained from molesting her. Leonard, Rose & Zollars are her attorneys.

DIVORCES GRANTED.

Ada Trout was granted a divorce from Ora Trout.

In addition to the decree Henry P. and Ada Hoffman were restrained from marrying again for two years.

Ida M. Baker secured a divorce from Riley Baker. She was given the custody of two minor children and was ordered to pay ten dollar a month support money.

INDIANA SOLDIER IS GIVEN TWENTY YEARS

Lieutenant Hall, of First Regiment, Sentenced to Prison.

Washington, April 18.—Second Lieut. Robert Hall, First infantry, Indiana national guard, was today sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for twenty years in the Leavenworth penitentiary. He was court-martialed on a variety of charges.

DESERTED TO MEXICANS.

Indianapolis, April 18.—Second Lieut. Robert H. Hall, reported in dispatches from Washington today as having been sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment by a court-martial, was a member of Company M, First Indiana infantry, it was said at the office of Adjutant General Smith today. Hall's home was supposed to be in Newcastle. Little was known here concerning the charges on which he was convicted, as the First Indiana returned from the border before the trial. It was said at the adjutant's office, however, that Hall was understood to have deserted and gone to the Mexican army, that he was charged with forgery and moral turpitude. According to a report here he attempted to commit suicide after the charges were made against him.

TO BE MILES OF MARCHERS

Every Organization and All Surrounding Towns to Take Part.

VETERANS TO REVIEW GRAND CITIZEN ARMY

Knitting Mills Will Raise a Big American Flag at 12 O'Clock.

The tread of the greatest army that ever invaded Fort Wayne will sound through the streets Thursday afternoon, when the city pays homage to the patriots who "fired the shot heard round the world," at Lexington, in 1775. The great throng which will make up the marching host will be formed from every organization in the city and by delegations from all surrounding towns.

In pageant, song and eloquence will be the "midnight ride of Paul Revere" and the glorious stand of the "embattled farmers" the review for those who attend and take part in the greatest patriotic celebration ever staged in Fort Wayne.

Word has been received that a large delegation is preparing to make the trip from Bluffton in automobiles. The machines of the Bluffton guests will be parked about the market place, where a watchman will be stationed to look after their safety. Garrett and Monroeville promise to furnish 500 marchers each.

Raise Largest Flag.

At noon the Wayne Knitting mill employees will raise the largest flag in the city above their factory, they announce. The flag will be drawn to the top of a 200 foot pole. Songs will be sung and the entire delegation of knitting mills employees will march the Calhoun street to take part in the parade.

Starts at 1:30.

The parade will start at 1:30 o'clock. It will be set in motion as soon as the modern Paul Revere has clattered down South Calhoun street with his tinny war farming. Every whistle in the city will blow a signal for the parade to start.

Upon the reviewing stand, erected on the west side of the county court house, will be the civil war veterans and their wives and members of the D. A. R.

The parade will proceed to the intersection station, where Mayor Hoesy and Dr. Jaynes, of Wahash, will speak.

Evening Program.

D. A. R. members have planned for a meeting to be held in the court house, starting at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Crankshaw will preside over the gathering. Malon, Tunisian and Carrie Bounion will speak.

Other talks will be: East side of court house, Judge John Eggeman and Rev. A. J. Polson; south side of court house, Harry Hilgeman and Father Noll; postoffice, E. V. Emrick and Charles Nieser.

The evening program will include special addresses for the colored people to be delivered by Rev. E. W. B. Curry, founder of the Curry institute, Urbana, O., and Rev. G. Jordan, pastor of the Mt. Olive Baptist church, of this city.

Calhoun street will be cleared of all traffic from the Nickel Plate railroad to Baker street, from 1:30 o'clock until 4 o'clock. The street intersections will be roped off to prevent traffic entering the street. It is desired that spectators to the parade do not all pile up to obtain a point of vantage between Washington street and Main street and thereby cause a congestion.

The Cigar Stores.

The request that their places of business between 2 and 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon be closed, has been met readily by the members of the Retail Merchants association, and of the Retail Liquor Dealers' association. The same request has been made today of the retail cigar dealers. The co-operation of the business houses has been a great factor in making this day a great success.

WOMAN'S PEACE PARTY INQUIRE OBJECT OF WAR

New York, April 18.—The New York branch of the Woman's Peace party in an announcement today called upon the government for an immediate statement setting forth the object of the war and the terms upon which it will make peace "with the hope that negotiations for peace shall be entered into at the earliest possible moment."

The New York branch went on record as unalterably opposed to conscription, limitation of freedom of speech and freedom of assembly, any lowering of labor standards or of educational standards.

GYMNASTIC CLASSES

Will Give Exhibition at Turner Hall This Evening.

A most entertaining program has been arranged by Professor Myers for the gymnastic exhibition to be given this evening by the classes of the Turnverein Vorwaerts at the Turner hall, 616 West Superior street. The exhibition will start promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

FT. WAYNE BOYS TO BE SHOWN IN MOVIES

Battery D and Co. E Activities on Border to Be Visualized at Palace.

Battery D and Company E's activities on the border duty will be visualized at the New Palace Thursday night so that the wives, mothers, sisters, sweethearts and just friends of the boys who answered the first call to the colors may know just how their soldiers lived while they were broiling under the torrid Texas sun to keep Villa good. Scenes of the soldiers on the march, at dress parade, digging trenches, building roads, making camp, in sham battles, resting in camp, on guard duty and the thousand and one other activities that constitute a day's cycle with a soldier of Uncle Sam, will be shown. These films were secured through Lieutenant Harry Moriarity and will be thrown but one night, Thursday, April 19. The Battery and Company E boys will be at the theater of course to see themselves "in the movies."

PARLIAMENT'S WARM SALUTE

Resolutions by British Express Appreciation of America.

BOTH COMMONS AND LORDS PASS THEM

Ex-Premier Asquith Gives Second to Motion by Bonar Law.

London, April 18.—In the house of commons today unanimous approval was given amid cheers to the resolution moved by Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, and seconded by former Premier Asquith expressing appreciation of the action of the United States in joining the allied powers in war upon Germany.

In moving in the commons this resolution, identical with one moved in the house of lords, Mr. Bonar Law said: "We deeply regret that the premier is unable to present himself to move the resolution. Not only the members of parliament, but all the people of the British empire and the allied countries welcome the new ally with heartfelt sympathy."

"This is not only the greatest event but as I believe the turning point of the war. The new world has been brought in, or has stepped in, to restore the balance of the old."

Flags to Fly Together. The government today gave instructions, Sir Alfred Mond told the house of commons, that on Friday when America's entrance into the war is to be celebrated, the Stars and Stripes should be flown beside the Union Jack on as many public buildings as possible.

Seconding Mr. Bonar Law's resolution, ex-Premier Asquith said: "It is only right and fitting that this house, the chief representative body of the British empire, should at the earliest possible opportunity give definite expression to the feelings which throughout the length and breadth of the empire have grown day by day in volume and fervor since the memorable decision of the president and congress of the United States."

Calls It Great Act.

"I doubt whether even now the world realizes the full significance of the step America has taken. I do not use language of flattery or exaggeration when I say it is one of the most disinterested acts in history. For more than 100 years it has been the cardinal principle of American policy to keep clear of foreign entanglements. A war such as his must necessarily dislocate international commerce and finance, but on the balance it was doing little appreciable harm to the material fortunes and prosperity of the American people."

A resolution similar to that adopted in the house of commons on the entry of the United States into the war was passed unanimously in the house of lords this afternoon after speeches by Earl Curzon, the Marquis of Crewe, the archbishop of Canterbury and Viscount Bryce.

RED CROSS TO BE IN PARADE

Young Ladies Dressed as Nurses Will Carry Big Flags.

GAUZE SHORTAGE IS HINDERING CLASSES

Dr. E. J. McOscar Will Talk to the Workers Saturday Afternoon.

The Red Cross will play a prominent part in the big Lexington day parade Thursday afternoon—a part in which every person who watches the pageant may take part.

Large American and Red Cross flags will be carried by young ladies dressed as Red Cross nurses. There will be ten ladies to a flag and each of them will carry some sort of a receptacle in which persons along the street may contribute any amount they see fit. The girls will walk at the extreme sides of the streets and everybody will be given an opportunity of doing something in a financial way for the Red Cross movement.

Shortage of Gauze. Work of the supply classes has been somewhat hampered because of a shortage of surgical gauze. More gauze has been ordered and should have been here by this time.

Dr. E. J. McOscar will talk to the supply classes on Saturday afternoon and explain the use of each of the articles which they have been taught to make during the past two weeks. Following Dr. McOscar's talk a written examination will be held and the manuscripts forwarded to the headquarters at Washington, D. C., where they will be graded.

Young Man Wants to Help.

A young man who had been rejected for service in Uncle Sam's army because he could not pass the physical examination, called at the Red Cross headquarters Wednesday morning and gave to that organization the last 50-cent piece he had. He said he wanted to do something for his country and that on Saturday when he received his weekly pay check he would contribute more. When told that a contribution of another half dollar would entitle him to membership in the Red Cross society he seemed greatly pleased and said he would bring in the other half dollar on Saturday. Those in charge of the headquarters were deeply touched by the patriotism and earnestness of the young man.

WILL REGULATE THE CONDUCT OF ALIEN ENEMIES

Washington, April 18.—All alien enemies residing within one-half mile of a fort, camp, air-craft station, government or naval vessel, navy yard, factory or workshop for the manufacture of munitions, are required to remove prior to June 1, under penalty of summary arrest, under instructions issued today by the attorney general to United States marshals. Certain exceptions may be made within well defined limitations. This carries out the terms of the president's proclamation. The attorney general's instructions also carries the enforcement of other regulations prescribed in the presidential proclamation. Alien enemies found with forbidden articles in their possession after April 24, shall be arrested, except in certain cases, where the marshal shall be satisfied they are not dangerous to public safety. In certain instances where they are deemed not to be against public policy, exemptions will be made to the order requiring them to move. All permits shall be revocable at any time.

Alien enemies who tear down, mutilate, abuse, desecrate or insult the flag are to be regarded as "a danger to the public peace" and summarily arrested.

AT MILAN CENTER.

County Agent A. J. Hutchins will give a demonstration showing the proper treatment for oat smut and potato scab at Milan Center on Thursday evening.

CAPT. BYROADE TALKS BEFORE ROTARY CLUB

Members Will March in a Body in Lexington Day Parade.

At the regular noon meeting of the Rotary club held at the Commercial club Wednesday noon, Captain G. W. Byroade addressed the members, giving a talk that was considered very much in keeping with present-day events by all who heard him. His talk called for unswerving loyalty and support on the part of all citizens.

A history of American wars was given by Capt. Byroade, showing the state of unpreparedness which has hindered the country in every case. In the Revolutionary war the United States had 400,000 men all told, but these were coming and going all the time and the definite number was very low. Great Britain had but 41,000 men in the field. In the war of 1812 the United States had 527,000 men, but in only one battle, that of New Orleans, did more than 5,000 participate.

The same thing was true in the war with Mexico, and it is said that had Lincoln had 50,000 trained men at the time the civil war broke out he could have quickly crushed the rebellion. The north had all told 2,000,000 men, but never more than 650,000 of them were under arms at one time.

Conscription, which is to be considered as entirely different from drafting, is the only logical way to recruit to war strength, according to the captain. In this way dependable men can be obtained and disputes settled in a short time. The idea that conscription is the same as drafting is erroneous and has been the cause of a great deal of confusion.

Members of the club will march in a body in the Lexington day parade. They will meet at the Commercial club and march from there to their place in the line. A large delegation of Fort Wayne Rotarians have announced that they will attend the national convention at Atlanta in June.

ELKS WAIVE PLACE IN PARADE FOR VETERANS

Late Wednesday afternoon arrangements were made whereby the E. P. O. Elks will waive their place in the grand parade for Thursday afternoon in favor of the Spanish War Veterans. The local lodge realized that the parade was more of a military demonstration than anything else so they gladly consented to allow the veterans to march ahead of them.

WEATHER MAN MAY SPOIL CELEBRATION

A gloom of doubt has been spread over the fever of all patriotic citizens who were anticipating the biggest and best celebration Fort Wayne has ever had for Thursday. The weather man has predicted rain and thundershowers on tonight and Thursday. Veterans are to be cooler than Wednesday. A storm from the west is approaching rapidly and is due to arrive within the next day. It is bringing considerable rain with it.

SOCIETY

Misses Monica and Florence Bueter gave a pretty party on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Hilda Lanterner. The arrangements were carried out in red, white and blue colors and the place of red, white and blue carnations was novel and beautiful. Piece cards were decorated with flags and covers were laid for fourteen at a supper that was daintily served. Miss Loretta Hoebel will soon entertain in honor of the same bride to be, Miss Lanterner.

Miss Margaret Travis entertained the So-Club-Rex club on Tuesday afternoon at her home in West Taber street.

WILL GIVE DEGREE JOINTLY.

Summit encampment, I. O. O. F., will jointly confer the Golden Rule degree on a class of candidates Wednesday evening. On Saturday afternoon and evening they will confer the Royal Purple degree followed by a banquet and social time.

Hermit's Body is Found Several Days After Death

The body of Ed Conway was found at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning in the shack in which Conway had made his home alone for the past ten years, ten miles from the city on the St. Joe road. Death is believed to have occurred last Saturday afternoon. The body was badly decomposed. Rats and mice scattered in every direction when C. C. Sheerer, a farmer residing in St. Joe township, opened the door to the shack and found Conway's badly mutilated corpse. The features could scarcely be recognized and the odor was an offensive as the night which Sheerer beheld. The house had been closed for several days.

Sheerer passed the place shortly before 9 o'clock. Nobody had seen Conway for several days. He was not known to any of the neighbors. The body was found in a room which was used as a bedroom. OSSIAN MAN IS MODERATOR

Spring Session of Presbytery is Held at Princeton.

REV. HOSTETTER TO BE INSTALLED MAY 8

Fort Wayne Men Are Named Trustees for Period of Five Years.

Fort Wayne Presbytery met in the spring session at the First church, Princeton, Ind., Monday evening and all day Tuesday. The office of Moderator was presided over by the retiring moderator, Rev. M. M. LeCount. The principal business was the election of Rev. F. K. Baker, of Osnaburg, as moderator and Mr. A. J. Kelley, of Ligonier, temporary clerk, after which Rev. LeCount delivered the sermon.

Arrangements were made for the installation of Rev. H. B. Hostetter, pastor of Third church of this city, on Tuesday evening, May 8. Rev. H. B. Master will preside and propound the questions, Rev. T. B. Terhune, of Huntington, will preach the sermon. Rev. E. A. Van Nuy, of Gosport, will deliver the charge to the people and Rev. Frank N. Palmer, of Winona Lake, will deliver the charge to the pastor.

Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock Rev. A. P. Browne conducted devotional services. The session was occupied largely in hearing reports from standing committees all of which were encouraging. Rev. Hostetter was received from the Logan, W. Va. Presbytery to become pastor of the Third church, Fort Wayne. Rev. F. K. Baker was received from the Baptist ministry to become pastor at Nappanee and Rev. F. M. Newlin, from Chicago Presbytery to become pastor at Garrett. Rev. R. H. Willis was examined and licensed as a local evangelist and Roswell Brown, a young man of Winona Lake, was received under the care of the Presbytery with plans to pursue his studies as a medical missionary.

Rev. Herrick Resigns. Rev. C. M. Herrick presented his resignation as pastor of First church, Elkhart, Ind., the resignation being accepted and Rev. E. A. Van Nuy, of Princeton, resigned and Dr. McCaughy was appointed moderator. Rev. Hostetter was elected chairman of the home missionary committee succeeding Rev. Herrick, resigned, and he was also chosen a member of the Presbyterial committee on vacancy and supply.

The following ministers were chosen commissioners to the general assembly which will convene in Dallas, Texas, in May: Rev. D. C. Truesdale, Kendallville, and Rev. F. N. Palmer, Winona Lake, principals, with Rev. E. A. Van Nuy and Rev. T. B. Terhune, as alternates. Elders chosen as delegates are V. M. Hatfield, E. E. Lehman, S. M. Sailer and George Solomon.

E. H. McDonald, C. H. Worden, Dr. George B. Stemen, S. M. Sailer and C. J. Lutz were elected trustees of the Presbytery for five years. In attendance from Fort Wayne were Reverends H. B. Master, T. P. Potts, C. O. Shirey and H. B. Hostetter and Elders Charles Heaver and C. M. Chambers.

MADAME BERNHARDT HAS CHANCE TO LIVE

New York, April 18.—Madame Sarah Bernhardt, who was operated on last night for an affection of the kidneys has a good fighting chance for recovery, but her condition is very grave, it was stated just before noon today by Dr. Leo Burger, who performed the operation. Another consultation of the six physicians in attendance upon her will be held later in the day. Messages from all over the country and from France were received during the night, and flowers from friends of the actress filled her room.

IT WAS A HOT ONE.

Fort Wayne perished innocently under the collar Wednesday afternoon. Old Sol smilingly sent a thermometer flying up to 81 degrees. Incidentally it was the hottest day of the year.

GOVERNOR GOODRICH URGES STATEWIDE CORN CAMPAIGN

Indianapolis, Ind., April 18.—Governor James P. Goodrich issued a call today to the corn planter and corn drill dealers in Indiana and to the farmers of the state asking that in every town, hamlet and city in Indiana on Saturday instruction be given and taken in the proper grading of seed corn for use in the corn planters and drills and in adjustment and operation of corn planters and drills. The farm implement distributors and dealers today mailed 3,500 copies of the governor's call to dealers in the state asking them to have their planters on display in the streets Saturday and have men to explain the necessity and method grading and making adjustments so that planting will be perfect this year.

HITT AND RUNN—There's One Thing You Can't Do and That Is—Beat An "Ump" At His Own Game!

BY HITT

WASSON APPEARS AND WORKS OUT WITH CLUB

Robison and Glick Are Right at Home Under Any Long Wallops.

There is one part of the local club beside the keystone sack which Manager Carl Vandagriff won't have to worry about, or we miss our guess. The outer garden here is going to be one of the best looked after of any in the Central circuit or any other minor league.

From the first workout Robison, the Ohio state player, and Glick have been performing in big league style, judging flies when they leave the bat and handling themselves like real phenoms. Yesterday Wasson, who was thought to be lost to the club, blew into camp, donned a uniform and grabbed off everything that came within fifty yards of him. He made a specialty of high and low slabs and of picking the ball off in sensational style.

According to Curly Blount a better outfielder than Glick was never seen in the Central. This player has all the earmarks of a born ball player and he has speed to burn. In batting practice he has been pounding the pill all over the lot and unless he takes an awful slump, he's going to live up to Curly's expectations.

Robison is a clean working and easy-going player of the kind the fans like to watch. He looks to be the result of good training and if he lives up to his record made in the Big Nine he will fill out a mighty classy outfield. In going back after a long fly he very seldom loses sight of it and he takes the ball in a side position.

All the comforts of mid-season were on tap at League park yesterday and today. Peanuts and pop were on sale and a good crowd of "bugs" watched the game and gorged the fazz water.

The squad is getting bigger right along and there were two players for every position and some over yesterday. Several Fort Wayne players are working out with the club, and among them is Dutch Henline, who stacks up with the best of them.

LINCOLN LIFE OUTFIT READY FOR SUNDAY GO

Players Are Named for Initial Game Against Central League Club.

Manager Mart Cleary has announced the team which will be used against the Central leaguers Sunday in the first exhibition game of the season. The game will be played at League park and with the weather right should be a bear in the line of openers.

The insurance men will line up as follows: Oestermeyer, Distel and Smith, pitchers; Hines, catcher; Rabus, short; Devlin, first; Chambers, second; Laird, third; Leutwyler, Wiegman, Danton and Hillinger, outfielders.

The lineup looks mighty good on paper and in practice and is expected to deliver the real goods. Some of the best semi-pro performers in this part of the country are included and Vandy's team will have to show much more than go around them.

Friday night the players will meet and get the uniforms, which have been in town for more than a week. They are classy looking togs, the kind that make a good club look better than ever. A week from Sunday the insurance men will play the second game against the leaguers, in spite of tempting offers from both Delphos and Peru.

"HACK" SPENCER PROVES THEY CAN COME BACK. "Old King Booze" is the Only Undefeated Champion, Says Jungaleer.

(By Paul Furman.)

This is the story of the man who came back.

He is "Hack" Spencer, catcher on the Detroit baseball club, and his experiences in the ring with "Old Man Booze" should be a lesson to every young man who thinks he can stay the limit with that Kayo king and earn a decision.

Nobody has even won a decision from "Old King Booze." He is the one undefeated champion. That's what Hack Spencer thinks about it.

"I've tried his game and I know," Spencer declared. "You may think you are getting away with his delivery, but in the end he will always strike you out."

Spencer in a few games in the American league last year developed into one of the best catchers in the circuit. He batted .370 in nineteen games and fielded .987.

Fans who knew Spencer of old could not realize this was the Ed Spencer who had been "up there" before—they knew Spencer's follies.

Spencer today is a direct refutation of the adage that "they can't come back."

Starting with Wasson, catcher for the Detroit base ball club, and his experiences in the ring with "Old Man Booze" should be a lesson to every young man who thinks he can stay the limit with that Kayo king and earn a decision.

"One day I sat down and began to think since, and never will. I went back and played ball at Vernon and came from there to Detroit. "If my story will keep any young fellow from drinking I am more than glad to tell it."

"I wondered whether it would or not, but I waited a week to find out then I got drunk," Spencer said. "It didn't kill me, but it put me back where I was. "Later I went to the coast, but I wouldn't stay sober and the first thing I knew I was working in a northern mining camp for a couple of dollars a day."

SAM CRAWFORD MAY LEAVE THE TIGERS

Pinchhitter May Be Sent to Cleveland on Trade is the Report.

Detroit, Mich., April 18.—The first big trade of the year may involve the sending of old Wahoo Sam Crawford to Cleveland. Crawford is nearing the end of his career. Although he can hit almost as well as he did in his prime, the big Texan cannot cover ground in the outfield and is painfully slow on the bases.

For this reason he has been succeeded at Detroit by Hallman, and is doing his bit as a pinch hitter.

Crawford is drawing a wartime salary of $7,500 a year, a lot of money for a bench warmer, and it is understood that President Navin would lend an attentive ear to the right kind of a proposition to relieve the Tigers of this financial burden.

Whether Navin would consent to send Crawford to a club which has a chance to beat Detroit out in the pennant race is another question. This seems to be the only drawback on the Cleveland deal.

There have also been rumors coming from Detroit that for the last year or two that Crawford and his teammates have not been on the best of terms. This would be an added reason for his transfer.

Crawford has been one of the most terrific sluggers of the big league. Eleven seasons out of eighteen he has batted above the .300 mark. He is always a dangerous man at bat and would make a valuable addition to any team that needs more hitting.

FIRST DAY'S FIGURES STILL HIGH IN MEET

Team Counts Are Picking Up and Gary Scores May Be Doomed.

Scores made by the Gary Bowlers in the opening of the state bowling tourney here still hold and have not been seriously threatened yet. Fifteen team counts seem to be picking up considerably, however, and here are chances that the top-place holders may be forced back suddenly.

In last night's rolling the counts made were considerably better than those of Monday. The first team of the Wayne Knitting Mills stood high with a count of 2,533, a little more than three hundred pins behind the leaders. There were no singles or doubles.

The first squad of six teams to take the alleys will be made up of four Lincoln life clubs and two Anthony hotel teams. At 9:45 o'clock two Bowser teams, the Baltes, Randall, Cutshall for Mayor and Trenkley & Koerber fives will roll.

CALIFORNIA GIRL IS AFTER WORLD RECORDS

San Francisco, April 18.—America will place its hopes of winning the world's swimming title for women this year in Miss Frances Covelli of San Francisco, who will compete early this summer in a big swimming meet in Honolulu against Miss Fannie Durack, of Australia, the world's champion.

Miss Covelli was a sensation in 1915, when she romped away with all the honors at the Panama-Pacific exposition, but she was defeated several times last year.

During the last few months, however, she has performed in championship time and set several new records.

Some of the new standards follow: Fifty yards, straightaway, 30 4-5 seconds; 300 yards, 4 minutes 24 seconds; 440 yards, 6 minutes 44 4-5 seconds. The last two marks clip 3 and 20 seconds respectively from the records made last year by Miss Claire Gulligan, of New Rochelle.

Great gup penetrating power is claimed for a new French incandescent light with greenish-yellow glass in front and backed by a reflector that reflects enough heat to prevent moisture collecting on the glass.

SOCIETY WOMEN LEARN TO COOK AS PATRIOTIC MEASURE.

New York, April 18.—While scores of patriotic women are eager to serve their country in most extraordinary ways, thousands are preparing to perform the simple and obvious but vitally necessary tasks of every day.

According to the economists, every woman should be a good cook in wartime: Thereby she helps to save the nation's food supply; she raises the standard of national health; she is prepared to cook for soldiers if necessary, and she is fitted to undertake her own kitchen work in case the regular maids and cooks enter man's labor market, as they have done in Europe.

The members of the state and city bureau of the National League for Women's Service are working to organize the women of the country so that they will be ready to serve the nation in the capacity for which they are best fitted.

Many society women who consider cooking the best form of preparedness for women are taking lessons in the art for the first time in their lives.

Among members of the classes now being formed at the West Side Y. W. C. A. are Mrs. R. Stuyvesant Pierpont, Mrs. T. T. Wells, Mrs. Graham Lusk, Mrs. Frederick Delafeld and Mrs. James F. Shaw.

SPENCERVILLE NEWS.

Spencerville, Ind., April 18.—J. F. Baltz was called on Monday morning to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Mandy Erick, of Auburn, who is critically ill. Arthur Pinkerton, wife and three daughters, Helen, Mildred and Marjorie, of Bryan, Ohio; William Baltz and son, Grant, of north of St. Joe, and Mr. and Mrs. Herley Sallor, of east of Springfield Center, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Webb, of Main street.

Floyd Moore, of Harlan, was a Sunday afternoon guest of J. C. Vallien and family.

Mrs. George Henderson and daughter, Mary and Esther, spent several days last week with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Culbertson, of Auburn.

PATRIOTIC DAY AT BLUFFTON.

Bluffton, Ind., April 18.—About twenty-five enthusiasts, including four ladies, met in the Studebaker bank yesterday and in a very short time had made arrangements for a patriotic day in Bluffton to be held next Tuesday, April 24. The entire plan contemplates a monster parade starting at 6:30 o'clock, traversing the principal streets of the city, and ending up with a flag raising. After the outside program has been carried out it is expected to hold a meeting in the court house to hear speeches bearing upon the work of the Red Cross society. Speakers have been engaged for this part of the program. Also a musical program will be rendered at the opera house.

FOR DESECRATION OF FLAG.

Huntington, Ind., April 18.—Nick Petrie was found guilty in the police court Tuesday morning on a charge of desecrating the American flag. No trial was held, but as Petrie had previously pleaded not guilty, that plea was allowed to stand, and with his consent a finding of guilty was entered. The fine was placed at $5 and costs, the minimum for the first offense. Harry Swinchart and O. E. Kaufman were ready to swear from the witness stand that Petrie had made the statement of "to — with the flag" in the Bismark bar several days ago. This made a preponderance of evidence, as Petrie would have had only his own denial to counterbalance two witnesses.

IN FATAL ACCIDENT.

Van Wert, Ohio, April 18.—A fatal automobile accident occurred yesterday, several miles south of Delphos, in which Lester, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucius was killed, by a machine driven by J. L. Barth, a Lima salesman. The child had gone into the roadway to get the mail just left in the box by the rural letter carrier, and was being watched by his father, who witnessed the mishap. Aside from a few scratches on the face the little body was not marked and no bones were broken. Death was caused by concussion of the brain.

MARRIED AT JACKSON.

Kendallville, Ind., April 18.—Earl Davis and Miss Alice Bullock, both of Jackson, Mich., were quietly wedded at the home of the bride's parents in Jackson, several days ago. Announcement of the wedding was received here Monday afternoon by Ray Davis, brother of the bridegroom. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Davis, of this city, and is a member of Company D, I. N. G. He is now employed as cashier of the Adams Express company at Jackson, and has a very lucrative position.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Bluffton, Ind., April 18.—John Truesdale, aged about 55 years, made what may prove to be a successful attempt at ending his life late this afternoon by shooting himself in the temple with a revolver. He is in a critical condition. Dr. L. H. Cook, of this city, was hurried to the man's bedside, but from indications little can be done to save him. Mr. Truesdale has been ill for the last nine weeks with stomach trouble and worry over his illness is said to have caused the act.

JURY FINDS GREEN GUILTY OF ASSAULT

Harry Hartssock is Fined $5 and Costs for Allowing Minors to Play Pool

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Columbia City, Ind., April 18.—Frank Green was found guilty of assault and battery upon the person of George Ramp, east of the city, by the circuit court jury Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, after a half-hour deliberation, following an all day trial. Green was fined $1 and costs, amounting to $67.40, which represents also costs incurred in a justice's trial last summer, shortly after the occurrence of the alleged assault.

Harry Hartssock pleaded guilty before Judge Wrigley Monday afternoon to a charge of allowing minors to play pool and he paid a fine of $5 and costs. Another charge is pending, but may be dropped. The cases of the state of Indiana vs. H. M. Miller, one count for violation of the liquor laws and two others for violation of the fish and game ordinance, were dismissed.

The three year old daughter of Marshall Boulton, west of Elletts, died Monday night of ailments similar in symptoms to infantile paralysis, and a private funeral was held Tuesday.

Drs. Scott, of Elletts, and Nel, of Cromwell, are puzzled over the case, which was not pronounced, and thus rendered difficult a diagnosis.

Harking to the agricultural war call, S. E. Kessler is making preparations to truck five acres on the E. E. Ricker property, west of the city, and several local people are doubling and tripling the sizes of their gardens.

M. L. Galbreath and family will leave Columbia City in a couple of weeks and return to their farm, known as "Sunnyside," just east of Collamer, where the Galbreaths resided until eighteen years ago, when they moved here. Mr. Galbreath afflicting himself with the Provident Trust company at that time.

Mr. Galbreath served in connection with the bank a year ago and has since been conducting a realty business, which he will continue. A tenant will continue to take care of the farm to which the Galbreaths will leave.

The members of the Sorority club, of which Mrs. Galbreath has been president since its organization, tendered her a farewell party at her home Monday evening.

The George Cox forty acres south-west of this city, was sold Monday by the W. H. Roberts real estate agency to James C. Adair, of Fort Wayne, for $4,000. Mr. Cox taking over a property in Montpelier, Ind., on the deal.

Lieut. C. A. Gregg instructed a class of eighth graders. The high school students are now learning the "school of a soldier" and the "school of a squad."

Homier Binder, of Milwaukee, Wis., engineer for the Allis-Chalmers company and son of F. G. Binder, of this city, has been placed on the reserve list by the government. He will probably serve in a regiment of Purdue engineers.

The crop booster meeting held at Coesse Monday evening in the schoolhouse there was attended by forty farmers. Addresses were made by James D. Adams and Lloyd T. Bailey, of Columbia City, and W. E. Lawrence, president of the county farm efficiency organization, gave a demonstration for the treatment of oats-smut. A number of farmers also gathered at the Larwill schoolhouse Monday evening.

C. C. Anspaugh gave the life history of the oat-smut, and M. J. Friedline then demonstrated the treatment of it by the use of formaldehyde.

The Cyrene commandery of the local Masonic lodge will, beginning Wednesday evening, conduct drills every week instead of every month, and the cards notifying the local members of the above bear the admonition, "Be Prepared." The local commandery is well commanded by officers, their eminent commander being Lloyd T. Bailey; their generalissimo being George O. Compton, former national guard lieutenant, and their captain-general or drill master being Joseph R. Harrison, retired lieutenant colonel of the guard. If a call to arms came to Indiana, the northern part of the state might possibly organize a regiment composed solely of Knights Templar.

Good Membership Campaign Follows Visit to the Indoor Range.

Thirty members of the Bowser Efficiency club were guests of the Fort Wayne Rifle and Revolver club at the indoor shooting range, General Electric works, last night. As a result of the visit the Bowser Efficiency club has started a membership campaign in its ranks for the rifle club. Ten signed up last night and it is predicted that over thirty or forty more will do likewise. The Efficiency club never took interest in rifle or revolver shooting before the visit at the range last night, and of course they had very crude ideas of the use of firearms and did not realize the importance of civilians knowing how to shoot and to handle rifles and revolvers until last night. Several of the Bowser people took a shot at targets at the range and developed the fact that there are some in the club who possess "the making of good marksmen," as one of the enthusiastic members of the Rifle club expressed it. The Rifle and Revolver club, which started among the employees of the General Electric works, now includes in its membership men from various industries, professions and business and will soon have a membership of several hundred.

EXPECT 3,000 IN LINE.

G. E. Works Will Turn Out in Lexington Day Parade.

"We expect to have the largest turnout in the parade of any industrial concern in the city," said Major John E. Miller, the marshal of the day for the Electricians. There was a meeting at the works last night to complete the arrangements and this morning Major Miller issued a bulletin of instructions concerning the movement of the employees in the parade. He appointed W. Howard Miller, J. L. Stroud, assistant marshals. The bulletin also states that all departments must be in their places ready to march at 2 o'clock. The center division will march first, the right center section, the left center, the right fourth and the left last. "We will march east to Lindley avenue, south to Taylor street, east to Fairfield avenue, south to DeWald street, east to Harrison street, north until the head of the column reaches Dawson street, when a halt will be made until the procession moves to bring us into our position. Each person should carry a small flag. The formation will be eight abreast, with four feet between ranks. Each assistant marshal will be at his place, marking the head of the column to which he is assigned, at 1:30 o'clock sharp. Each captain will report to his assistant marshal on his arrival in position." There will be about 400 ladies in the ranks of the Electric employees and it is expected the total number will pass the 3,000 mark.

EIGHTY-SIX AT BANQUET.

Ladies of O. R. C. Enjoyed Feast at Elks' Temple.

There were eighty-six seated at the banquet table at the Elks' temple last night, when Kekionga division, No. 51, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Order of Railway Conductors, gave a dinner in honor of Mrs. J. H. Moore, of Toledo, the grand president of the auxiliary, and a number of visiting auxiliary ladies. The party was late in arriving at the banquet hall, after an automobile ride over the city, the guests of the O. R. C. members, and could not carry out the program of speaking as it had been arranged, and it was cut short. Mrs. Moore delivered an address, however, which was well received. After the banquet the ladies were the guests of the members of the O. R. C. at a theater party at the Palace.

The school of instructions, which began yesterday, will close at 6 o'clock tonight. There were two sessions today, divided at noon by a recess for luncheon, which was served in Unity hall. There were a number of visitors again today, coming from Huntington, Garrett and other railway centers. This is said to be one of the best meetings of its kind ever held in Fort Wayne, and the program was excellent, the committee leaving nothing undone that laid in any way added to the comfort and entertainment of the members and the guests. Mrs. C. A. Bowman, Mrs. Ella Bonter and Mrs. F. H. Davis composed the committee.

ADOPT G. E. METHODS.

Relief Department at Electric Works Makes a Change.

The executive committee of the Mutual Benefit association of the General Electric works, voted unanimously at the meeting last night to adopt the organization methods of the General Electric company as they are in force in Schenectady and other eastern cities, wherein are G. E. factories and benefit associations. According to the proposed plan the Fort Wayne branch will be divided into sections, with a membership of 150 instead of one section, as at present. Each section will have a chairman, directors and sub-chairmen to handle its business and there will be a central organization to which the sub-division officers will report. The change is made in order that the association officials will be in closer touch with the membership. The executive committee will submit a report of their action to the members for approval.

LOOKING OVER THE TRACKS.

Pennsylvania Officials Out Planning Spring Work.

Supt. Otto Schroll, of the Pennsylvania, and some of his staff officers are making a trip over Division C, Fort Wayne to Crestline, today, looking into the condition of the tracks. They have a special train and will complete the inspection of the division today. With Mr. Schroll are Division Engineer Guy Scott, Master Mechanic E. E. Grier, Division Operator H. B. Reynolds, Road Foreman of Engines John H. Hanna, Assistant Trainmaster C. E. McKeehan, Chief Dispatcher Harry E. Hart, Master Carpenter D. C. Zook and the several road supervisors.

ANOTHER EMBARGO.

N. Y. C. Makes Most Unwelcome Announcement.

Agent J. B. Clizbie, of the New York Central lines, was notified yesterday that at midnight tonight the company would refuse to receive freight in less than carload lots for points off the division. This means that there will be no service further than Jackson and Ypsilanti, Mich., out of Fort Wayne until the embargo is raised. This will greatly interfere with the business of the wholesale and jobbing line of Fort Wayne. The cause is a blockade on the main lines of the N. Y. C. The L. E. W. is not affected.

TO TOLEDO FOR A FLAG.

If the employees of the Wabash shops and the clerks in the master mechanic's office can get a flag in time they will dedicate it and hoist it on the pretty eighty foot pole erected some time ago on ground just north of the master mechanic's building. Attempts to get a suitable flag in Fort Wayne failed and this morning T. C. Steger, foreman of the pipe and tin department, went to Toledo in the effort to get one. "We have the prettiest flag staff in the city," said General Foreman William J. Welch this morning, as he pointed to the staff. It has been surrounded with green sod for a distance of eight or ten feet, is surmounted by a shielded ball and a 250 candle power electric lamp. It certainly is a pretty pole.

"SOMEBODY SPILLED THE BEANS"

Under this caption, a subscriber of The Sentinel sends the following interesting notice of a fellow shopman: "Dewey Gatchell, night operator of a mill machine in T. B. Cole's commutator department of the General Electric works, has forsaken the ranks of single men and got married. The great secret leaked out today, which accounts for the big black 'ropes' the boys of the commutator department are puffing at. The marriage ceremony took place at Hillsdale, Mich., on Monday, April 16. Mr. and Mrs. Gatchell, the latter who was Miss Dorothy Shroyer, of South Broadway, will for awhile reside with Mr. Gatchell's parents on Euclid avenue.

OVERLOOK ONE DEMONSTRATION.

"Say, you newspaper men, in writing about flag raisings and dedications, omitted to mention ours," said one of the firemen at the boiler and power plant of the General Electric works, as he pointed to a handsome flag floating from a staff over the east end of the power plant. "Ours was the first flag erected at this shop and we feel slighted because none of the papers mentioned us," continued the man. There are about thirty men employed in that department who contributed towards the purchase of the flag.

OPEN MEETING TONIGHT.

An open meeting in the interest of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees' union, now taking on more activity, will be held in the Cooks and Waiters' hall, 625 Cathoon street, tonight. All persons interested in this line of work are requested to be at this meeting. Among those present will be William A. Jackson and Charles Redrup, prominent in labor union circles, are interested in this movement and attended a meeting of the executive board last night to push the work along.

ELECTRIC WORKERS' DANCE.

The annual ball of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, No. 305, drew a crowd of young people several hundred strong to the Moose hall last night. The hall was decorated profusely with flags and national bunting and hundreds of electric lamps, artistically arranged. The officers of the union and the committee on arrangements acted as a reception committee.

CLOSE AT NOON.

Agent E. H. Kirkland, of the Pennsylvania and the G. R. & I., and Agent J. B. Clizbie, of the N. Y. C., posted bulletins today announcing that the respective freight house would close at noon tomorrow on account of the celebration and no business would be transacted there. The Nickel Plate will probably take similar action, though at 2 o'clock no instructions of that kind had been received.

BACK BRUISED AND SPRAINED.

ARTHUR STEIN, President.

EMPLOYEES OF INDIANA FURNITURE COMPANY WILL CULTIVATE EIGHT ACRES OF GROUND.

Employees of the Indiana Furniture company are perhaps the first clerks of a local store to take up in a systematic way the cultivation of ground to assist in the campaign that is being conducted throughout the entire country for bigger crop production and food conservation. Clerks of other stores in the city are expected to follow the example of the Indiana Furniture company's employees.

The twenty employees of the Indiana Furniture company have formed sort of a company and each has contributed to a fund to defray the necessary expenses. Eight acres of ground have been secured near the gas plant in the southwestern part of the city. Each man has agreed to devote two hours a day in attending the patch. This is equivalent to forty hours a day that will be given to the work, which, however, is to be done on their own time.

Four acres will be planted in potatoes, one acre in corn, one-half acre in tomatoes and the remainder in small garden truck. The products are to be sold to the employees at the actual cost of production and all above what is actually needed by them will be sold to the public at market prices. Those who will take up this work are shown in the above picture. They are, reading from left to right, first row—Frank H. Hilgemann, L. Crumrine, W. E. Young, E. C. Gerdine, H. C. Darnenfelser, E. Sherrick, George Shideler, George Weff. Rear row—O. Stahn, W. F. Graeter, J. V. Reul, E. M. Clawson, C. M. Bragg, W. L. Heller, F. C. Meads, H. R. Winans, Mrs. S. M. Hall, William Harries.

MORE FLAGS GIVE EVIDENCE OF LOYALTY

Pennsy Yardmen and Employees of Spoke Works Have Demonstration.

More flag dedication ceremonies took place yesterday, possibly the greatest attended of the several events being at the Pennsylvania east yards and at the Wayne Spoke and Bending factory, on Wabash avenue.

The demonstration at the yard office was under the auspices of the employees in the office of General Foreman Henry Bley and the men who work in the yards as switchmen, conductors, switch tenders and others, who contributed to the purchase of the flag and the apparatuses.

The flag is a neatly constructed affair and is sixty foot high. The exercises were held at the foot of the pole, in the yards just west of Walton avenue, where a platform was built and covered with national colors for the occasion.

The Hon. H. H. Hilgemann and C. M. Neizer, the speakers, were at their best and gave splendid addresses, eulogizing the flag and the country it represents and describing the conditions and causes which led up to the present war situation.

They urged their prayers to stand squarely behind the president and to honor and serve their country to the best of their abilities. As the crowd stood with bared heads, cheering and waving their hands, the flag was hoisted to its position and as it went up Battery D fired a salute.

The officials and employees of the Wayne Spoke and Bending company and many of the residents of that part of the city witnessed the ceremonies attending the dedication and unfurling of the flag at the spoke factory.

Manager William Yeagans was master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers. These were J. M. Farrell, the head sawyer, and Harry J. Crystal, an employee of the shops, and B. Paul Mossman, president of the company. Mr. Farrell urged patriotic loyalty to the country and also spoke of the need of co-operation between employer and employee at the factory and elsewhere.

Mr. Crystal, who is a veteran of the Spanish-American war, spoke of "Our Duty to Our Country" and related some of his experiences in the service of the United States during the stirring times of 1898, declaring he was ready to fight again when necessary. Mr. Mossman's address was full of patriotic utterances, which aroused the enthusiasm of the hearers. He also gave a most interesting history of the flag from its adoption by the continental congress in Philadelphia, June 14, 1777, to the present day.

A flag was raised upon a thirty foot pole at the Perrine-Armstrong saw mills yesterday afternoon. While there was no particularly big demonstration, patriotic enthusiasm was aroused by the employees who purchased and erected the flag, is strong and all will give to their country their support and go to war if the necessity arises, as was evidenced by their action when the flag was raised.

While the patriotic flag demonstration was in progress at the east yard office John Guebard, towerman at the Walton avenue crossing of the Pennsylvania, had a patriotic demonstration all by himself. Climbing to the top of the tower, he placed a handsome flag in position and patriotically saluted it.

HOW CUPID IS "COPPING" UNCLE SAM'S RECRUITS.

Line of Marriage License Applicants at License Bureau in New York.

[By F. M. Kerby.]

New York, April 18.—Get married and you needn't go to war!

That's one cause that has stimulated marriages in this and other cities throughout the country to such an extent license clerks have to work overtime to keep up with the sudden rush of business.

Some of New York's young men have decided they would rather fight the high cost of living than the Germans.

As one official at the municipal building put it, "Cupid is coping the recruits."

More than twice as many young men applied to the marriage license bureau in a single day in Manhattan and Brooklyn than applied at the same time to the recruiting stations of the army and navy in the entire city!

In Manhattan in one day 420 licenses were issued and in Brooklyn 250. This was a slight falling off from the "run" that started when it was announced the government would recommend conscription of all unmarried men from 19 to 25 years of age.

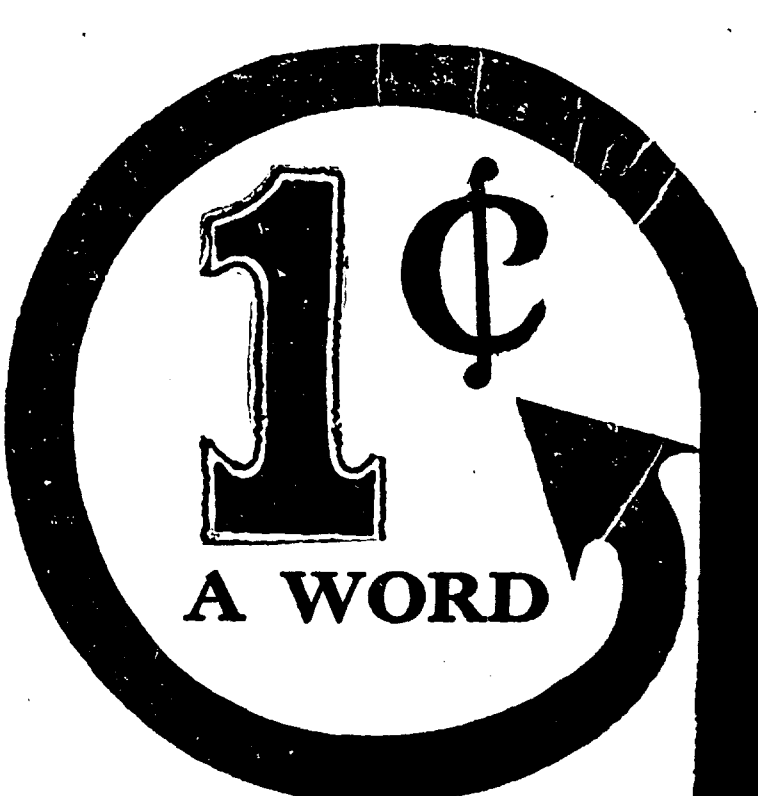

Most of the men crowding the license bureaus in the last few days are between 19 and 25 years, and many of them openly admit they are getting married to evade military service.

"I have reluctantly come to the conclusion this increase in the number applications for license is due in a great degree to the recent announcement that all single men between the ages of 19 and 25 years may be selected by drafting," said City Clerk Patrick J. Scully.

New York has also a marriage chapel, presided over by Theodore Wasserman, where couples may be married on the spot. Wasserman has been busy the past week.

"The girls make no bones about it," he said. "Many tell me they have in-creased their young men to marry at once to avoid conscription."

ILLINOIS WIPES OUT 142 SALOONS BY VOTE

Chicago, Ill., April 18.—Figures compiled today by the anti-saloon league show that 142 saloons were voted out of business in elections yesterday in various cities and towns of Illinois. The dry vote in fourteen wet cities and towns but lost three dry towns. The liquor forces retained twelve wet towns besides winning the only three dry towns where the local option elections were held. The largest city to enter the dry column yesterday was Danville of 30,000 inhabitants, where sixty-eight saloons will close May 1.

Police Orders.
Police Chief Lenz has made out the following order for the public for Lexington day:

On account of the Lexington day celebration, Thursday, April 19, 1917, there will be no automobiles or other vehicles allowed to park on Calhoun street, between Creighton avenue and Columbia street, between the hours of 1 p. m. and 4 p. m., or on Main street, between Main street and the Nickel Plate railroad, or on Webster street, between Webster street and the interurban station. All these points must be kept open without fail.

Parade on other streets must be parallel with the curb as prescribed by ordinance. Under no consideration will anyone be allowed to block any street.

"I would like to advise all owners of automobiles, especially those who use their cars to park their machines on Barr street market space on both sides of this street. At this place machines will be parked by heading in and by so doing a great many machines can be taken care of at this point and be out of the way of all other traffic, especially in the downtown thoroughfare."

"I am in this way appealing to the public to assist this department in handling this situation as no doubt there will be a great many strangers with machines in the city during this occasion and a good many who are not familiar with our laws or conditions of our streets and it will keep the officers busy to handle and direct them so they may not block any thoroughfare or violate a law which may cause their arrest, and for this reason, as stated above, I am asking all citizens of this city to park their cars somewhere besides on any street near Calhoun street."

"I also wish to call the public's attention and request them to view the parade from the sidewalk and not crowd into the streets, as anyone knows that Calhoun street and Main street are very narrow and by crowding into the street it will interfere with the celebration as well as being very dangerous."

MAJORITY OF PRICES ARE STATIONARY NOW
Oats Fall from False Prices
Made Here on Tuesday Morning.

Advances made on the local market Tuesday were followed by quietness on Wednesday. All the sensations were released at once, leaving the market featureless. Receipts were little better than they have been in the past week. The price on oats fell from 3c to 15c and the exorbitant figures made Tuesday prove to be merely the result of the sensational advance in other lines.
Corn sold at $1.65@1.67 per bushel, and only four loads were offered. It is expected that this price will continue because of the fact that the late crop of oats is practically all gone and there will be no more for some time. Fourteen loads of hay were brought in and sold at $15 to $18 a ton. This is the highest price asked for hay in the city for a little over a year.
Wheat remained at $2.48@2.50 and was subject to the action of larger markets for any change which might be made. The grain fell in some places Tuesday, but reports indicate that it is regaining its strength and may reach new heights.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, April 18.—Enlarged estimates of the amount of wheat available in Canada had a bearish effect today on the market here but efforts to buy a little May delivery disclosed that offerings were scarce and led to a sharp rally. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 3½c lower, were followed by additional decline and a general upturn, although July and September were relatively easy as compared with May. The close was unsettled, 2c to 3½c net higher, with May at $2.32½ to $2.35, and July at $1.97½ to $1.97½.
Corn declined and rallied with wheat. After opening ¼c to 1½c off the market sagged a little further and then, except for September, rose to well above yesterday's close.
The close was strong at 1½c to 3½c net advance.
Oats averaged higher on account of large purchases for leading houses.
Weakness of the hog market depressed provisions.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.
New York, April 18.—Ralls were the strong feature at the opening of today's market. Reading and leading Pacifics rising a point or more while some of the minor issues of that division, notably Pittsburg and West Virginia common also made striking gains. Other leaders, including United States Steel, Bethlehem, Republic Iron and Amosand Copper, were higher by half a point to a full point, with heavy tendencies in Utah Copper, Industrial Alcohol and Distillers' securities. The motor group was again heavy to weak. Changes in shipments were slight but Ohio Gas gained four points.
The uncertain tone of the morning's trading, which was marked by alternate rallies and declines, left little doubt of its speculative character. Prices became moderately unsettled soon after the opening on the setback in Motors, but hardened again on general inquiry for steel.

FRIARS' FROLIC TO BE GIVEN FOR RED CROSS

Brilliant Affair at Palace Theater on Next Monday Evening.

The Friars' management has announced that the wonderfully successful frolic which was given last Thursday night, will be repeated on next Monday evening, April 23, the net proceeds of the show to be turned over to the Red Cross society of this city. Not a penny of the proceeds will revert to the Friars, who conceived this idea of helping the local society at a time when the need of money is most urgent.

The success of the first frolic makes the assurance of the next one an absolute assurance, as over six hundred people were unable to get tickets for the original presentation and hundreds of people were unable to attend because of other engagements made. Also, many of those who attended the first show voiced their intention of coming again. At any rate, they will find some new surprises, as a number of the acts given in the last frolic have been revamped and considerable new material substituted. The final act will probably be repeated verbatim, as it proved a magnificent success, and all the professional actors on the bill pronounced it the most elaborate and worth-while amateur affairs they had ever witnessed.

Friar Meeting Tonight.
Captain George L. Byrondie will be one of the principal speakers at the big preparedness meeting to be given at the Friar rooms tonight. There has been considerable talk of establishing a military unit with part of the two hundred odd members of the Friars' club, and the project met with the instant approval of a large number.

THE WEATHER

Fort Wayne, Ind., April 18, 1917.
Forecasts till 7:00 p. m. Thursday:
For Fort Wayne and vicinity (radius 20 miles): Probably showers and thunderstorms tonight and Thursday; cooler Thursday.
For Indiana: Probably showers and thunderstorms tonight and Thursday; cooler Thursday.
For Ohio: Probably showers tonight and Thursday.
For Lower Michigan: Probably rain, tonight and Thursday; warmer in southeast portion tonight.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The western depression has moved across the Rockies, but it has divided into two storms, one being centered over eastern Nebraska, and the other is centered over eastern New Mexico. A high pressure area covers the eastern half of the country. During the last 24 hours precipitation occurred in the western portion of the lake region, and thence westward over northern districts to the northern Rocky mountain region and southward along the western part of the continental divide to Arizona. As a rule the changes in temperature have been unimportant, but the weather is generally warmer in the districts to the eastward of the Rockies, and it is cooler in the southwestern portion of the Rocky mountain states.

Mother Gives Her Three Sons to Uncle Sam.

SARAH DOUGLAS.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 13.—Mrs. Sarah Douglas has done her "bit" for her country. She has given her three sons to her country.
Her oldest boy, Willie, joined the navy before he was of age. Then Winnie went, and when the government declared war against Germany, Charlie, the youngest, joined. He is 16.
Hardly had Charlie gone from home when Mrs. Douglas received word that Willie had lost his life. She had taken the news bravely and says she is glad he died in the service of his country.
She says she prays each night for the safety of her two remaining sons.

HOUSE COMMITTEE VOTES AGAINST DRAFT

ARMY BILL OF PRESIDENT IS PUT IN PERIL

WILSON, AT CAPITOL, MAKES BIG PUSH

Washington, April 18.—Opponents of selective conscription plan got the upper hand in the house military committee today, voted 12 to 8 to have the new army bill carry a provision to first try to raise the new force by volunteers.

The bill including the conscription provision, was approved by the senate military committee, ten to seven.

While the two committees were acting, President Wilson was at the capitol conferring with senate leaders on the administration war measures, particularly the army bill.

The senate committee rejected an amendment by Senator McKellar authorizing the president to call for 500,000 volunteers, and made only a few changes in the bill as drawn by the army general staff.

One amendment would bar liquor from all camps where the new army is to be trained and another would include persons engaged in agriculture and industries exempt from services on account of military reasons. The president told senators he would con-

SPAIN DRAWN MUCH NEARER TO CONFLICT

Madrid, April 18.—The Spanish steamship Tom has been torpedoed and sunk without warning. Eighteen lives were lost.

It is expected that news of this occurrence will further influence public feeling in Spain.

The Tom, 1,249 tons gross, was owned in Balboa. Recent dispatches from Spain said much excitement was produced by the torpedoing of the Spanish steamer Fulgencio. The Spanish government sent an emphatic protest to Germany, and is reported to have demanded an indemnity.

DESTROYER SMITH SIGHTED U-BOAT FIRING TORPEDO

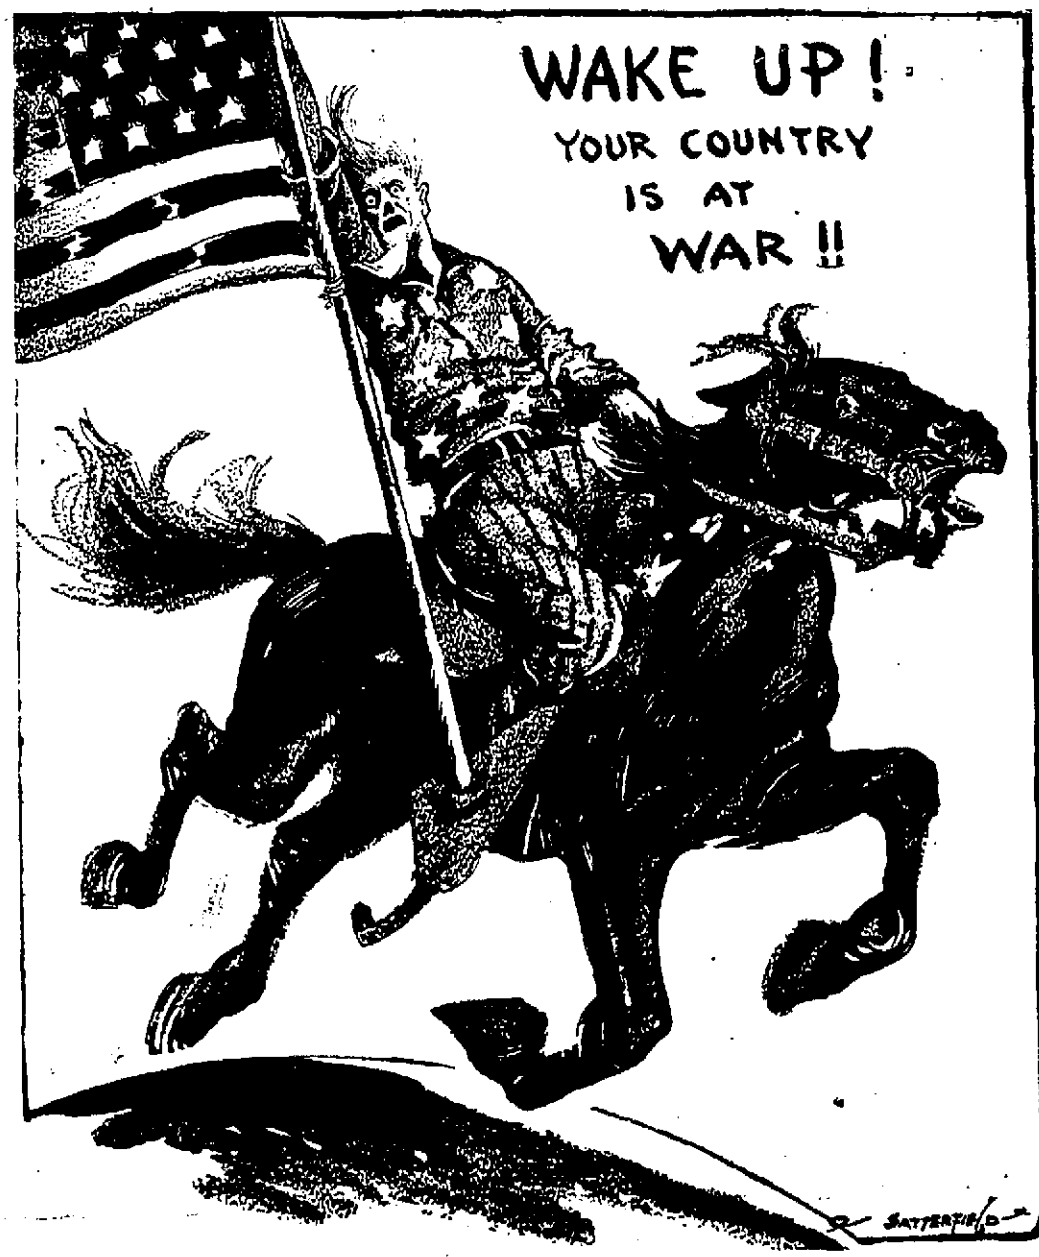

Washington, April 18.—The periscope of a submarine running submerged was sighted by the deck officer, quartermaster and deck watch of the destroyer Smith early yesterday morning just before the wake of a torpedo was seen crossing the destroyer's bows.

This information was contained in a radio report from the commander of the Smith received today at the navy department. Navy officials said this confirms the report of the presence of a German submarine in American waters.

The officer on watch on the Smith reported that the periscope was distinctly visible at a distance of 300 yards from the ship. The quartermaster and the members of the gun crew agreed in this respect.

The report from the officer said the periscope was moving on a course parallel to that of the destroyer. The torpedo crossed the bows of the Smith at a distance of thirty yards as reported yesterday and today's statement added that all of the men on the ship who saw it were experienced torpedo men.

This may be today. The measure passed the senate last night by unanimous vote.

Treasury officials, anticipating the action of the house on the bill, began today to work out the policy to be employed in issuing the bonds.

FRENCH CLAIM 14,000 GERMAN ARE CAPTURED

Paris, April 18.—2:15 p. m.—Important progress was made last night for the French in their attack east of Soissons. The war office announces the capture of Chavonne and Chivy. The French pushed on north of these points, reaching the vicinity of Braye-en-Laonnais.

The Germans made three desperate counter attacks in the Champagne last night. They were checked by the French, who inflicted heavy losses on the attacking troops. Since Monday the French have captured upward of 14,000 unwounded Germans. In the Champagne large numbers of machine guns and trench mortars have been captured and also 12 cannon, including three of large calibre.

BRITISH MAKE PROGRESS.

London, April 18.—12:35 p. m.—The British forces have made further progress north of St. Quentin and have captured the village of Villers-Guisan, according to an official statement given out by the war office today. The statement follows:

"During the night we made further progress southeast and east of Ephey and this morning captured the village of Villers-Cislan with some prisoners. We also improved our position in the neighborhood of Lagincourt.

Elsewhere there is nothing to report of special interest. Heavy rain is again falling."

GREAT FRENCH OFFENSIVE.

Paris, April 18.—(5:45 a. m.)—The latest French victory, while on a smaller scale than that of Monday, is an equally important success. Both of the sections attacked had been left alone hitherto on account of the exceptional natural strength of the German positions. The French command held that an assault could only be successfully undertaken when overwhelming resources had been accumulated and the general situation was favorable.

The general who commands the armies of the right center had been planning the attack for several weeks and had left nothing to chance. Everything was provided for and the chiefs under him had nothing to do but follow instructions to the letter. As soon as the result of the battle between Soissons and Rheims was known the order was given to attack. Punctually at 4:45 the French infantry "went over" well supported by a powerful mass of artillery. They swept forward in magnificent style and in two hours

the first line system had been captured. Later news came that the French soldiers were carrying all before them and taking prisoners by the score. They seized Montcornillet, Monthaut and all the crests commanding the region.

Hills Thought Impregnable. From their new positions the French now look down upon Morenvilliers and Nauray. This Morenvilliers chain of hills was regarded by all French soldiers who had ever been in the section as virtually impregnable and its capture caused the liveliest satisfaction to everybody. The 75s followed up the infantry rapidly and were soon in action. They caught large bodies of the enemy massing with the object of making a diversion and decimated them. According to onlookers such carnage has not been seen since the action of Charny Gap at the beginning of the war.

On the right wing the struggle was equally to the advantage of the French. Auberville, on which the left wing of the Champagne offensive of 1915 broke, fell speedily as well as all

THEORY OF SALUTES IS DISCOUNTED

Boston, April 18.—Reports of heavy gun fire at the entrance of Massachusetts bay sent a thrill along the coast today. Three coast guard stations on Cape Cod successively reported to the navy yard here that they had counted distinct and repeated guns from the north and northeast of the tip of the cape.

It was believed at the navy yard that American vessels were engaged with the enemy. Inside the cape a heavy fog hung over the waters, but outside the weather was calm and a gentle breeze was blowing. No war ship was sighted by the three stations and after 30 minutes the firing ceased.

It was suggested that ships of the allies which are constantly on patrol duty might have come up with friendly warships and salutes exchanged. However, naval men could not understand warships on active duty betraying their location through naval etiquette. They believed there was no saluting unless pre-arranged and of which there was no knowledge at the navy yard.

Subsequent attempts to learn something more definite failed and an explanation of the firing awaited reports from war vessels in the vicinity. Meanwhile steps were taken to meet any emergency. The navy yard had no information except that received from the coast guard stations.

Newspaper correspondents on the cape said reports of gunfire were current, but all of these were traced to the messages received at the navy yard. No citizens at Highland light or other points nearby could be found who heard gunfire. However, the reports were taken very seriously at the navy yard where the feeling was that there had been a battle off the coast.

Stations 32 and 67 reported that at 9:15 a. m. they heard north from the stations about fifteen guns, and after a fifteen-minute interval fifteen more

WARSAW POLES ON MUNITIONS START STRIKE

Copenhagen, April 18.—A strike has broken out among the Polish munition workers in Warsaw, where Germany has been using Polish laborers to help supply the eastern army. Ordinances of the German military government, which are re-published in a Posen Polish paper, threaten those refusing to work with a year's imprisonment or transfer to a prison camp. The governor declares that no releases or favors for Polish prisoners of war will be granted until the strike movement is checked.

Girls of Edison Lamp Works Making Flag of Their Own

Because of the apparent scarcity of American flags and as they want the girl employees of the Edison Lamp works on Holman street, are going to make a flag of their own—just as Betsy Ross did. They have taken up a collection and have purchased the necessary material. Work has already been started. They claim it will be the largest flag in the state. When the work is finished a big flag raising will be held at the plant. The date of the ceremonies has not been decided, but will be announced as soon as the flag is completed.

Flag for Lakeside. A petition will be put in circulation within the next day or two among the residents of Lakeside for the purchase of a pole and community flag to be placed at the entrance to Lakeside, near the east end of the Columbia street bridge. The spot is historic as it was here that the village of Kekkonaga was located which was famous as a camping ground for the Indians. Contributions may be left at any of the business houses in Lakeside. Every Lakesider is asked to donate.

BERLIN'S BIG STRIKE GRAVE

More Than 100,000 Workmen Idle in German Capital.

PROTEST AGAINST SHORTAGE OF FOOD

Strike Has Not Spread to Other Parts of the Empire.

Copenhagen, April 17.—Via London, April 18.—The number of strikers in Berlin is placed even in the semi-official report at 125,000, and distributed, according to the Tagblatt, through machine works, some electrical establishments and part of the munition plants. The latter statement is interesting in view of a dispatch from the official news denying that the munition factories were affected. The Tagblatt says, however, that the great munition industry at Spandau has not been involved.

Reports in all the Berlin newspapers which have arrived here agree that the demonstrators were usually orderly although roughs resorted to occasional window smashing in the Unter den Linden, the Friedrich and Leipziger strasses and other central thoroughfares. Soldiers as well as police were used in cordons thrown about the Unter den Linden and the imperial castle. Great crowds gathered in the neighborhood of the castle during the day, and the temper of the crowd, particularly the women, is described as very bitter. The strikers denounced the farmers, the wholesalers and the government in equal measure for responsibility for the food situation. Even socialist leaders who opposed the strike made it evident to the authorities that a further curtailment of rations from any cause could not be borne.

MINERS READY TO LABOR FOR THE COUNTRY

New York, April 18.—Having settled their wage differences the bituminous coal miners and operators of Ohio, western Pennsylvania, Illinois and Indiana will now unite to co-operate with the council of national defense in maintaining the production of coal to meet government requirements. A joint commission for this purpose was appointed by the last conference before it adjourned last night.

The conference, according to a statement by John P. White, international president of the United Mine Workers of America, "set a new mark for the prompt adjustment of relations between employers and employees in a spirit of patriotism and mutual accommodation worthy of good citizens in this time of emergency. The increase in wages agreed upon averages 20 per cent. to 225,000 miners. It is effective from April 15 and will continue in force until March 31, 1918.

ONLY VICTORY CAN PRESERVE THE MONARCHY

Amsterdam, April 18.—Count von Reventlow writing in the Tages Zeitung asserts that victory is necessary if the German monarchy is to endure. He says: "We have long expressed the view that German victory and the German monarchy are mutually dependent. Without a German victory the German monarchy will soon cease to exist."

were heard fired in quick succession. Stations 32 and 68 at 9:30 reported five or six heavy guns, and at 10:20 several more in rapid succession. General direction north. Stations 34 and 70 report three guns in quick succession and firing at intervals since. General direction northeast to north of station. Heard quite plainly at times. The firing apparently came from a point just outside of Massachusetts bay, at the end of Cape Cod.

WASHINGTON GETS REPORT.

Washington, April 18.—A report from a Cape Cod coast guard station forwarded to the navy by the Boston naval district commandant says there was heavy firing this morning at sea north of the station. Heavy guns were heard in rapid succession.

Three coast guard stations in the Cape Cod region joined in the report saying that the firing was heard at 9:41 o'clock this morning. All agreed that the sound indicated the use of heavy guns in rapid succession.

northeast of Soissons, where Gen. Nivelle's troops made their most notable progress. Pushing far north of the Aisne the French completed their occupation of Chivry, east of the canal, and pressed on to Bray-en-Laonnois, which was entered by French patrols. On the Aisne, further west, they occupied the village of Chivonne.

To the east of this region several fortified positions were wrested from the Germans in the neighborhood of Ville-a-Boise, three miles south of Craonne and on the main highway leading northwest of Rheims. Momentarily halting in the Champagne district the French were attacked in the process by the Germans. Three counter attacks were delivered at Mont Carnillet, ten miles southeast of Rheims. All these German reactions were beaten off with heavy losses to the attacking forces.

While the French are delivering their heavy blows in the Aisne-Champagne battle, the British are organizing their forces for a renewal of the struggle in the Arras region. The process of envelopment is being continued about Lens and the similar operation at St. Quentin is progressing.

In their operations northwest of St. Quentin, Gen. Haig's forces last night straitened out their line by an advance of more than a mile, capturing the village of Villers-Guislain and made further progress east of Ephy, toward the St. Quentin-Cambrai railway. Opposite Le Catelet. They also improved their position in the vicinity of Lagnicourt in the Bapaume-Cambrai road, where the Germans made a desperate, but vain attempt to hold after entering it in their attack on a six-mile front last Saturday.

What the Secretary Says. "We have, as you doubtless know," Secretary Lane wrote, "a little more than seven hundred thousand acres of land under our reclamation projects upon which water may be placed this season. The proposed bill is one by which all of the private and public lands upon the reclamation projects can be utilized. This, I hope, can be done in a wholesale way, by the creating of an equipped and mobile organization of farm labor. In every one of our projects—as in every county in the United States—there are considerable bodies of idle tracts. Some of the tracts are lying idle because of lack of farm implements and capital. Our hope is that all of these acres may be impressed immediately into federal service, that to each one project there be organized, at once, a war machine, the business of which it will be to see that all the acres are put to use and that all farm labor acts so far as practical as a unit. Each company in this maintenance corps should have as many gunpowders and harrows and seeders as can be bought or borrowed.

Would Organize Farmers. "Around these implements the farmers should be organized just as they are organized around a field gun and each of these companies should move from field to field until the land allotted to it in the project has been plowed and planted. In this way, with adequate machinery and competent farm men, one man can do the work of twenty or more in a day. The farmers who have been doing their own plowing and planting upon their own farms can, by having such a corps, not only have their own lands cultivated but can bring under cultivation the lands of their neighbors. If the farmers are organized in this way, with proper machinery at their disposal, I can see no need of a shortage in farm labor.

Have Community Tractors. "The well-to-do farmer who has a tractor should see that that tractor is turned into a community machine. By proper organization, farm work can be done just as systematically as the work of road building or trench fighting. We should have at our disposal enough money to pay wages and buy seed. The mass of the farmers in the corps could be kept busy by work by having their own farms cultivated. The men could be moved with their machines from farm to farm in camps, after the western fashion in harvesting time, or they could be brought to and taken from their work when at long distances by automobile. Instead of having the farmers compete with each other for their farm labor and for seed, by this means each project can be organized into a co-operative commonwealth for the purpose of producing the greatest possible amount of food with which to support our own people and help those who are our allies. Such an organization should be maintained throughout the season. Harvesting should be done in the same way.

Right to Use Private Land. "The first step after organization should be the securing of the right to use all such private land as is unused. Compensation for this should be paid on the basis of a percentage of the yield, whatever the standard for such return in the neighborhood may be. Each man might bear upon his arm some evidence of the public work that he is engaged in, perhaps, a ribbon on which was printed United States maintenance corps.

"Your bill represents the beginning of a campaign against the holding of lands out of use. With a little money and enterprise this campaign can be made effective, not only against idle lands of our reclamation projects, but as against the idle lands in the country."

War Fund Is Ready Today

advice of leading financiers of the country regarding the best means of floating the issue and to that end has invited suggestions from members of the advisory council of the federal reserve board.

After seven hours of discussion the administration measure, which was passed by the house last Saturday and which provides for a loan to the allies of $3,000,000,000, was approved by the senate with a few changes in recodification.

In either event the executive branch of the government conducting the war with Germany will, within a few hours, have authorization for the great war chest at its disposition. To expedite action, the senate last night appointed conferees to act if the house should not, contrary to expectations, accept the senate changes.

War Opponents Vote "Aye." Of the eighty-four senators present every one, including all those who voted against the measure, voted "Aye" for Oregon, who was absent because of illness, recorded themselves in favor of providing the funds to prosecute hostilities. Nearly all of the twelve absentees were ill.

That in the inability of the nation to supply men at once for the fighting lines, money should be America's immediate contribution to the allies was the dominant thought expressed during the debate. Few senators participated in the discussion, which was totally devoid of partisan expression. Every senator speaking announced staunch intention to aid the government in prosecuting the war to speedy conclusion. Only two, Borah and Cummings, declared opposition to the proposed allies loan. A few favored raising a larger proportion by taxation of the present generation and less upon bonds.

Amendments by Senate. Amendments adopted by the senate include provisions: Limiting deposits of proceeds from the bonds in banks to the amount subscribed by the banks and their depositors; permitting deposit of proceeds in state banks and trust companies; providing for exchange by subscribers of the issues authorized for bonds subsequently issued, during the war at higher interest rates; requiring the secretary of the treasury to report expenditures of the bond proceeds, December 31, and annually thereafter; and exempting the $2,000,000,000 of treasury indebitment certificates authorized from all taxation, except estate and inheritance levies.

By mistake it was first announced that eighty-three senators had voted for the bill. A corrected tally showed the vote eighty-four with, as the vice president announced, the nays being nary.

the surrounding works. The French made especially good progress north of Aubert.

In the section east of Vaudein-court, hill 112 was stormed, as well as a small wood east of the hill which was a regular nest of German machine guns. At certain points the advance was close up to four miles in depth.

Break Up Hindenburg Plans. The latest news reaching Paris says the battle continued well into the night, the Germans counter-attacking without success and the French reconstructing the trench systems under the cover of their artillery.

According to information from a reliable source, the double offensive of the French north of Arras and of the French on the Aisne disarranged the German plans. Field Marshal von Hindenburg, it is declared, was preparing an offensive against Riga and another against Italy, while on the western front he was considering an attempt at Calais on the one hand and on Paris on the other. The allied western offensive spoiled all this by obliging him to bring back a large part of the effective intended for the Russian and Italian fronts.

GERMAN OFFICIAL REPORT.

Berlin, April 18.—Via London.—The number of prisoners taken by the Germans on the French battle front yesterday, according to the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters staff was increased to more than 3,000 officers and men.

French attacks in the Champagne yesterday over a twelve mile front, the German statement adds, were prevented from piercing the Toulon lines by the German harriding positions. Part of the wood between Moronvillers and Auberville was wrested from French colored divisions which had reached there. During the fighting on April 16 twenty-six of the numerous French armored motor cars were destroyed.

German forces in Macedonia, the German official statement says, drove the French from positions one kilometre wide on the Cerova Stepa, which were captured by the French last March.

In the Aisne region, the statement says, yesterday was comparatively quiet except on Baubine ridge, on the Craonne heights, and northwest of Ville-a-Bois, where French attacks made by infantry in waves were repulsed. In the Arras sector the artillery fighting again increased at some points.

food commissioner, Michaelis, yesterday. They were given an assurance in regard to food which it is hoped will induce the workmen to abandon the strike.

The Vorwarts, alone of the big Berlin papers, ventured this morning to comment editorially on the strike. It said that the demonstration was based not only on the food situation and the demand that internal reforms be no longer delayed, but also on the deep longing of the people for peace.

While claiming that the peace sentiment has had a decisive role in the move, the Vorwarts argued that the strike cannot be regarded as anti-governmental since the Austrian and German declarations justify the hope that the policy of the central powers is now on a path which will soon lead to peace.

The paper laments the fact that the demonstration will have exactly the opposite effect probably from that desired by encouraging Germany's opponents to continue the war and diminishing the output of munitions. It also regrets that among other excesses a crowd gathered in front of the vacant British embassy, yelling and cat-calling.

No reports of a strike movement in labor centers outside Berlin have been received as yet. A Kiel dispatch says that the radical anti-war party got control of the greater Kiel socialist assembly and passed resolutions against voting war credits. Another sidelight comes from Munich, where a woman teacher was put on trial for "pacifist intrigues." She was acquitted on the ground that she was demoted from overstrain.

SAY WORK IS RESUMED.

London, April 18.—(1:35 p. m.)—A Berlin dispatch to the Politiken at Copenhagen as forwarded to the Exchange Telegraph company, says that work has been resumed in most of the Berlin factories.

The Vossische Zeitung of Berlin says that as conditions of returning to work, the strikers demanded a sufficient supply of bread and potatoes, proper distribution of food and a guarantee of the promised Prussian electoral reform.

A Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam says it is reported there from Berlin that the list of the strikers have resumed work.

sent to no compromise because the war department experts after careful examination and discussion, had decided that selective conscription was the only effective way of raising a strong army.

Will Push Measure. The administration expects the army bill to be made the unfinished business of the senate so that it can be pushed to passage promptly. Then with the prestige of having passed the senate, the measure is expected to receive more prompt and favorable consideration in the house. The president was assured that the majority of the republicans in the house were supporting his plans.

The vote in the house committee threw the situation into confusion. The opponents of a straight conscription plan immediately began to draft amendments in the hope of getting the conscription element to join in a united vote.

Chairman Dent and Representatives Field, Shallenbaker, Anthony, Caldwell and Hull, of Iowa, conferred over a plan to use conscription after a call for volunteers apportioned among the states to be officered in the same way as proposed in the administration bill.

Sensors who voted for the McKellar amendment were Reed, Kirby, Thomas, Hitchcock and McKellar, democrats, and New and Sutherland, republicans. Senators on the committee said the war department estimates that if the measure passes the first 500,000 men will be in training camps by August 1.

For Volunteers. The house committee's system was a straight out decision for the principle of a volunteer system first of all, applying both as to filling up the ranks of the regular army, the national guard and the raising of the new army.

But when the volunteer system fails to provide sufficient numbers of men the president would have authority to resort at once to selective conscription. Chairman Dent made this statement: "The committee agreed to put in the bill provisions for a call for 500,000 volunteers for a call for 500,000 volunteers in the first instance and for 500,000 more than the president wants, the number in each case contemplated in the administration bill for conscription."

"The committee has not yet fixed the military age, but it probably will be between 21 and 40, instead of 19 to 25, contemplated in the administration measure. The president is authorized to proceed with the enrollment of registration of men between the military ages immediately and on the completion of that enrollment and registration the president is authorized to decide which he will proceed with, the volunteer or draft system. But meanwhile the volunteer system will have been in operation and the volunteers will be coming into the service in large numbers. Of course on the final analysis, after the volunteer plan has been in operation and the machinery of registration and enrollment completed, the president would decide as to the respective two plans."

The provision as drawn was later formally adopted by the committee by a vote of 13 to 8.

Detail of Volunteer Plan. The volunteer provision agreed to in principle by the vote of 12 to 8 is as follows:

"That the president be and he is hereby authorized to call for 500,000 volunteers under and in accordance with the act of congress, approved April 25th, 1914. (The army reorganization act) x x x x x

"That in the event it becomes necessary to raise an additional force of 500,000 men x x x x x the president be and he is hereby authorized to call such additional force by volunteers in the same manner. Such volunteer army shall be apportioned among the various states and territories and the District of Columbia, according to population, raised in regimental units or parts thereof x x x

"Provided that such volunteer forces shall be recruited in local units as far as practical and company officers may be appointed from such units upon passing such reasonable and practical examinations as to fitness as the president may direct."

"And provided further that upon the completion of the enrollment as provided in this act, and in the event the president decides that such additional force or forces cannot be effectively raised and maintained, he and he is hereby authorized to raise and organize the same by the selective draft as herein provided."

CONDITIONS ON RUSSIAN FRONT MUCH IMPROVED

London, April 18.—A Petrograd dispatch says that Premier Lvoff and some of the other ministers who have been visiting army headquarters reported on their return that conditions at the front had considerably improved, especially in regard to the supply of the principal food products. They say that food and transportation conditions are satisfactory. Premier Lvoff declared in an interview that the unrest which the army had showed during the first stage of the revolution had completely disappeared. He said that the fighting spirit was increasing daily, that the troops were encountering the enemy and were confident of the outcome.

Of Cleveland. He guarantees a Simple Home Treatment Given Without the Knowledge of the Drinker.

Cleveland, O.—No wife has a right to let her husband drink for alcohol is a disease and a drunkard is a sick man, says Druggist Brown of Cleveland. A woman can cure this disease—stop a drinking husband in a few weeks for half what he would spend on liquor in the same time. The habit can be broken and the disease cured. Thousands of cases prove it and every community has its reformed drunkard. Druggist Brown says the right time to stop the drink habit is at its beginning. Left to run its course it will deaden the fine sensibilities of the man you love. Begin with the first whiff of liquor on his breath but do not despair if he has already gone from bad to worse until he has become a run-around sot. Druggist Brown knows the curse of strong drink for he himself has been a victim. A loving sister, without his knowledge or consent, rescued him from the brink of a drunkard's grave and for ten years kept her secret. She saved him from drink—rescued him from his own depraved, besotted self by giving him a secret remedy, the formula of an old German chemist. To pay his debt to her and to help other victims out of the muck and mire he has made the formula public. Druggists everywhere dispense it daily as Prepared Tescum Powders, put up in doses. Get it of your own druggist and drop a powder twice a day in tea, coffee, milk or other drink. Soon liquor does not taste the same, the craving for it disappears, and in one more drunkard has been saved and knows not when or why he lost his taste for drink.

Warning Note: Tescum should be given only where it is desirable to destroy all taste for alcohol and all pleasure in its use. Those who encourage moderate drinking should not give it until the so-called moderate drinker reaches the danger line, as most of them do in time. Druggist Brown has such confidence in prepared Tescum Powders that he personally guarantees results or he will refund out of his own pocket the price charged by the dispensing druggist. It is dispensed in Ft. Wayne by Dr. Dierlough Co., Meyer Bros. and other druggists.

Uric Acid Poisoning!

OLD-TIME REMEDY MAKES BLOOD PURE.

The most eminent physicians recognize that uric acid stored up in the system is the cause of rheumatism, that this uric acid poison is present in the joints, muscles or nerves. By experimenting and analysis at the Invalid Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce discovered a combination of native remedies that he called Anuric—which drives out the uric acid from the system, and in this way the pain, swelling and inflammation subside. If you are a sufferer from rheumatism, backache, pains here or there, you can obtain Anuric at any drug store and get relief from the pain and ills brought about by uric acid; or send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial package Anuric, which you will find many times more potent than lithia, and eliminates uric acid almost as hot water melts sugar. A short trial will convince you.

Anuric is a regular insurance and life-saver for all big meat eaters and those who deposit lime-salts in their joints.

Elkhart, Ind.—"When I was a girl just coming into womanhood I suffered greatly. I became weak and nervous, in fact, all run-down in health. In addition to this I had a breaking-out all over my body. At times it would not like eczema and then again it seemed that it was scrofula. I could not get anything that did me any good until my mother began giving me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his Golden Medical Discovery. They proved to be just what I needed as I have never had any more womanly trouble, and they also cured me of the breaking-out on my body. I cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Pierce's medicine."—Mrs. Geo. Flenner, 403 East Jackson St.—Advertisement.

LARGEST AMERICAN FLAG SWUNG TO THE BREEZES IN SAN FRANCISCO.

MARKET STREET, San Francisco's famous thoroughfare, was crowded for blocks with thousands of wildly cheering patriots during a formal ceremony in which the largest American flag ever made was swung to the breezes. The enthusiastic demonstration of loyalty to Old Glory followed the president's war message.

Regular soldiers, sailors from the naval training station at Goat Island, United States marines and national guardsmen formed a hollow square. At the last note of the national anthem, played by a military band, the emblem was unfurled. The troops presented arms and the crowd cheered for five minutes.

The flag is 130 feet long and 75 feet wide. Each stripe is 5 1/2 feet wide and the diameter of each star is 30 inches. The flag weighs 300 pounds. Flags and the national colors are now waving in all Pacific coast cities.

Council Joins in General Misunderstanding on Tax Levy.

President of the Council William Bayer and Councilman Gene Smith won the admiration of their fellows in the glowing tributes they paid to the Stars and Stripes, at the opening of the council gathering, which met as a committee of the whole, Tuesday evening. Later on those two men engaged to the consternation of their brothers by waging a heated word skirmish, which brought half a dozen councilmen to their feet to interpose objections.

President Bayer opened the committee session by a brief address on "The Meaning of the Flag." He said that it stands for liberty and against oppression and for democracy as opposed to autocracy.

Councilman Smith was called upon to deliver a talk on "Old Glory." Smith was a civil war veteran. His voice broke and tears sprang to his eyes at the point where he spoke of the effort the union soldiers made in '61 to keep the flag tattered.

"We were young boys then," said Smith and his voice died away in pathetic silence. "We never let the old flag touch the dust. May the young lads who bear that beloved standard into this world conflict bring it back to us with added glory to its holy name."

Council members were asked to rise and salute the large flag, which had been placed over the president's platform and to join in singing "America." The brief ceremony was an impressive one. The council chamber had been literally garbed in flags. Small ensigns hung from the chandeliers and two large banners were across the desks of the secretary and the police captain.

Defer Tax Levy Action.

Action on the resolution to make special assessment on $16,000,000 worth of property for raising money for paving street intersections was deferred for two weeks when the council will meet again as a committee of the whole.

When President Bayer said that members of the Real Estate Exchange were present and would probably like to speak Councilman Smith arose and addressed the chair. He said that while he could not combat the oratory of the city attorney and members of the real estate organization he wanted to voice a protest against the project to pave fifty more streets in Fort Wayne. He pointed out the fact that the board of works has a coliseum to build this summer besides trying to oversee street paving.

Bayer announced that it had always been the policy of the council to give all visitors a chance to speak when they desired. Smith thought the remark was addressed to him. The veteran councilman arose and shook his fist at the presiding official.

"You can't belittle me," Smith shouted. "I will not stand for it. I will not allow you to read me a lecture."

Bayer retorted, and while both men were trying to speak several councilmen arose and called for order.

Councilman Mills and John Wessel, jr., manager and secretary of the city light department, engaged in a lively tilt when Mills moved that $15,000 be taken from the light department and placed in the street paving fund. Wessel showed by a majority the need of new equipment, that the light department needed all its money.

Robert Kelly, chairman of the board of works, read a list of the streets for which paving petitions had been filed. City Attorney Colerick explained at length the system by which money might be raised. He said the tax would be placed upon land value and would benefit those who would have to pay the tax. It would not burden the poor man with added tax, he said.

Councilman Korte asked that the proposition of an extra levy be explained to the people in a series of ward meetings. It was decided to defer action for two weeks.

About Rheumatism.

Do you know that more than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply muscular rheumatism due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism which attacks the larger joints, knees, hips and shoulders. Neither of these varieties require any internal treatment. All you need is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment with vigorous massage to effect a cure. Try it.—Advertisement.

HOAGLAND NEWS.

Hoagland, Ind., April 18.—Miss Lydia Ruhl entertained at her home Saturday evening the following young people: Frances Emenhiser, Vera Emrick, Madeline Havice, Lydia Gressley, Lewis Corville, George Corville, Foster Stout, Allen Emrick, Corville Carrier and Joe Carrier, the occasion being her fifteenth birthday.

WOMEN SHOULD GET THIS HABIT AS WELL AS MEN

Don't eat bite of breakfast until you drink glass of hot water.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous, and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, ruddy complexion and freedom from ill-humors are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-checked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of Limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet

Spend 25 cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy and thick in few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scour robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Advertisement.

Spend 25 cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy and thick in few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scour robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Advertisement.

MONROEVILLE NEWS.

Monroeville, Ind., April 18.—A pleasing neighborhood gathering was held at the home of Jonathan Hart, near Monroeville, last Sunday. The occasion was Mr. Hart's 80th birthday anniversary, and a number of friends, besides relatives, spent the day with him and enjoyed a splendid feed at noon time. Jonathan Hart was born in Ashland county, Ohio, and came to Indiana in 1849, and has resided on his present farm for forty-three years. Besides Mr. Hart and his wife the following relatives and friends were present: Mr. and Mrs. John Hart, of Convoys; Wm. Hart, Rev. SEEMS EVERYONE HEARD ABOUT IT

All want to try new drug that dries up corns so they lift out.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freestone, the recent discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

A quarter of an ounce costs very little at any pharmacy, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.—Advertisement.

NEW HAVEN NEWS.

New Haven, Ind., April 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas and children, Harriet and Gladys, spent Sunday with Mrs. Thomas' sister, Mrs. Grover Roger, and family near Woodburn.

The marriage of Miss Hattie McLaughlin to George Hoke took place Tuesday evening at Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sturms and family have moved into the Certia property west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ladig and Misses Hattie and Edna Wolfe spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dennis, of Fort Wayne.

Ronald Sipes, from west of town, is in a serious condition at the Lutheran hospital at Fort Wayne suffering from appendicitis.

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

Matt. 14:1-11.

1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,
2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.
3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias's sake, his brother Philip's wife.
4 For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.
5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.
6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herode-sias danced before them, and pleased Herod.
7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever
she would ask.
8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me
here John Baptist's head in a charger.
9 And the king was sorry; nevertheless for the oath's sake, and
them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.
10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.
11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

A Bed-Rock Fact for Everybody.

Underlying the great national movement for greater food production is one bed-rock fact that everybody should understand and appreciate.

The production of more food will be no hardship. It will not add to, but on the contrary will lighten, the burden that weighs against
the pockets of all who lend their efforts to this great movement to strengthen the military position of the government and the economic situation of the country.

It likewise will be money in the pockets of the whole people, for the more food there is the lower will be the cost of living to all. Those who do not work to produce food will share in this benefit almost equally with those who do—the difference being merely that those who do work will have what they produce at the bare cost of production in initial expenditure and the labor applied.

Those who do not work will be benefited greatly by the toil of those who devote themselves to the national cause. There are many,
of course, who for one reason or another will be denied any opportunity to engage in food production even upon the narrowest scale.
Workers in many lines can render greater service to their country in
millions of people who can add something to the nation's store of food
—men and women who never have done anything of the sort because never before have they been brought face to face with any necessities of the kind.

There ought to be no slackers in this national service any more than there should be slackers in military service. All who can add something to the measures of relief against a shortage of food owe it to themselves just as they owe it to their country to do what they can.
And these should keep in mind the bed-rock fact that here is a great opportunity for service—essentially patriotic service—that lays no tribute upon them. It will cost them nothing but a little time devoted each day to a labor that all will be much the better in every way for having done.

Fort Wayne offers many advantages to the people here who are willing to assist the movement for more food. In the city's environs are many acres of unused land that can be made highly productive.
There are thousands of homes owned by the persons who occupy them where profitable kitchen gardens can be cultivated. The employment of all this ground for the growing of food can have only a good re-
list in this branch of the nation's service. Thousands more ought to enlist.

Now Give Us an Army.

With little delay attended by a minimum of talk and no disposition anywhere manifest to withhold support, congress has voted to the government war credits of seven billions. No other nation in history has ever poured into the capacious maw of war at one time a sum equal to this. It is notice to America's foes and to all the world, beside that this nation is able and ready to employ without stint its vast resources of wealth for the country's defense and the advancement of democracy. Congress has acquitted itself admirably.

Now if congress will perform with equal credit to itself in making it possible for the nation to employ its vast man power for the national defense, America's part in this war will be borne with credit and honor.
The United States cannot fight without fighting-men. We must have an army. That army must be large, it must be trained, it must be equipped, it must be amenable to service anywhere on the earth that it can best advance the military interests of the government.

In every war in which this nation has been engaged the volunteer system has broken down. It is breaking down in this war. Volunteer enlistments are far below the requirements to bring the regulars and the national guards up to war strength. The law must make an adequate army a surety. The law must impose the duty that too many are ready if left to themselves to slack. The thing cannot help being clear to the great majority in congress. Theoretical views and academic

The Ride of Paul Revere

Today is the one hundred and forty-second anniversary of the ride of Paul Revere and here is Henry W. Longfellow's poem describing that famous event of our early history:

Listen, my children, and you shall hear
Of the midnight ride of Paul Revere,
On the eighteenth of April, in Seventy-five:
Hardly a man is now alive
Who remembers that famous day and year.

march
By land or sea from the town tonight,
Hang a lantern aloft in the belfry
Of the North church tower, as a signal light,—
One if by land, and two if by sea;
And I on the opposite shore will be,
Ready to ride and spread the alarm
Through every Middlesex village and farm,
For the country-folk to be up and to arm."

Then he said good-night, and with muffled oar
Silently row'd to the Charlestown shore,
Just as the moon rose over the bay,
Where swinging wide at her moorings lay
The Somerset, British man-of-war:
A phantom ship, with each mast and spar
Across the moon, like a prison-bar,
And a huge, black hulk, that was magnified
By its own reflection in the tide.

Meanwhile his friend, through alley and street
Wanders and watches with eager ears,
Till in the silence around him he hears
The muster of men at the barrack-
door,
The sound of arms, and the tramp of feet,
And the measured tread of the gren-
adiers
Marching down to their boats on the shore.

Then he climb'd to the tower of the church,
Up the wooden stairs, with stealthy
tread,
To the belfry-chamber overhead,
And startled the pigeons from their perch
On the sombre rafters, that round him made
Masses and moving shapes of shade;
Up the light ladder, slender and tall,
To the highest window in the wall,
Where he paused to listen and look down
A moment on the roofs of the quiet town,
And the moonlight flowing over all.

Meanwhile, impatient to mount and ride, Booted and spurred, with a heavy stride,
On the opposite shore walk'd Paul Revere,
Now he patted his horse's side,
Now gaz'd on the landscape far and near,
Then impetuous stamp'd the earth,

And turn'd and tight'n'd his saddle-
girth:
But mostly he watch'd with eager search
The belfry-tower of the Old North church,
As it rose above the graves on the hill, Lonely, and spectral, and sombre, and still.
And, lo! as he looks, on the belfry's height,
A glimmer, and then a gleam of light!
He springs to the saddle, the bridle
he turns,
But lingers and gazes, till full on his sight
A second lamp in the belfry burn!
A hurry of hoofs in a village street,
A shape in the moonlight, a bulk in the dark,
And beneath from the pebbles, in passage,
A spark
Struck out by the steed that flies fearless and fast:
That was all! And yet, through the gloom and the light
The fate of a nation was riding that night;
And the spark struck out by that steed, in his flight, Kindled the land into flame with its heat.

He heard the beating of the flock,
And the twitter of birds among the trees,
And felt the breath of the morning breeze
Blowing over the meadows brown.

policies do not count. It is a condition that confronts the nation and that condition is war—actual and terrible war.

Pacifism may be tolerable in the piping times of peace, but there is no peace. This nation is plunged into the greatest conflict of all time. We cannot serve alone with our money. We must serve also with our men.

MAKING A CONSTITUTION

JOHN A. LAPP,
Director of the Indiana Bureau of Legislative Information.

THE SUFFRAGE—CITIZENSHIP.
(Copyright 1917 by John A. Lapp.)

The conduct of affairs in this country is determined by the majority of those of our people who have been given the right to vote. The majority rules, and if one candidate receives one more vote than another he is elected and the minority must abide by the decision. So strongly is the idea of majority rule fixed among our people that the result of an election is accepted peacefully unless there is evidence of gross fraud.

But how is the voting population determined? Who gives the privilege to vote to certain people and keeps the privilege from others? The privilege is conferred by the people themselves in their constitution and theoretically at least the people single out that part of the population which is best fitted to exercise the suffrage and confer the privilege upon them. Some are excluded expressly because they are not deemed fit.

If we could imagine all the people of the state assembled together we would probably find them reasoning on the question "who should vote?"
about like this: "They would agree that insane, and otherwise demented people should not vote because they would not be responsible. They would next exclude criminals because they are not fit voters if they willingly break the laws. They would exclude children because they would be immature in judgment. They would exclude paupers who are supported at public expense because they are wards of the state. They might exclude other classes who were deemed to be too ignorant because of their education and they might go so far as to exclude women as they did in most states. These would be left then the men who are not of any of the classes excluded. They would expect these men to be citizens of the country because it would be no business of a man to take part in governing a state of which he was not a citizen.

The duty of the history of suffrage brings us to the same point but the result was not accomplished by general agreement of all the people of a state. We got our suffrage institution from England. In the beginning the king controlled. He gave the people no part in government. Then suffrage was extended to selected classes of men. Gradually the vote was granted to more and more classes of men until universal manhood suffrage prevailed. When the colonies became independent they extended the suffrage, some adopting full manhood suffrage and others restricting it by religious tests, property tests and educational tests. Step by step these restrictions have been removed and the suffrage widened. Today the women vote in nearly every state for some of the offices and upon some questions. In eleven states they vote on the same elections as men and in two states, Indiana and Illinois, they vote for the larger part of the officers but not all.

Probably we have now reached the limit of suffrage grants. There are no more classes to be enfranchised and the century long struggle is about to be closed by the complete enfranchisement of women. In the age limitation we shall not lower the age limitation to vote to any of the defective classes now excluded. We have in Indiana permitted foreigners who have declared their intentions to become citizens to vote. That is, the extreme limit of liberality which we shall doubtless want to restrict rather than enlarge. So we have completed the enfranchisement of the race so far as it is possible to go and that chapter will be closed in Indiana when full suffrage is granted to women. Perhaps we should make some restrictions but that matter will be discussed later on.

The conditions of full suffrage in Indiana are these:

1. Sex—A voter must be a male citizen or a male foreigner who has declared his intentions.
2. Age—Every voter must be at least 21 years of age.
3. Residence—Every voter must have resided in the state six months and in the township sixty days and in the ward or precinct thirty days. Foreigners must, in addition, have resided in the United States one year.
4. Registration—Every voter must be registered according to law. At present the law requires him to register at the office of the board of registration at the court house of his county at least twenty-nine days before election. He may go in person and be registered or send his sworn statement to the board. The registration offices are open every day for six months before a regular election. For the special constitutional convention election the registration office is open from June 20 to August 19 of this year.
5. Exclusions—Any person who fights a duel, challenges for a duel or carries a challenge may not vote.
The legislature may deprive persons convicted of crime of the right to vote. Such laws have been passed.

These provisions for voting are fixed by the constitution and can not be changed except by changing the constitution. They are rights which are conferred upon the voters and may not be taken away. To safeguard themselves against arbitrary interference in the exercise of their rights the constitution declares that electors shall be free from arrest during their attendance there, and returning from the same "except in cases of murder, treason, or breach of the peace."

From the experience under the suffrage provisions the following proposals for changes have been made:

1. Limit the right of suffrage to citizens of the United States instead of permitting a foreigner to vote who has merely declared his intentions. This would deprive about 50,000 foreigners at present of their right to vote.
2. Make it optional to have registration only in places where it is needed. It is argued with truth that registration is not needed in rural communities where every one knows every one else and that it is needed in population centers where voters are voted fraudulently under fictitious names. At present it is claimed that the same kind of regulation must be had everywhere in the state regardless of the need.
3. Give full suffrage to women.
4. Establish an educational test.
5. Require the payment of a poll tax, or other tax as a prerequisite for voting.

These subjects will be discussed in the two next chapters. There still remains to be discussed in this chapter an important matter of naturalization because upon it depends the voting rights of our foreign population.
At present we require the declaration of intentions to become a citizen. This declaration may be made by any white person or any African but not by a Mongolian. This declaration is filed in the office of the clerk of any state court of record or any federal court where the applicant lives and must state the name, age, occupation, time and place of arrival in the United States and must declare that the applicant expects to become a citizen.
An applicant must be at least 18 years of age. Honorable discharge from the United States army or navy takes the place of a declaration. The widow and minor children of a man who has declared his intentions need not afterwards make such a declaration to become citizens. In Indiana this declaration gives the alien the right to vote if he has resided in the United States one year and has the requirements for voting required of citizens. Non-white to vote the alien need not overcome a citizen. After declaring his intentions he may vote forever in this state.

And the Orchestra is Busy orchestrating
Love music, Shivery music,
Villain music,

Or movie music—
Oh don't you
Just love it,
To have Some wolf
In back of You keep Time to the

And wouldn't You feel very Sorry for him
If a customer
About 218

And in doing
So, anchored
His 218 pounds Down on your

So would we?

Be Cheerful.

It is not so easy to be cheerful when one is ill. We may, however, seek the cause of our despondency and perhaps remove it. When it is caused by indigestion the case, Chamberlain's Tablets may be depended upon to correct it in almost every instance.—Advertisement.

An Inside Bath Makes You Look and Feel Fresh

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate, before breakfast keeps illness away.

This excellent, common-sense health measure being adopted by millions.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath claiming this of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the elimina-tory organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.—Advertisement.

OLD GLORY FLOATS ON GERMAN SHIPS—FOUR VESSELS SEIZED IN PACIFIC PORT.

German ships seized by United States government in San Francisco harbor. At left, bluejackets cheering as Old Glory floats at masthead of German liner Serapis, the largest vessel taken in the west. Uncle Sam's jacks of the boarding parties were delighted at a chance for a little action after the tense period of waiting for war. At right, German bark Ottawa being towed to Yerba Buena Island in San Francisco bay. Above, the Serapis being towed to anchorage. These two vessels and two small schooners will be guarded by a torpedo boat destroyer from the naval station on the island. Although officers of the Serapis pledged their word that the vessel would not be molested, boarding crews found that the ship's machinery had been seriously damaged. Crews and officers of the seized ships were interned on Angel Island, in San Francisco bay, where the government immigration station is located.

"BUNCH OF RUBES" TO HAVE 1920 CANDIDATE

Nonpartisan League of North Dakota Farmers Sweeping West.

(Editor's Note: Oliver S. Morris, the writer of this article, is editor of The Nonpartisan Leader, official magazine of the great farmers' movement of the middle states. Identified with this important crusade for better government for all the people, he is in a position to speak with authority as to its meaning and aspirations.)

(By Oliver S. Morris.)
Fargo, N. D., April 18.—A political movement started "by a bunch of rubes" in North Dakota now bids fair to have a presidential candidate in the field in 1920 and capture the electoral vote of eight or ten states.

When the Nonpartisan league of farmers was organized in North Dakota in 1915 it was looked upon as a boob movement. Now the league is in control of the government of this state and is rapidly and successfully organizing South Dakota, Minnesota and Montana, from national headquarters which were moved to St. Paul several months ago.

The league is "going" in these three states even better than it went in North Dakota. It has nearly 100,000 members, over half of whom are outside of North Dakota.

It is the intention of these farmers to elect candidates endorsed by them in all these states in the 1918 state elections. Other states are clamoring to have the league establish branches and take up the work of organization. Notable examples are Wisconsin, where a convention of farmers recently declared for the organization of a Nonpartisan league, and Idaho, where the State Federation of Agriculture invited the league's national headquarters to establish a branch.

If the league does carry the three other states as well as North Dakota in 1918, there is no question but that it will "take on" a few more states for the 1920 campaign. This will mean that it will put a presidential candidate in the field, with government ownership of railroads, telephones and telegraphs as a platform.

Elderly People Praise Cadomene For Nervous Ill-Health.

Elderly People Praise Cadomene
Sept. 23, 1916.
Dear Sir:—I just bought another tube of Cadomene Tablets. My wife and I have used one tube and we find them as you mean that it will put a presidential candidate in the field, with government ownership of railroads, telephones and telegraphs as a platform.

Note.—Cadomene Tablets are undoubtedly a nerve and system tonic of unquestioned merit. Sold by all leading druggists everywhere. Persons who have been benefited by Cadomene owe it to others to write the proprietors their testimony.

and the chance of becoming the strongest "third party" the country has ever seen.

I am often asked: "What is this movement and what does it want?" I find people throughout the country watching it and wondering at its success.

The Nonpartisan league is a people's organization, the backbone of which is the producer—the farmer and the working people. It seeks a bigger and better life for the common people by using the ballot box first and reform in economic abuses through control of legislatures and eventually of congress. Its slogan is, "Let the people rule."

The league has a specific program. Its principal planks relate to the marketing of food products. It believes that a horde of middlemen and "handlers" under the present commercial system and business practices exact unjust toll on the products of the soil between the producer and consumer. It seeks, by government ownership and control of the marketing machinery, to assure more returns to those who actually produce the food-stuffs, and at the same time to make these things cheaper to the consumers.

In North Dakota it is putting in effect a program of state ownership and operation of terminal grain elevators, warehouses and cold storage plants. The specific program in other states will be adapted to the peculiar conditions existing in those states.

The league stands for the ownership and operation by the people of all public utilities—in the cities, water, light and gas plants and street railroads; in the states, terminal marketing facilities, insurance and other utilities of state-wide scope; in the nation, of railroads, telegraphs and telephones.

But the aspirations of the members of the league are not all set down in the written program. In the states now being organized all the progressive forces are rallying around the league's banner. The people see in the movement a chance to cleanse politics, to elect men of the people to office and wipe out the control by "invisible government," to relegate the professional politician to the scrap heap.

The league is financed by its members. It accepts no campaign funds or aid of any kind from anybody except its own members.

League members meet in precinct, county and state conventions and choose men they can trust for office, regardless of party considerations. The members then see that they are nominated under the laws of the state on the tickets of the parties to which they belong, whether republican, democrat or socialist, and all league members support them.

The league is meeting tremendous opposition everywhere and it has to fight every step of the way. But it thrives on opposition. When it puts on its presidential campaign in 1920 it will be some campaign.

SOCIETY

The members of the To-Kalon club and their invited friends, numbering in all about one hundred and twenty young people, enjoyed a dancing party at Elks' hall last evening. The hall presented a gay sight with the many flags used in decorating it and the stage was decorated with potted plants, palms and flags. An orchestra furnished music and dancing lasted until 1 o'clock.

Mrs. John Eckrich, of Broadway, gave an unusually beautiful party on Tuesday evening as a compliment to Miss Mary Eckrich, a bride-elect of May. Mrs. Eckrich was assisted by her sisters, Misses Anita and Mayne Tholen, in giving this party, which included a shower of gifts for the coming bride. The supper table was laid in a handsome cluny lace luncheon set. Pink and green candles, bride roses as favors, dainty fan-shaped place cards hand painted and flowers all combined in making the table exceedingly attractive. Miss Eckrich received several rings as gifts. The guests were special friends of Miss Eckrich and included Misses Esther and Helen Tholen, Loretta, Bernadette and Helen Eckrich, Nora Klotz, Vera Nipper, Theresa, Drenup, Catherine Thelen, Mrs. John Polley, Mrs. Cleo Klotz, Mrs. Arthur Harris, Mrs. Didier, Mrs. Edward Wakelem. Bunco was the amusement.

A patriotic entertainment of the members of a card club to which she belongs was Mrs. James Van Camp's luncheon-bridge at the Randall hotel, on Tuesday. Flags decorated the table, tiny silk ones covered the nut baskets and small flags decorated the dessert course. Covers were laid for sixteen and after the luncheon auction was played in the hotel parlor.

Miss Frieda Kaede surprised the members of the C. G. club when she entertained them at her home in Swinney avenue, on Tuesday evening by announcing that her wedding to A. J. Rose, of Toledo, O., would take place on April 25. The company served for Miss Kaede and enjoyed her hospitality. Participating in this pleasant affair were Miss Ruth Hanson, Miss Edith Kaede, Miss Lois Koppenhoefer, Miss Edith Lindenberg, Miss Florence Lindenberg, Miss Marie Reuber and Miss Zella Wagner.

Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Wyneken have returned from a visit in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Fisher are at French Lick Springs for a ten days' stay.

Hon. and Mrs. E. G. Hoffman are taking a few days' outing at French Lick Springs.

Mrs. Robert Millard has gone to Indianapolis to attend a party to be given in her honor.

Mrs. Frank L. Brown has gone to Bridgeport, N. J., for a visit with a sister of Mr. Brown.

Michigan university students of this city have returned to their work after a ten days' holiday at their homes here.

A pre-nuptial party to honor Miss Irene Woebeking will be given on Thursday evening by Mrs. Sydney Karp, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Harrod.

Mrs. W. W. Rockhill has returned from visits with her sisters, Mrs. Fred Nichols and family, of Chicago, and Mrs. Charles L. Bamaby, of Grand Rapids.

Emmett Royhans has returned to his studies at Notre Dame university. His guest, Archie Swift, of Shenandoah, Ia., has gone back to his studies in Michigan university.

Mrs. Margaret S. Oids has gone to Chicago to visit her son, James, who is at work there and will later go to Burlington, Ia., for a visit of indefinite length of time with Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Guild.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes, of Rockhill street, are going to Chicago on Thursday to meet Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hughes, of Detroit, and take a month's trip to California together. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hughes live in Detroit.

Mrs. Eugene Trommel and her mother, Mrs. Johanna Schilling, entertained on Tuesday afternoon at a "kaffee" to honor Mrs. August Crull, of Milwaukee, who thus met a few old friends. Mrs. J. F. Meyer, Mrs. C. G. Streider and Mrs. Carl Schiel are to entertain for Mrs. Crull.

Mrs. Harold Wood and child, of New Albany, who came here to attend the wedding of her cousin, James M. Meriwether, left Tuesday evening for Toledo, O., in company with her mother, Mrs. C. M. Dawson, who also made a short visit at the Meriwether home in order to attend the wedding.

Miss Hilda Rohyans presented the following pupils in a piano recital Saturday afternoon: Misses Mary Bell, Mildred Dornte, Vivian Crance, Marjan Spurling, Catherine Fletcher, Violet Hoppel, Helen Nachtegall, Katherine Lynch, Emma Bell, Marjorie King and Elizabeth Cole and Messrs. Edwin Brink, Harold Coovel, Harold Robinson and James King. Miss Clara Strasser, of Washington boulevard east, was pleasantly surprised Sunday evening, when the members of the A. F. F. club and their invited guests formed a merry party in honor of her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in various games and at a late hour a luncheon was enjoyed. Those present were: Misses Roselle Stoll, Claudine Gallagher, Helen Heidenreich, Marie Hartung, Velma Neeb and Miss Clara Strasser, and Messrs. Elmer Strasser, Alfred Mettler, Ray Scone, Walter Krutzer, Edward Martin, Alois Massbaum, Sylvester Strasser and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Elbersson.

WHAT "BABY WEEK" MEANS.

Indiana Federation of Clubs Gives Directions to Mothers.

The Indiana Federation of Clubs, through its president, Mrs. C. R. Fairbank, has issued the following outline for "Baby Week."

Tuesday, May 1, Club Day.

Every club woman should invite a non-club woman to a meeting. Have talks on mental side of the baby; how to entertain children before they reach school age; stories to tell children; proper songs for little children, etc.

Wednesday, May 2, Guild Day.

The day that most of the women's societies meet in the various churches. Have such vital topics discussed as: How can the community better the condition for the babies? Emphasize birth registration; fresh air and sunshine; sanitation in the home, etc.

Thursday, May 3, Mothers' Day.

Invite every mother possible to be present at a meeting. Emphasize the physical care of the child; infant feeding; infant clothing; babies' beds; bathing, etc. If possible, have a nurse give a demonstration on bathing baby.

Friday, May 4, School Day.

Offer a prize for the best essay on "The Care of the Baby," written by one of the school children.

Saturday, May 5, Fathers' Day.

Publish a letter in the local papers to the fathers, and let them feel that they have a part in this campaign. Have a movie house show slides on the care of the baby; have a dentist who is a father talk on the care of the children's teeth; have a doctor who is a father talk on physical welfare of the child; have a teacher who is a father talk on the father's responsibility.

Sunday, May 6, Church Day.

Ask your minister to preach upon "Infant Mortality," "The Slaughter of the Innocents," or any other vital question concerning the child. Invite the mothers to be present at the service.

Patriotic dance, Thursday night. Trier's Minuet.

AT THE PALACE

Jessie Miller Studied the Pacific Island Dances.

Jessie Miller, who, with her talented sister, Miss Mabel, is appearing at the New Palace on the bill that closes this evening, saw a lot of hula hula dancers in this country before she made a trip last fall to the far Pacific islands where she studied at close range the manner in which the real dancers of the islands themselves do this graceful number as well as the pol pol dance. The results of these studies she is exhibiting in her act, executing the hula hula dance in a manner that brings out its superior grace but none of the salacious suggestiveness of the mid-night party interpretation. Miss Miller dances it as the higher type Hawaiian maidens do, instead of as the half world of the islands present the steps.

This bill which closes tonight is one of the refreshing diversions of the entire season. The Cycling McNuts, a novelty bicycle riding act; Fred Holmes and Lulu Wells in the lively little skit, "On the Doorstep"; Grace Emmett, the gifted Irish comedienne, and company in "Mrs. Murphy's Second Husband"; Olive Briscoe, the singing comedienne, and Harrington Reynolds himself and company in the merry girl act, "The Lingerie Shop," are others on the program.

New Bill Tomorrow.

An entirely new bill will be on tomorrow with George Lovett and company in the psychic study, "Concentration," as the headliner. Others include Weber and Elliott; Paul Pedini and the Monk, Billy Link and Blossom

Robinson, one of the standard singing and dancing acts of vaudeville; Sherman, Van and Hyman, a singing trio, and the Menlo Moore revue, "Miss America," a musical military satire.

No Matinee Thursday.

There will be no matinee at the New Palace Thursday. The management closes this house in honor of Lexington day.

At this evening's performance Fred Holmes, of the team of Holmes and Wells, will read a portion of the stirring poem, "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere," in honor of the anniversary of the coming of the Redcoats, preparing them for the battle of Lexington, America's first blow for liberty.

AT THE TEMPLE.

Benefit Will Be Given for Fort Wayne Guard Units.

Frank E. Gallagher, who is presenting his players at the Temple theater, has made a most generous offer to Fort Wayne's three companies that are being recruited, by tendering a benefit that will cover three evening performances, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Tickets will be sold by a committee of young ladies and many of the downtown stores and a liberal portion of the receipts from the sale of these, will be donated to the company fund. When it is understood that Battery D, Battery B and Company E are being recruited without financial aid from Uncle Sam, the funds being supplied by the Fort Wayne Commercial club, public spirited theatergoers will welcome this opportunity to swell a fund that will add to the comfort of the boys while in camp. There are a hundred and one uses for ready money over and above the government allowance, so Mr. Gallagher has opened up a new channel for your spending money to serve a double purpose by entertaining yourself and friends and eventually bringing good cheer to the boys in camp. If nobody happens to ask you to buy a ticket for the performance of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," next Thursday, Friday, or Saturday, look up a store that has them for sale, or else go to one of the recruiting desks in the court house.

Mrs. T. H. Teasure, F. A. Hall and H. H. Achuire were at Fort Wayne Tuesday attending a Methodist missionary meeting, as representative of the local church.

Richard Baxter, who has been very critically ill for several days, is reported a little better today.

Rev. Bourns and several members of his congregation are spending several days at Pierceton, Ind., attending the meeting of the presbytery.

Mrs. Frank Nelson is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. E. C. Culler, of Hicksville.

Mrs. F. W. Hoffman will entertain the Ladies' Reading club this afternoon. Court closed here Saturday and on Monday Judge Dan Link opened court in Steuben county.

IN THE CHURCHES JUBILEE BANQUET IS A DECIDED SUCCESS

Over Two Hundred and Fifty People Attend Missionary Affair.

Two hundred and sixty-eight people were served at the jubilee banquet of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society Tuesday evening. The banquet followed the afternoon meeting of the jubilee and was attended by a crowd unprecedented at a missionary affair in the city.

At the banquet table Mrs. Walters presided as toastmistress and the following people responded: Mrs. N. P. Chandler, Mrs. T. W. Leasure, Mrs. A. H. Backus, Mrs. F. P. Morris, Mrs. Byron Gordon, Mrs. R. J. Wade, Mrs. F. C. Elnford, Mrs. G. H. Priddy and Mrs. H. R. Collins.

Following the banquet an address on foreign missionaries was given by Dr. Harvey Reeves Calkins, a former missionary to India.

Others on the evening program were Mrs. F. A. Hall, Mrs. F. M. Hill, Mrs. Florence Richards and Ora Richards. Rev. C. Claud Travis pronounced the benediction.

In the afternoon Mrs. Calkins was one of the principal speakers and those on the program were Mrs. D. L. Harding, Mrs. C. C. Travis, Mrs. J. M. Diehl and Mrs. W. L. Martin. Mrs. Walter Zahrt presided and Mrs. C. N. O'Day directed the music.

BISHOP CONFIRMS CLASS.

More Than One Hundred Receive the Sacrament.

A class of more than one hundred received the sacrament of confirmation at the St. Louis church, of Besancon, Tuesday. Solemn high mass was celebrated at 9:30 o'clock by Rev. Norbert Feiden, of Monroeville, and following this Rev. Michael P. Louen, former rector of the Besancon class and now situated at St. Peter's and Paul's church, Huntington.

The confirmation was then administered by Rt. Rev. Bishop Alerding. He was assisted by Rev. Michael Aichinger, Auburn; Rev. Louen, of Huntington; Rev. George Moorman, of Besancon; Rev. George Hassler, Rev. John Dapp and Rev. Robert Emmett Kelly, of Fort Wayne.

HOLD SERIES OF MEETINGS.

Dr. Calkins and Wife to Speak at Wayne Street Church.

Dr. Harvey Reeves Calkins and his wife will hold a series of meetings at Wayne Street M. E. church, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon and evening and Sunday evening. At the latter service Dr. Calkins will deliver his famous lecture on "The Heart of Heathenism." Mrs. Calkins will have charge of the afternoon services and Dr. Calkins will conduct the evening meetings.

Both Dr. Calkins and his wife were missionaries to India. They are writers and lecturers of note and their wide experiences assure most interesting services.

Coffee Urn Party.

In the way of celebrating the paying off of the indebtedness on a new coffee urn, the Parish guild of Trinity Episcopal church will hold a musical and social hour in the parish house Saturday afternoon. All who contributed to the purchase have been invited as special guests.

Organize Bible Class.

A bible class will be organized at Redeemer Lutheran church Wednesday evening, to which all confirmed members are eligible. The meeting will be started at 8 o'clock and those who attend have been asked to take bibles.

Church Notes.

St. Cecilia circle of King's Daughters will meet in the library of the Y. W. C. A. Friday afternoon. The social chairman is Mrs. Walter Kent.

The service planned for Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kelsey, 344 Savilla avenue, has been postponed one week, because of the Lexington Day celebration.

The women's society of the First Baptist church has postponed its regular all-day sewing session, to have been held Thursday. The date for the meeting will be announced later.

Prepare a quarter pint at about the cost of a small jar of common cold cream.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way: Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it naturally should help to whiten, clear, smoothen and beautify.

Any drugist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons. In this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion ladies can easily prepare and have an inexpensive toilet aid which perfectly satisfies the natural desire for a beautiful soft skin.—Advertisement.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Garrett, Ind., April 18.—A large delegation of Garrett people were at the interurban station last evening to witness the departure of seven local young men who were leaving for Columbus, Ohio, having enlisted in the United States field artillery. Nearly all of these boys were high school boys and their classmates and teachers were present. They were Paul Steward, John Hopper, Karl Sliker, Herbert Wilcox, Daniel Farmer, Edgar Eber and Glen Lawhead. The young men enlisted in the morning and left the same night to begin their training.

SHORT NOTES.

The revival meetings at the Methodist church are progressing nicely and the attendance at each meeting has been excellent. The music is especially interesting and some very good sermons have been heard from Rev. Thomas. Sunday morning the Sunday school will hold a flag raising and patriotic meeting after Sunday school. They have purchased a beautiful flag and have had a large flag staff erected on the tower of the church.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Shaw was injured Tuesday when a brick fell from the slide at the school grounds and struck the little chap on the head. He is reported better this morning.

The members of the Culture club gave a farewell party Tuesday evening for Mrs. James Moyer, who will leave in a short time for Detroit, where Mr. Moyer will enter into the real estate business.

Mrs. Maggie Latson, of Michigan, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Steve Sweeney, of East Quincy street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith left Tuesday for Concord, New York, where they will live on their farm. Mr. Griffith has been in poor health for some time and is hoping that the climatic changes may be beneficial.

S. R. Hursh, of Detroit, was the guest of Arthur Houser Tuesday.

Virginia Bass entertained a company of girl friends Tuesday evening in honor of her twelfth birthday.

A. C. Wolfner, of Chicago, was the guest of Harry Weinberg Tuesday.

The Garrett high school baseball team will play the Waterloo school team this afternoon on the Garrett grounds. The locals have a very good line up and are hoping to stage several games before the close of school.

Carl Coffelt, of Fort Wayne, was the guest of friends here Tuesday.

Miss Marian Novinger went to Syracuse today to spend the week-end with Miss Ruth Lanner.

Mrs. J. A. Engstrom attended a Methodist district meeting at Fort Wayne Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Laughman, of Angola, is visiting Mrs. Harvey E. Smith.

Don Van Fleet returned to his studies at Purdue Tuesday after a few days' visit with his parents in this city.

Mrs. Harvey Green, who sustained a severe gash in her head Tuesday as the result of a fall on the sidewalk at her home, is much better this morn-

OUT MUCH LAST WEEK

Outlook for Harvest This Fall is Darker Than a Few Weeks Ago.

Weather of last week played havoc with the stand of wheat in the fields of the Allen county farmer. The heavy with the stand of wheat in the fields of and as a result the stand has been thinned out nearly half.

One farmer stated that if another week of such kind of weather would be experienced that the wheat crop next fall would be almost a complete failure. The warmer weather of the past three days has come as a blessing they say. One man stated that if a good rain would come that much of the wheat which had been killed would probably sprout out again.

Farmers throughout the county are busily engaged in working up the soil and in planting oats. Much of the oats has been sowed and many have begun work in preparing the ground for corn. The utmost precaution is being taken by nearly all in the selection of good seed.

DESERT BARRIER WOULD PREVENT RUMORED GERMAN PLAN FOR INVASION FROM MEXICO.

El Paso, Texas, April 17.—Texas, Arizona, California and New Mexico have thus far refused to become alarmed over the bugaboo of border raids and invasions by inspired Mexican factions as a result of our break with Germany.

Those who know the character of most of the country through which such incursions would have to come, and the tremendous natural obstacles to be surmounted, scout the probability of serious danger.

A vast sweep of blistering desert, with few water holes, no dependable sustenance even for small groups of men and horse, no railroads or highways, sparsely settled districts and few rich spoils—such is the territory for many miles on both sides of the border.

Probably nowhere else adjacent to the civilized world is there country so forbidding.

Water and provisions would have to be carried across wide stretches of country if a formidable force were attempted, and even then the difficulties of march are an almost insurmountable check, as the United States punitive force recently demonstrated.

Rumors have, however, persisted here and elsewhere that Germans in considerable number have recently crossed into Mexico, and that they have endeavored to incite Mexican guerrillas to border harassment. Many of them are reported to be Teuton reservists.

Definite proof is lacking as far as is here known, though both Caranza and Villa troops begun edging nearer the border from the day President Wilson signed the war resolution.

Records of the army intelligence service and immigration authorities show that less than 100 Germans have crossed into Mexico from the United States since early in February, and that almost half of these have subsequently returned.

This small exodus is here accounted for on the ground that Mexico is the only adjacent country to which Germans, perhaps, fearing internment, can go, since Canada is naturally barred to them.

It is, of course, possible that many Germans may have crossed into Mexico without the knowledge of American authorities, and precautions along the border are not being relaxed to prevent hostile incursions from the other side.

One of the chief points of concern is the protection of the Imperial valley irrigation canal which carries water from the Colorado river to one of the richest agricultural regions in southern California. At one point the canal crosses into Mexican territory for a number of miles and is completely at the disposition of an enemy.

Fifty thousand settlers and property valued at close to $37,000,000 depend upon an unbroken water supply from the Colorado river by this aqueduct.

Along the border are also the towns of San Diego, El Centro, Calexico, Yuma, Douglas, El Paso, Del Rio, Eagle Pass, Laredo, Rio Grande, Brownsville and a number of villages.

A sufficient patrol of United States soldiers, in the army's estimation, is being maintained along the border to afford protection. In addition the famous Texas Rangers, a state organization of the finest fighting men and horsemen in the country, are always held in readiness to protect the Texas border.

TWO MILK TICKETS ANALYSED BY JUDGE

Says He Finds They Are Not Good Nourishment for Baby.

The chemical analysis of two yellow milk tickets was given by Judge Kerr, Wednesday morning, in police court while Clarence Reebuck, proprietor of the Rudisill dairy, stood attention and nodded assent to the judge's statements.

Milk tickets are made of paper and arsenic is used in forming paper.

Want Pink Cheeks—Red Lips?

Some unfortunate men and women are prone to wonder why some of their friends are blessed with an abundance of color—pink cheeks and red lips—while theirs are always colorless. The reason for this last named condition is there is not enough red blood corpuscles in the blood—under a microscope the blood is thin and watery. The flesh is flabby too. Well known physicians assert that the regular administration for several months of three-grain hypo-mechine tablets will greatly improve the color, add to the weight, make the cheeks pink and the lips red and in general be very beneficial. For self-administration, obtain from any of the best hygienic shops.—Advertisement.

Judge Kerr told. Chemical properties of arsenic make it a poison for babies.

Therefore—the jury reasoned—milk tickets should not be fed to babies.

Cause of the foregoing procedure was the fact that Mrs. Russell Horrell, 1002 Nuttman avenue, found two pint milk tickets in the bottle of milk she purchased from Reebuck for her eighteen-month-old baby, on Monday.

Reebuck said he did not know how the tickets happened to remain in the bottle as the containers are thoroughly scalded each time before being refilled. He was fined $10 and costs for selling dirty milk.

Don't Like Revolver. Maelow Westal, 34, does not like to look into the open end of a deadly weapon, he told Judge Kerr, through an interpreter, Tuesday morning.

When the saloonkeeper at the corner of Eliza and Ohio streets pointed a revolver at him Tuesday evening and said for him to get out, Westal said that he objected to such conduct.

Police testified that Westal was intoxicated and was raising a disturbance in the saloon when they were called to the place. Westal was fined $10 and costs on a disorderly charge.

Other Police Court Cases. Cases of public intoxication were: James Morisey, fined $5 and costs; John Dalley to be tried Friday. William Cooper and John Posey were released.

John Salskey and Joe Arville were released after pleading guilty to loitering charges.

Case of John Mooney, charged with child neglect, was postponed.

WILL RECRUIT FARMERS FOR SERVICE ARMY

Philadelphia, Pa., April 18.—A recruiting station for farmers' helpers was opened here today to enroll the names of men who want to enlist in President Wilson's service army. The recruits will be sent to the big grain section of the northwest to assist in planting the spring wheat and rye.

ATTENTION, B. U. V. The Brueckerlicher Unterstuetzung Verein unanimously voted to attend Lexington Day parade, Thursday afternoon. Meet at St. Paul school, Barr street, at 1:30 p. m. All members are urgently requested to attend. Bring flags. (Signed) F. A. KLINE, Pres. LOUIS C. RIPPE, Sec. Mon & Wed

Chicago, April 18.—The work of preparing camps in which to train men as reserve officers for the first half million troops raised for the new army was begun in earnest today, following the announcement last night of the plans by Major General Thomas H. Barry, commander of the central department of the army.

There are to be six camps in the central department, located as follows: At Fort Sheridan, two camps, one for Illinois and one for Michigan and Wisconsin.

At Fort Benjamin Harrison, two camps, under one command, one for Indiana and Kentucky and one for Ohio.

At Fort Snelling, one for Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Nebraska.

At Fort Riley, one camp for Missouri, Kansas and Colorado.

The object of each camp is the training and selection of officers for a division and one additional regiment of cavalry. Maximum attendance at each camp will be 2,500.

The six training camps which are to open on May 8, are expected to furnish about one-third of the ten thousand officers—majors, captains, first and second lieutenants—required for an army of 500,000.

Members of St. Mary's congregation meet at school hall Thursday, 1:15 p. m., to participate in Lexington parade.

PREMIER TISZA OF HUNGARY IS OUT OF OFFICE

London, April 18.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Central News says the Euda Post socialist paper Noweszwak announces the resignation of Count Tisza, the Hungarian premier.

AUSTRIAN MINISTERS RESIGN.

Amsterdam, April 18.—The Vienna newspapers announce that Dr. Urban, minister of commerce, and Dr. Baernreither, minister without portfolio, have resigned. Dispatches from Germany connect these resignations with the convocation of the Austrian parliament next month, which they say is considered in German circles as inopportune in view of political events abroad.

There have been several recent resignations from the Austrian cabinet. Early in the present month the ministers of justice, war and finance surrendered their portfolios as the result of a graft scandal in connection with army food supplies. The emperor refused to accept the resignation of the minister of justice, von Schenk. Shortly afterward Gen. von Krobath, Austro-Hungarian minister of war, resigned.

LABORERS TO HOIST FLAG. A little flag demonstration which gives emphasis to the patriotism of a German-American to the country of his adoption will take place at the corner of the building used as an ashpit shop by the Pennsylvania, tomorrow noon. The flag was purchased by Joseph Hermes, foreman of the laborers in that department, and he will act as master of ceremonies at the dedication. The greater portion of Mr. Hermes' employees are of foreign birth and he did not ask any for aid in securing the flag, though it is believed none would have refused. Machinist Pat Scully, of the car machine shop, will be the speaker at the dedication.

OSSIAN MAN IS MODERATOR

Spring Session of Presbytery is Held at Princeton.

REV. HOSTETTER TO BE INSTALLED MAY 8

Fort Wayne Men Are Named Trustees for Period of Five Years.

Fort Wayne Presbytery met in the spring session at the First church, Princeton, Ind., Monday evening and all day Tuesday. The service of Monday evening was presided over by the retiring moderator, Rev. M. M. Leconte. The principal business was the election of Rev. F. K. Baker, of Ossipee, as moderator and Mr. A. J. Kelley, of Ligonier, temporary clerk, after which Rev. Leconte delivered the sermon. Arrangements were made for the installation of Rev. E. B. Hettetich, pastor of Third church of the city, on Tuesday evening, May 10, at 7 o'clock. Rev. H. B. Master will preside and propound the questions, Rev. E. B. Thurne, of Huxton, will preach the sermon, Rev. E. Van Nuz, of Goshen, will deliver the charge to the people and Rev. Frank N. Palmer, of Winona Lake, will deliver the charge to the pastor.

Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock Rev. A. P. Browne conducted devotional services. The session was occupied largely in hearing reports from standing committees all of which were encouraging. Rev. Hostetter was received from the Logansport Presbytery to become pastor of the Third church, Fort Wayne, Rev. F. K. Baylis was received from the Baptist ministry to become pastor at Nappanee and Rev. F. M. Newlin, from Chicago Presbytery to become pastor at Garrett. Rev. H. M. Willis was examined and licensed as a local evangelist and Roswell Brown, a young man of Winona Lake, was received under the care of the Presbytery with plans to pursue his studies as a medical missionary.

Rev. Herrick Resigns.
Rev. C. M. Herrick presented his resignation as pastor of First church, Elkhart, Ind., the resignation being accepted and Rev. E. A. Van Nys, of Princeton, resigned and Dr. McCaughey was appointed moderator. Rev. Hostetter was elected chairman of the home missionary committee succeeding Rev. Herrick, resigned, and he was also chosen a member of the Presbyteries committee on vacancy and supply.

The following ministers were chosen commissioners to the general assembly which will convene in Dallas, Texas, on the 12th of December, 1904: B. R. Bueschle, Kenosha, Wis.; J. W. Davis, Madisonville, and Rev. F. N. McMillan, Winona Lake, principals, with Rev. E. A. Van Nuy and Rev. T. P. Potts, as alternates. Elders chosen as delegates are V. M. Hatfield, E. E. Lehman, J. M. Saller and George Solomon. E. H. McDonald, C. H. Worden, Dr. George R. Stemen, S. M. Saller and J. Lutz were elected trustees of the conference for the next five years. In attendance from Fort Worth were Messrs. H. B. Master, T. P. Potts, C. D. Shilby and H. B. Hostetter and Elders Charles Roaver and C. M. Chambers.

MADAME BERNHARDT HAS CHANCE TO LIVE

New York, April 18.—Madame Sarah Bernhardt, who was operated on last night for an affection of the kidneys has a good fighting chance for recovery, but her condition is very grave. It was stated just before noon today by Dr. Leo Burger, who performed the operation. Another consultation of the six physicians in attendance upon her will be held in the day. Messages from all over the country and from France were received during the night, and letters from friends of the actress filled the room.

WASSON APPEARS AND WORKS OUT WITH CLUB

Robison and Glick Are Right at Home Under Any Long Wallops.

There is one part of the local club beside the keystone sack which Manager Carl Vandagriff won't have to worry about, or we miss our guess. The outer garden here is going to be one of the best looked after of any in the Central circuit or any other minor league.

From the first workout Robison, the Ohio state player, and Glick have been performing in big league style, judging flies when they leave the bat and handling themselves like real phenoms. Yesterday Wasson, who was thought to be lost to the club, blew into camp, donned a uniform and grabbed off everything that came within fifty yards of him. He made a specialty of high and low slabs and of picking the ball off in sensational style.

According to Curly Blount a better outfielder than Glick was never seen in the Central. This player has all the earmarks of a born ball player and he has speed to burn. In batting practice he has been pounding the pill all over the lot and unless he takes an awful slump, he's going to live up to Curly's expectations.

Robison is a clean, energetic and easy-going player of the kind the fans like to watch. He looks to be the result of good training and if he lives up to his record made in the Big Nine he will fill out a mighty classy outfield. In going back after a long fly he very seldom loses sight of it and he takes the ball in a side position.

All the comforts of mid-season were on tap at League park yesterday and today. Peanuts and pop were on sale and a good crowd of "bugs" watched the game and gargled the fizz water.

The squad is getting bigger right along and there were two players for every position and some over yesterday. Several Fort Wayne players are working out with the club, and among them is Butch Henline, who stacks up with the best of them.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Brooklyn, April 18.—The Giants made fifteen hits off Jeff Pfeffer's delivery yesterday and won 8 to 2. Score: R.H.E. New York 0 0 0 2 0 5 1—8 15 1 Brooklyn 0 0 0 0 1 2 0—3 7 5 Batteries—Perritt and McCarthy and Hariden; Pfeffer and Miller.

REDS WIN IN NINTH.

Cincinnati, April 18.—Manager Matthewson's Reds won in the ninth yesterday 8 to 2. Roush opened with a single and was forced by Griffith. After Knopf fielded Wingo delivered a second trip, sending Griffith home with the tying run. Schneider hit to Bald, who threw wide to first, and Wingo scored. Score: R.H.E. Pittsburgh 0 0 1 0 1 0 0—2 7 2 Cincinnati 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—2 7 0 Batteries—Miller and Fischer; Schneider and Wingo.

BRAVES COP IN TWELFTH.

Boston, April 18.—Boston beat Philadelphia 6 to 5 in the poorest exhibition of baseball this city ever seen at Braves field yesterday. The game went twelve innings, when that player ran out of line. Moran claims no play was made on the runner. Bases on balls, with the bases full, gave Boston the edge in their half of the twelfth. Score: R.H.E. Boston 2 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 1—6 11 3 Philadelphia 0 0 5 0 0 0 0 0 0—5 10 4 Batteries—Crum, Nehl, Rudolph and Gowdy; Lavender, Mayor and Kilhiser.

DONALDSON TO RICHMOND.

Toledo, Ohio, April 18.—Donald Donaldson, youthful outfielder, has been sent to Richmond of the Central league under optional agreement. Roger Bresnahan, manager of the Toledo American association club, announced last night. This is Donaldson's first year in professional baseball.

LINCOLN LIFE OUTFIT READY FOR SUNDAY GO

Players Are Named for Initial Game Against Central League Club.

Manager Mart Cleary has announced the team which will be used against the Central league Sunday in the first exhibition game of the season. The game will be played at League park and with the weather right should be a bear in the line of openers.

The insurance men will line up as follows: Oestermeyer, Distel and Smith, pitchers; Hines, catcher; Rahus, short; Devillies, first; Chambers, second; Laird, third; Leutwyler, Wiegman, Dunton and Hillinger, outfielders.

The lineup looks mighty good on paper and in practice and is expected to deliver the real goods. Some of the best semi-pro performers in that part of the country are included and Vandy's team will have to show mid-season stuff to go around them.

Friday night the players will meet and get the uniforms, which have been in town for more than a week. They are classy looking togs, the kind that make a good club look better than ever. A week from Sunday the insurance men will play the second game against the leaguers, in spite of tempting offers from both Delphos and Peru.

TIGERS AGAIN GO DOWN.

Detroit, Mich., April 18.—For the third straight game the White Sox defeated the Tigers here yesterday 4 to 2. The game was hard played all the way. First-class support on the part of the Chicago players saved Danforth a cleaning. Score: R.H.E. Chicago 0 0 0 0 1 0 2 1—4 7 0 Detroit 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0—2 8 0 Batteries—Danforth, Russel and Schalk; Ehman and Spencer.

JOHNSON LOSES BATTLE.

New York, April 18.—Russell won a pitchers' battle from Walter Johnson yesterday 2 to 1. Johnson permitted only two hits. New York's first run was due to errors. New York again scored in the seventh on Pipp's triple and Baker's sacrifice. Washington gave Russell a score in the ninth, but after a run was scored two men were retired at the plate on the same double play. Score: R.H.E. Washington 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1—3 2 2 New York 0 1 0 0 0 1 0—2 2 0 Batteries—Johnson and Alnsworth; Russell and Nunamaker.

SOTHORON CLEANS INDIANS.

St. Louis, April 18.—After drawing twenty-one successive ciphers, the Browns scored two runs in the second inning yesterday and beat the Indians 4 to 0. Sothoron, who scored over the White Sox as a rescue pitcher Friday, held the Indians to one hit. Only twenty-nine batters faced him. Chapman in the first and Allison in the ninth, were the only batters left. The score: R.H.E. St. Louis 0 2 0 0 0 0 1 1—4 6 2 Cleveland 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 1 2 Batteries—Sothoron and Hale; Bush and Meyer.

ERRORS LOSE GAME.

Philadelphia, April 18.—Pizzles in fielding cost the Athletics a 3 to 1 game with Boston yesterday. Score: R.H.E. Boston 0 1 0 0 0 2 0 0—3 5 3 Athletics 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 8 5 Batteries—Shore and Cady; Bush and Meyer.

EXECUTIVE BOARD.

STRIKE-OUT CHAMP NOW ARMY SKY PILOT.

Liberty, Mo., April 18.—M. C. Mackinney, captain of the Wm. Jewell baseball team, who on Monday struck out 25 batters in a game with Tarkio college, today announced he had volunteered his service as an army chaplain. Mackinney has a charge at Bosworth, Mo., where he preaches weekly.

"HACK" SPENCER PROVES THEY CAN COME BACK. "Old King Booze" is the Only Undeclared Champion, Says Jungaleer.

(By Paul Purman.)

This is the story of the man who came back. He is "Hack" Spencer, catcher on the Detroit baseball club, and his experiences in the ring with "Old Man Booze" should be a lesson to every young man who thinks he can stay the limit with that Kayo king and earn a decision.

Nobody has even won a decision from "Old King Booze." He is the one undefeated champion. That's what Hack Spencer thinks about it.

"I've tried his game and I know," Spencer declared. "You may think you are getting away with his delivery, but in the end he will always strike you out."

Spencer in a few games in the American league last year developed into one of the best catchers in the circuit. He batted .350 in nineteen games and fielded .887. Fans who knew Spencer of old could not realize this was the Ed Spencer who had been "up there" before—they knew Spencer's follies.

Spencer today is a direct refutation of the adage that "they can't come back."

Starting with Waco when Henry Fabian, now groundkeeper for the Giants, managed that team, Spencer went to St. Louis, where he began a career of dissipation which soon sent him hustling back to the minors.

His ability soon got him another chance in the majors and he went to Boston. Later he was traded to the Phillies.

At both Boston and Philadelphia he drank booze so consistently that Charlie Drabin, then managing the Phils, persuaded him to take the cure.

When he left the sanitarium the physician in charge told him that a drink would kill him.

"I wondered whether it would or not, but I waited a week to find out then I got drunk," Spencer said. "It didn't kill me, but it put me back where I was."

"Later I went to the coast, but I wouldn't stay sober and the first thing I knew I was working in a northern mining camp for a couple of dollars a day."

It has been known for some time that large quantities of anthracite coal existed in the beds of certain rivers running through the anthracite regions of Pennsylvania, the coal having been washed down years ago. In the Susquehanna river, the Schuylkill and the Lehigh, these deposits are exceedingly heavy, being found in greatest quantities in pockets along the river beds. During the last few years companies, independent of owners and operators of coal mines, have been at work digging out this coal by means of dredges, selling it afterward direct to the consumer. The coal is said to be of excellent quality, in fact, much of it is superior to that obtained direct from the mines. The cost of dredging averages about 12 cents a ton and the prices to consumers have been as low as $1.25.

Speaking of Sport

Lurid Larry Says:

The time will soon arrive when admission spheres will start falling for Fort Wayne youngsters.

Not having anything better to do Connie Mack started to lose ball games early in the season.

Jess Willard used to be a cowboy. When he offered to enlist it sounded like one of his cowboy tricks, throwing the "yes, yes, correct the first time."

For the benefit of some bowlers who not change the maximum size of the ball or widen the alleys.

Recruiting officers wouldn't accept Jess Willard; said he was too big. All which probably relieved Jess' mind considerably. Doesn't seem to be much talk nowadays about a baseball strike.

From the way the Pittsburgh crew is booting the ball around they ought to be pretty fine prospects for some good football team.

War can't have many terrors for the woman whose husband plays golf. During the season she never sees him anyway.

This Welsh-Kilbane bout has reached a serious stage. Kilbane says Welsh must weigh 135 and Welsh says he will weigh 145. By the time the weight is adjusted both of them will be grandpas.

ATTENTION!

Pinchhitter May Be Sent to Cleveland on Trade is the Report.

Detroit, Mich., April 18.—The first big trade of the year may involve the sending of old Wahoo Sam Crawford to Cleveland. Crawford is nearing the end of his career. Although he can hit almost as well as he did in his prime, the big Texan cannot cover ground in the outfield and is painfully slow on the bases.

For this reason he has been succeeded at Detroit by Heilmann, and is doing his bit as a pinch hitter.

Crawford is drawing a wartime salary of $7,500 a year, a lot of money for a bench warmer, and it is understood that President Navin would lend an attentive ear to the right kind of a proposition to relieve the Tigers of this financial burden. Whether Navin would consent to send Crawford to a club which has a chance to beat Detroit out in the pennant race is another question. This seems to be the only drawback on the Cleveland deal.

There have also been rumors coming from Detroit that for the last year or two that Crawford and his teammates have not been on the best of terms. This would be an added reason for his transfer.

Crawford has been one of the most terrific sluggers of the big league. Eleven seasons out of eighteen he has batted above the .300 mark. He is always a dangerous man at bat and would make a valuable addition to any team that needs more hitting.

FIRST DAY'S FIGURES STILL HIGH IN MEET

Team Counts Are Picking Up and Gary Scores May Be Doomed.

Scores made by the Gary Bowlers in the opening of the state howling tourney here still hold and have not been seriously threatened yet. Firemen team counts seem to be picking up considerably, however, and here are chances that the top-place holders may be forced back suddenly.

In last night's rolling the counts made were considerably better than those of Monday. The first team of the Wayne Knitting Mills stood high with a count of 2,533, a little more than three hundred pins behind the leaders. There were no singles or doubles.

The first squad of six teams to take the alleys will be made up of four Lincoln Life clubs and two Anthony hotel teams. At 9:45 o'clock two Bowser teams, the Baltes, Randall, Cutshall for Mayor and Trunkley & Koerber lives will roll.

SOCIETY WOMEN LEARN TO COOK AS PATRIOTIC MEASURE.

New York, April 18.—While scores of patriotic women are eager to serve their country in most extraordinary ways, thousands are preparing to perform the simple and obvious but vitally necessary tasks of every day.

According to the economists, every woman should be a good cook in wartime: Thereby she helps to save the nation's food supply; she raises the standard of national health; she is prepared to cook for soldiers if necessary, and she is fitted to undertake her own kitchen work in case the regular maids and cooks enter man's labor market, as they have done in Europe.

The members of the state and city bureau of the National League for Women's Service are working to organize the women of the country so that they will be ready to serve the nation in the capacity for which they are best fitted.

Many society women who consider

cooking the best form of preparedness for women are taking lessons in the art for the first time in their lives.

Among members of the classes now being formed at the West Side Y. W. C. A. are Mrs. R. Stuyvesant Pierrepont, Mrs. T. T. Wells, Mrs. Graham Lusk, Mrs. Frederick Delafield and Mrs. James F. Shaw.

PATRIOTIC DAY AT BLUFFTON.

Bluffton, Ind., April 18.—About twenty-five enthusiasts, including four ladies, met in the Studebaker bank yesterday and in a very short time had made arrangements for a patriotic day in Bluffton to be held next Tuesday, April 24. The entire plan contemplates a monster parade starting at 6:30 o'clock, traversing the principal streets of the city, to end up with a flag raising. After the outside program has been carried out it is expected to hold a meeting in the court house to hear speeches bearing upon the work of the Red Cross society. Speakers have been engaged for this part of the program. Also a musical program will be rendered at the opera house.

FOR DESECRATION OF FLAG.

Huntington, Ind., April 18.—Nick Petrie was found guilty in the police court Tuesday morning on a charge of desecrating the American flag. No trial was held, but as Petrie had previously pleaded not guilty, that plea was allowed to stand, and with his consent a finding of guilty was entered. The fine was placed at $5 and costs, the minimum for the first offense. Harry Swinehart and O. E. Kaufman were ready to swear from the witness stand that Petrie had made the statement of "to — with the flag" in the Bismark bar several days ago. This made a preponderance of evidence, as Petrie would have had only his own denial to counterbalance two witnesses.

IN FATAL ACCIDENT.

Van Wert, Ohio, April 18.—A fatal automobile accident occurred yesterday, several miles south of Delphos, in which Lester, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucius was killed, by a machine driven by J. L. Barth, a Lima salesman. The child had gone into the roadway to get the mail just left in the box by the rural letter carrier, and was being watched by his father, who witnessed the mishap. Aside from a few scratches on the face the little body was not marked and no bones were broken. Death was caused by concussion of the brain.

MARRIED AT JACKSON.

Kendallville, Ind., April 18.—Earl Davis and Miss Alice Bullock, both of Jackson, Mich., were quietly wedded at the home of the bride's parents in Jackson, several days ago. Announcement of the wedding was received here Monday afternoon by Ray Davis, brother of the bridegroom. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Rosa M. Davis, of this city, and is a member of Company D, I. N. G. He is now employed as cashier of the Adams Express company at Jackson, and has a very lucrative position.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Bluffton, Ind., April 18.—John Truesdale, aged about 55 years, made what may prove to be a successful attempt at ending his life late this afternoon by shooting himself in the temple with a revolver. He is in a critical condition. Dr. L. H. Cook, of this city, was hurried to the man's bedside, but from indications little can be done to save him. Mr. Truesdale has been ill for the last nine weeks with stomach trouble and worry over his illness is said to have caused the act.

JURY FINDS GREEN GUILTY OF ASSAULT

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Columbia City, Ind., April 18.—Frank Green was found guilty of assault and battery upon the person of George Rapp, east of the city, by the circuit court jury Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, after a half-hour deliberation, following an all day trial.

Green was fined $1 and costs, amounting to $7.40, which represents also costs incurred in a justice's trial last summer, shortly after the occurrence of the alleged assault.

Harry Hartssock pleaded guilty before Judge Wrigley Monday afternoon to a charge of allowing minors to play pool and he paid a fine of $5 and costs.

Another charge is pending, but may be dropped. The cases of the state of Indiana vs. H. M. Miller, one count for violation of the liquor laws and two others for violation of the fish and game ordinance, were dismissed.

The three year old daughter of Marshall Boulton, west of Elletts, died Monday night of ailments similar in symptoms to infantile paralysis, and a private funeral was held Tuesday.

Dr. Scott, of Elletts, and Nel, of Elletts, well, are puzzled over the case, which was not pronounced, and thus rendered difficult a diagnosis.

Harking to the agricultural war call, S. E. Kessler is making preparations to truck five acres on the E. E. Ricker property, west of the city, and several local people are doubling and tripling the sizes of their gardens.

M. L. Galbreath and family will leave Columbia City in a couple of weeks and return to their farm, known as "Sunnyside," just east of Collamer, where the Galbreaths resided until eighteen years ago, when they moved here, Mr. Galbreath affiliating himself with the President Trust company at that time.

Mr. Galbreath served in connection with the bank a year ago and has since been conducting a realty business, which he will continue. A tenant will continue to take care of the farm to which the Galbreaths will move. The members of the Sorosis club, of which Mrs. Galbreath has been president since its organization, tendered her a farewell party at her home Monday evening.

The George Cox forty acre southwest of this city, was sold Monday by the W. H. Roberts real estate agency to James C. Adair, of Fort Wayne, for $8,000. Mr. Cox taking over a property in Montpelier, Ind., on the deal.

Mrs. L. P. Evans, of Louisville, O., who has been visiting her father, Dr. F. C. Griser, of this city, was taken Monday to the St. Joe hospital in Fort Wayne and there underwent an operation for pelvic trouble Tuesday forenoon. She recovered nicely.

While helping tear down the Alameda building Tuesday forenoon, Carl Morsches, one of the students of the high school manual training class, in whose charge the work has been placed, stepped upon a rusty nail that penetrated the foot fully two inches. A physician administered anti-toxin treatment.

Mrs. Monzelle Fox, of South Whitley, has been granted an absolute divorce from Elmer Fox. She was granted the custody of the minor children and the defendant was ordered by Judge Wrigley to pay $8 monthly maintenance.

Youthful killers of song birds in this city and those especially who have been slaying the feathered friends in the neighborhood of the Jewish cemetery, are in danger of prosecution, their names having been reported to the authorities.

Slingshots and air guns have been employed by the slayers and several local residents have grown irate over the proposition.

At the meeting of the Daughters of Indiana society of Chicago held last week in the Congress hotel, Mrs. James G. Elliott, formerly Miss Ora Stingle, of this city, was honored by being chosen corresponding secretary of the society.

Mrs. W. P. Hanly, of Chicago, formerly Miss Jennie Raber, of this city, was also honored by being chosen treasurer of the Literary Round Table in that city.

Several cottages at Big lake were broken into and ransacked some time Sunday or Monday night and bedding, dishes, fishing tackle and other valuable camping accoutrements were taken by the invaders.

Fifty high school students took the military drill under Maj. Spurgeon N. Markley Monday evening, and the male members of the faculty, including Supt. C. E. Spaulding, also participated.

Lieut. C. A. Gregg instructed a class of eighth graders. The high school students are now learning the "school of a soldier" and the "school of a squad."

Homer Binder, of Milwaukee, Wis., engineer for the Allis-Chalmers company and son of F. G. Binder, of this city, has been placed on the reserve list by the government. He will probably serve in a regiment of Purdue engineers.

The crop booster meeting held at Coe's Monday evening in the schoolhouse there was attended by forty farmers. Addresses were made by James D. Adams and Lloyd T. Bailey, of Columbia City, and W. E. Lawrence, president of the county farm efficiency organization, gave a demonstration for the treatment of oats-smut. A number of farmers also gathered at the Larwill schoolhouse Monday evening.

C. C. Anspaugh gave the life history of the oat-smut, and M. J. Friedline then demonstrated the treatment of it by the use of formaldehyde.

The local commandery is well commanded by officers, their eminent commander being Lloyd T. Bailey; their generalissimo being George O. Compton, former national guard lieutenant, and their captain-general or drill master being Joseph R. Harrison, retired lieutenant colonel of the guard. If a call to arms came to Indiana the northern part of the state might possibly organize a regiment composed solely of Knights Templar.

Mrs. Walter T. Binder entertained several guests Monday evening in honor of Miss Helen Aurland, of Minot, S. D., and her fiancé, J. E. Grimm, of Dayton, O., who left Tuesday to resume his studies in the University of Wisconsin.

CARPENTERS' UNION NO. 232

All work will cease at 12 o'clock noon on Thursday, and all members of Carpenters' Local No. 232 meet at Carpenters' hall, at 610 Calhoun street, Thursday at 1:30 o'clock to take part in the Lexington memorial parade.

BOWSER MEN JOIN THE RIFLE CLUB

Good Membership Campaign Follows Visit to the Indoor Range.

Thirty members of the Bowser Efficiency club were guests of the Fort Wayne Rifle and Revolver club at the indoor shooting range, General Electric works, last night. As a result of the visit the Bowser Efficiency club has started a membership campaign in its ranks for the Rifle club. Ten signed up last night and it is predicted that over thirty or forty more will do likewise. The Efficiency club never took interest in rifle or revolver shooting before the visit at the range last night, and of course they had very crude ideas of the use of firearms and did not realize the importance of civilians knowing how to shoot and to handle rifles and revolvers until last night. Several of the Bowser people took a shot at targets at the range and developed the fact that there are some in the club who possess "the making of good marksmen," as one of the enthusiastic members of the Rifle club expressed it. The Rifle and Revolver club, which started among the employees of the General Electric works, now includes in its membership men from various industries, professions and business and will soon have a membership of several hundred.

EXPECT 3,000 IN LINE. G. E. Works Will Turn Out in Lexington Day Parade.

"We expect to have the largest turnout in the parade of any industrial concern in the city," said Major John E. Miller, the manager of the day for the Electricians. There was a meeting at the works last night to complete the arrangements and this morning Major Miller issued a bulletin of instructions concerning the movement of the employees in the parade. He appointed W. Howard Miller, adjutant, and J. L. Birely, Jacob Trautman, Oscar Bender, John Pulver and E. J. Stroud, assistant marshals. The bulletin also states that all departments must be in their places ready to march at 2 o'clock. The center division will march first, the right center second, the left center third, the right fourth and the left last. "We will march east to Lindsey avenue, south to Taylor street, east to Fairfield avenue, south to DeWald street, east to Harrison street, north until the head of the column reaches Dawson street; when a halt will be made until the procession moves to bring us into our position. Each person should carry a small flag. The formation will be eight abreast, with four feet between ranks. Each assistant marshal will be at his place, marking the head of the column to which he is assigned, at 1:30 o'clock sharp. Each captain will report to his assistant marshal on his arrival in position." There will be about 400 ladies in the ranks of the Electric employees and it is expected the total number will pass the 3,000 mark.

EIGHTY-SIX AT BANQUET. Ladies of O. R. C. Enjoyed Feast at Elks' Temple.

There were eighty-six seated at the banquet table at the Elks' temple last night, when Kellona division, No. 51, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Order of Railway Conductors, gave a dinner in honor of Mrs. J. H. Moore, of Toledo, the grand president of the auxiliary, and a number of visiting auxiliary ladies. The party was late in arriving at the banquet hall, after an automobile ride over the city, the guests of the O. R. C. members, and could not carry out the program of speaking as it had been arranged, and it was cut short. Mrs. Moore delivered an address, however, which was well received. After the banquet the ladies were the guests of the members of the O. R. C. at a theater party at the Palace.

The school of instructions, which began yesterday, will close at 6 o'clock tonight. There were two sessions today, divided at noon by a recess for luncheon, which was served in Unity hall. There were a number of visitors again today, coming from Huntington, Garrett and other railway centers. This is said to be one of the best meetings of its kind ever held in Fort Wayne, and the program was excellent, the committee leaving nothing undone that could in any way add to the comfort and entertainment of the members and the guests. Mrs. C. A. Bowman, Mrs. Ella Bonter and Mrs. F. H. Davis composed the committee.

ADOPT G. E. METHODS. Relief Department at Electric Works Makes a Change.

The executive committee of the Mutual Benefit association of the General Electric works, voted unanimously at the meeting last night to adopt the organization methods of the General Electric company as they are in force in Schenectady and other eastern cities, wherein are G. E. factories and benefit associations. According to the proposed plan the Fort Wayne branch will be divided into sections, with a membership of 150, instead of one section, as at present. Each section will have a chairman, directors and sub-chairmen to handle its business and there will be a central organization to which these sub-division officers will report. The change is made in order that the association officials will be in closer touch with the membership. The executive committee will submit a report of their action to the members for approval.

LOOKING OVER THE TRACKS. Pennsylvania Officials Out Planning Spring Work.

Supt. Otto Schroll, of the Pennsylvania, and some of his staff officers are making a trip over Division C, Fort Wayne to Crestline, today, looking into the condition of the tracks. They have a special train and will complete the inspection of the division today. With Mr. Schroll are Division Engineer Guy Scott, Master Mechanic E. E. Griest, Division Operator H. B. Reynolds, Road Foreman of Engines John H. Hanna, Assistant Trainmaster C. E. McKeehan, Chief Dispatcher Harry E. Hart, Master Carpenter D. C. Cook and the several road supervisors.

ANOTHER EMBARGO. N. Y. C. Makes Most Unwelcome Announcement.

Agent J. B. Clizbe, of the New York Central lines, was notified yesterday that at midnight tonight the company would refuse to receive freight in less than carload lots for points off the division. This means that there will be no service further than Jackson and Ypsilanti, Mich., out of Fort Wayne until the embargo is raised. This will greatly interfere with the business of the wholesale and jobbing line of Fort Wayne. The cause is a blockade on the main lines of the N. Y. C. The L. E. & W. is not affected.

TO TOLEDO FOR A FLAG. If the employees of the Wabash shops and the clerks in the master mechanic's office can get a flag in time they will dedicate it on the pole.

The pretty eighty foot pole erected some time ago on ground just north of the master mechanic's building. Attempts to get a suitable flag in Fort Wayne failed and this morning T. C. Steger, foreman of the pipe and tin department, went to Toledo in the effort to get one. "We have the prettiest flag staff in the city," said General Foreman William J. Welch this morning, as he pointed to the staff. It has been surrounded with green sod for a distance of eight or ten feet, is surmounted by a gilded ball and a 250 candle power electric lamp. It certainly is a pretty pole.

"SOMEBODY SPILLED THE BEANS" Under this caption, a subscriber of The Sentinel sends in the following interesting notice of a fellow shopman:

"Dewey Gatchell, night operator of a mill machine in T. H. Cole's commutator department of the General Electric works, has forsaken the ranks of single men and got married. The great secret leaked out today, which accounts for the big black 'ropes' the boys of the commutator department are puffing at. The marriage ceremony took place at Illiokale, Mich., on Monday, April 16. Mr. and Mrs. Gatchell, the latter who was Miss Dorothy Shroyer, of South Broadway, will for awhile reside with Mr. Gatchell's parents on Euclid avenue.

OVERLOOK ONE DEMONSTRATION. "Say, you newspaper men, in writing about flag raisings and dedications, omitted to mention ours," said one of the firemen at the boiler and power plant of the General Electric works, as he pointed to a handsome flag floating from a staff over the east end of the power plant.

"Ours was the first flag erected at this shop and we feel slighted because none of the papers mentioned us," continued the man. There are about thirty men employed in that department who contributed towards the purchase of the flag.

OPEN MEETING TONIGHT. An open meeting in the interest of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees' union, now taking on more activity, will be held in the Cooks and Waiters' hall, 425 Calhoun street, tonight.

All persons interested in this line of work are requested to be at this meeting. Henry J. Hoelle, William A. Jackson and Charles Redrup, prominent in labor union circles, are interested in this movement and attended a meeting of the executive board last night to push the work along.

ELECTRIC WORKERS' DANCE. The annual ball of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, No. 305, drew a crowd of young people several hundred strong to the Moose hall last night.

The hall was decorated profusely with flags and national bunting and hundreds of electric lamps, artistically arranged. The officers of the union and the committee on arrangements acted as a reception committee.

CLOSE AT NOON. Agent E. H. Kirkland, of the Pennsylvania and the G. R. & I., and Agent J. B. Clizbe, of the N. Y. C., posted bulletins today announcing that their respective freight houses would close at noon tomorrow on account of the celebration and no business would be transacted there.

The Nickel Plate will probably take similar action though at 2 o'clock no instructions of that kind had been received.

BACK BRUISED AND SPRAINED. H. F. W. Scheifer, tender repairer at the Pennsylvania shops, will be off duty a few days with a bruised and sprained back.

Yesterday while he was at work a water scoop pipe scaffold fell upon him, inflicting the injuries mentioned.

CARD PARTY AND DANCE. Hyacinth lodge No. 38, Ladies' society to the B. L. F. & E., will give a dance and card party at Unity hall Thursday evening for the members and the families of the B. L. F. & E. Ice cream and home-made cake will be served.

INSTALLING NEW PLANT. A shed has been erected in the iron yards, adjoining the Pennsylvania tool shop, for use as a tempering and hardening plant.

It will be operated by electricity. The apparatus is now being installed.

WILL GIVE A TEA. Fort Wayne lodge No. 438, Ladies' Auxiliary to the B. R. T., will give a tea at the home of Mrs. Bennett, 1016 Jackson street, Friday afternoon.

Karl Bahlinger, of the Pennsylvania vice shop, is off duty on account of sickness.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES. C. R. Puff, a boilermakers' helper, has resigned his position at the Pennsylvania shops.

A. C. and E. G. Rankin, brothers, took employment as helpers at the Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning. W. J. Farnam, who was sick three or four days, reported for work at the Pennsylvania lathe shop this morning. Mrs. C. O. VanHorn, wife of the Pennsylvania machinist, will go to Chicago Saturday to stay over Sunday with friends.

Elmer Wieble and R. E. Penfold, clerks at the Pennsylvania amachine shop, are planning a week-end visit to Chicago.

F. B. Putt, crane operator, and A. B. Long, machinists' helper, of the Pennsylvania erecting shop, are sick and off duty.

General Manager F. S. Hunting, of the General Electric works, went to New York last night on business for the company.

Master Mechanic G. W. Smith and Chief Clerk O. O. Rohrbaugh, of the Wabash, have returned from a business trip to Detroit.

Raymond E. Claycomb, a chef from the Hof Brau, took employment as a helper under Foreman Joseph Romary at the Pennsylvania shops.

Paul Meier, machinist at the Pennsylvania tool room, resumed work this morning after being off on account of the funeral of his uncle.

Tomorrow is pay day for the local G. R. & I. employees and the following day, Friday, will be pay day for the Pennsylvania shopmen.

H. W. Jackson, from the General Electric Lamp works at Harrison, N. J., is in the city on business with the officials of the local plant.

Foreman T. A. G. Stonebrook, of the Pennsylvania paint shop, who failed to show up for work yesterday, and is absent today, sent word this morning that he was sick.

"Cooper's" $1.50 Lisle Union Suits, $1.00—50c under any store in the state. PATTERSON-FLETCHER CO.

Mrs. C. E. Harrod, mother of Paul Harrod, of the Pennsylvania, moved to power office, who was operated upon at St. Joseph hospital last Saturday, is doing well and will recover, it is believed.

R. C. Koons, who was sick two weeks, resumed his duties as carpenter at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Bob Volz, laborer at the planing mills, is on duty again after an illness of a week.

Robert Reed, who was employed in gathering railway news for The Sentinel last summer, resigning to take up a scholarship at Purdue university, returned to that institution this morning to resume his studies, after being sick several weeks.

Passenger Engineer Art Sagie, of the Pennsylvania, has recovered from an illness and will again resume the duty of piloting trains 22 and 25 over sub-division C tomorrow. He was quite sick a part of the time he was off duty, being bedfast ten days.

Blue chambray work shirts, all sizes, 50c. You know what you pay for them in the other stores. PATTERSON-FLETCHER CO.

The Electro-Technic club has decided to provide 500 white silk badges for its members to wear in the parade tomorrow, and also donated 3,000 small hand cards, bearing a flag and the first verse of "The Star Spangled Banner" for use in the parade.

M. Berghorn, of the Pennsylvania car machine shop, is off duty because of the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Charles Grosvenor, who had the misfortune to rupture a blood vessel during a severe spell of coughing last night. Mr. Grosvenor is a machinist at the Pennsylvania shops.

Beautiful crepe silk neckwear at 50c that is twenty-five cents under the price at other stores. PATTERSON-FLETCHER CO.

We lead the trade in one particular article and all our customers who buy one help to push it—the Baby Carriage. Foster's.

The members of Mary Penrose Wayne chapter D. A. R. are requested by the regent, Mrs. James B. Crankshaw, to assemble in the court house at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon to review the patriotic parade.

The Pythian Sisters Social circle, which was to have met at the home of Mrs. Mary Hoyles, Penn Place, has been postponed to April 26.

Men's Reading cashmere pants in all sizes at $1.50. They are just one dollar under the price at other stores. PATTERSON-FLETCHER CO.

MACHINISTS! Meet at Machinist hall on Thursday at 1:15 p. m. for purpose of participating in Lexington parade.

EMPLOYEES OF INDIANA FURNITURE COMPANY WILL CULTIVATE EIGHT ACRES OF GROUND.

The twenty employees of the Indiana Furniture company have formed sort of a local store to take up in a systematic way the cultivation of ground to assist in the campaign that is being conducted throughout the entire country for bigger crop production and food conservation. Clerks of other stores in the city are expected to follow the example of the Indiana Furniture company's employees.

Four acres will be planted in potatoes, one acre in corn, one-half acre in tomatoes and the remainder in small garden truck. The products are to be sold to the employees at the actual cost of production and all above what is actually needed by them will be sold to the public at market prices. Those who will take up this work are shown in the above picture. They are,

reading from left to right, first row—Frank H. Hilgemann, L. Crumrine, W. E. Young, E. C. Gerding, H. C. Dannefer, E. Sherrick, George Shideler, George Wolf. Rear row—O. Stahl, W. F. Graeter, J. V. Reul, E. M. Clawson, C. M. Bragg, W. L. Heller, F. C. Meads, H. R. Winans, Mrs. S. M. Hall, William Harries.

Pennsy Yardmen and Employees of Spoke Works Have Demonstration.

More flag dedication ceremonies took place yesterday, possibly the greatest attended of the several events being at the Pennsylvania east yards and at the Wayne Spoke and Bending factory, on Wabash avenue.

The demonstration at the yard office was under the auspices of the employees in the office of General Foreman Henry Bley and the men who work in the yards as switchmen, conductors, switch tenders and others, who contributed to the purchase of the flag and its appurtenances. The pole is a neatly constructed affair and is sixty foot high. The exercises were held at the foot of the pole, in the yards just west of Walton avenue, where a platform was built and covered with national colors for the occasion.

The Hon. H. H. Hilgemann and C. M. Neizer, the speakers, wore at their best and gave splendid addresses extolling the flag and the country it represents and describing the conditions and causes which led up to the present war situation. They urged their hearers to stand squarely behind the president and to honor and serve their country to the best of their abilities. As the crowd stood with bared heads, cheering and waving their hands, the flag was hoisted to its position and as it went up Battery D fired a salute.

The officials and employees of the Wayne Spoke and Bending company and many of the residents of that part of the city witnessed the ceremonies attending the dedication and unfurling of the flag at the spoke factory. Manager William Yergens was the master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers. These were J. M. Farrell, the head sawyer, and Harry J. Crystal, an employee of the shops, and B. Paul Mossman, president of the company. Mr. Farrell urged patriotic loyalty to the country and also spoke of the need of co-operation between employer and employee at the factory and elsewhere. Mr. Crystal, who is a veteran of the Spanish-American war, spoke of "Our Duty to Our Country" and related some of his experiences in the service of the United States during the stirring times of 1898, declaring he was ready to fight again when necessary. Mr. Mossman's address was full of patriotic utterances, which aroused the enthusiasm of the hearers. He also gave a most interesting history of the flag from its adoption by the continental congress in Philadelphia, June 14, 1777, to the present day.

A flag was raised upon a thirty foot pole at the Perrine-Armstrong saw mills yesterday afternoon. While there was no particularly big demonstration, patriotic enthusiasm among the employees, who purchased and erected the flag, is strong and all will give to their country their support and go to war if the necessity arises, as was evidenced by their action when the flag was raised.

While the patriotic flag demonstration was in progress at the east yard office John Guebard, towerman at the Walton avenue crossing of the Pennsylvania, had a patriotic demonstration all by himself. Climbing to the top of the tower, he placed a handsome flag in position and patriotically saluted it.

HOW CUPID IS "COPPING" UNCLE SAM'S RECRUITS.

Line of Marriage License Applicants at License Bureau in New York.

[By F. M. Kerby.] New York, April 18.—Get married and you needn't go to war. That's one cause that has stimulated marriages in this and other cities throughout the country to such an extent license clerks have to work overtime to keep up with the sudden rush of business. Some of New York's young men have decided they would rather fight the high cost of living than the Germans.

As one official at the municipal building put it, "Cupid is coping the recruits!" More than twice as many young men applied to the marriage license bureau in a single day in Manhattan and Brooklyn than applied at the same time to the recruiting stations of the army and navy in the entire city!

In Manhattan in one day 420 licenses were issued and in Brooklyn 250. This was a slight falling off from the "run" that started when it was announced the government would recommend conscription of all unmarried men from 19 to 25 years of age.

Most of the men crowding the license bureaus in the last few days are between 19 and 25 years, and many of them openly admit they are getting married to evade military service.

"I have reluctantly come to the conclusion this increase in the number of applications for licenses is due in a great degree to the recent announcement that all single men between the ages of 19 and 25 years may be selected by drafting," said City Clerk Patrick J. Scully.

New York has also a marriage chapel, presided over by Theodore Wasserman, where couples may be married on the spot. Wasserman has been busy the past week. "The girls make no bones about it," he said. "Many tell me they have induced their young men to marry at once to avoid conscription."

Oats Fall from False Prices
Made Here on Tuesday Morning.

Advances made on the local market
Tuesday were followed by quietness on Wednesday. All the sensations of the week ceased at once, leaving the market featureless. Receipts were little better than they have been in the past week. The prices on oats fell from 9c to 10c and the excellent figures made Tuesday prove to be merely the result of this sensational advance in other lines.

Corn sold at $1.65@1.67 per bushel, and only four loads were offered. It is expected that this price will continue because of the fact that the last crop of oats is practically all gone and there will be no more for some time. Fourteen loads of hay were brought in and sold at $15 to $18 a ton. This is the highest price asked for hay in the city for a little over a year.

Wheat remained at $2.48@2.50 and was subject to the action of larger markets for any change which might be made. The grain fell in some places Tuesday, but reports indicate that it is regaining its strength and may reach new heights.

Chicago, April 12.—Enlarged estimates of the amount of wheat available in Canada had a bearish effect today on the market here but efforts to buy a little May delivery disclosed that offerings were scarce and led to a sharp rally. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's to 1/2c lower, were followed by additional decline and a general upturn although July and September were relatively easy as compared with May.

The close was unsettled, 2c to 1/2c net higher, with May at $2.32 1/2 to $2.32 3/4, and July at $1.97 1/2 to $1.97 3/4.

Corn declined and rallied with wheat.
After opening 1/4c to 1/2c off the market sagged a little further and then, except for September, rose to well above yesterday's close.

The close was strong at 1 1/2c to 3 1/2c net advance.

Oats averaged higher on account of large purchases for leading houses.

Weakness of the hog market depressed provisions.
